

International Symposium on Intellectual Property - Initiatives to Solve Environmental Issues through WIPO GREEN -

Outline

The Japan Patent Office (JPO) participates as a partner in the online platform WIPO GREEN, which is run by the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO). WIPO GREEN was created to promote the utilization of green technologies. The JPO will hold a symposium on WIPO GREEN's initiatives that facilitate the advancement of green technologies around the world. By having valuable discussions with users and the WIPO at the symposium, the JPO intends to contribute to solving environmental issues by making effective use of intellectual property (IP).
