Chapter 2 Examination of Foreign Language Written Application

7201 Handling the Case of Submission of a Written Amendment and a Correction of Translation Error on the Same Date

When a written amendment and a correction of translation error are submitted on the same date, the Examiner determines, based on the order of amendments, whether there can be change to the content of the description etc.

The case where the content can be changed depending on the order of amendments is, for example, a case where concrete amendment portions in each amendment are the same or a case where a written amendment and a correction of translation errors are submitted after the final notice of reasons for refusal (the content can be changed depending on appropriateness of the amendments).

The case where the content cannot be changed depending on the order of amendments is for example, a case where a written amendment and a correction of translation error are submitted along with the first notice of reasons for refusal, and amendment portions in each amendment are different for the respective amendment.

1. Handling when Content can be changed depending on the Order of Amendments

(1) In a case where the content can be changed by the order of amendments, the Examiner determines the earliness and lateness based on the content of the written amendment and of the correction of translation error or the allegations by the Applicant etc.

When the earliness and lateness is clear, it is determined that the amendments are made in the order of the earliness and lateness.

When the earliness and lateness is unclear from the content of the written amendment and the correction of translation error and no allegation by the Applicant etc. is made, the Examiner contacts the Applicant and requests the submission of a petition etc. for explaining the order of the amendments. Moreover, it is determined that the amendments are made in the order of amendments explained in the petition etc.

(2) When the written amendment and the correction of translation error are submitted on the same day as amendments before the first examination or as amendments in a response period to the first notice of reasons for refusal, the Examiner proceeds the examination based on the content of the description, etc. on which the content of each amendment is reflected in the order of the determination according to the above (1).

(3) When the written amendment and the correction of translation error are submitted on the same day as amendments in a response period to the final notice of reasons for refusal, the Examiner determines, based on the order of such amendments, whether each amendment was legitimately amended. Moreover, the Examiner proceeds the examination based on the content of the description etc. in which the content of each amendment legitimately made is reflected with the order of determination according to above (1).

2. Handling when Content cannot be changed by the Order of Amendments

In a case where the content cannot be changed by the order of amendments, the Examiner proceeds the examination based on the content of the description etc. on which the content of written amendment and the correction of translation error is reflected.
