6 Deposit requirements
For the purposes of this Act, the deposit requirements are to be taken to be satisfied in relation to a micro-organism to which a specification relates if, and only if:
(a) the micro-organism was, on or before the date of filing of the specification, deposited with a prescribed depositary institution in accordance with the rules relating to micro-organisms; and

(d) at all times since the date of filing of the specification, samples of the micro-organism have been obtainable from a prescribed depositary institution as provided by those rules.

7 Novelty, inventive step and innovative step Novelty
(1) For the purposes of this Act, an invention is to be taken to be novel when compared with the prior art base unless it is not novel in the light of any one of the following kinds of information, each of which must be considered separately:
(a) prior art information (other than that mentioned in paragraph (c)) made publicly available in a single document or through doing a single act;
(b) prior art information (other than that mentioned in paragraph (c)) made publicly available in 2 or more related documents, or through doing 2 or more related acts, if the relationship between the documents or acts is such that a person skilled in the relevant art would treat them as a single source of that information;
(c) prior art information contained in a single specification of the kind mentioned in subparagraph (b)(ii) of the definition of prior art base in Schedule 1.

Inventive step
(2) For the purposes of this Act, an invention is to be taken to involve an inventive step when compared with the prior art base unless the invention would have been obvious to a person skilled in the relevant art in the light of the common general knowledge as it existed (whether in or out of the patent area) before the priority date of the relevant claim, whether that knowledge is considered separately or together with the information mentioned in subsection (3).

(3) The information for the purposes of subsection (2) is:
(a) any single piece of prior art information; or
(b) a combination of any 2 or more pieces of prior art information that the skilled person mentioned in subsection (2) could, before the priority date of the relevant claim, be reasonably expected to have combined.

Innovative step
(4) For the purposes of this Act, an invention is to be taken to involve an innovative step when compared with the prior art base unless the invention would, to a person skilled in the relevant art, in the light of the common general knowledge as it existed (whether in or out of the patent area) before the priority date of the relevant claim, only vary from the kinds of information set out in subsection (5) in ways that make no substantial contribution to the working of the invention.

(5) For the purposes of subsection (4), the information is of the following kinds:
(a) prior art information made publicly available in a single document or through doing a single act;
(b) prior art information made publicly available in 2 or more related documents, or through doing 2 or more related acts, if the relationship between the documents or acts is such that a person skilled in the relevant art would treat them as a single source of that information.

(6) For the purposes of subsection (4), each kind of information set out in subsection (5) must be considered separately.

7A Meaning of useful
(1) For the purposes of this Act, an invention is taken not to be useful unless a specific, substantial and credible use for the invention (so far as claimed) is disclosed in the complete specification.

(2) The disclosure in the complete specification must be sufficient for that specific, substantial and credible use to be appreciated by a person skilled in the relevant art.

(3) Subsection (1) does not otherwise affect the meaning of the word useful in this Act.

9 Secret use
For the purposes of this Act, the following acts are not to be taken to be secret use of an invention in the patent area:
(a) any use of the invention by or on behalf of, or with the authority of, the patentee or nominated person, or his or her predecessor in title to the invention, for the purpose of reasonable trial or experiment only;
(b) any use of the invention by or on behalf of, or with the authority of, the patentee or nominated person, or his or her predecessor in title to the invention, being use occurring solely in the course of a confidential disclosure of the invention by or on behalf of, or with the authority of, the patentee, nominated person, or predecessor in title;
(c) any other use of the invention by or on behalf of, or with the authority of, the patentee or nominated person, or his or her predecessor in title to the invention, for any purpose other than the purpose of trade or commerce;
(d) any use of the invention by or on behalf of the Commonwealth, a State, or a Territory where the patentee or nominated person, or his or her predecessor in title to the invention, has disclosed the invention, so far as claimed, to the Commonwealth, State or Territory;
(e) any use of the invention by or on behalf of, or with the authority of, the patentee or nominated person, or his or her predecessor in title to the invention, for any purpose, if a complete application is made for the invention within the prescribed period.

10 Certain international applications to be taken to have been given an international filing date

(1) Where:
(a) an international application specifies Australia as a designated State under Article 4(1)(ii) of the PCT; and (b) the receiving Office does not give the application an international filing date; and
(c) the Commissioner is satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, that the application should, under Article 25(2)(a) of the PCT, be treated as if it had been given an international filing date;
the application is to be taken, for the purposes of this Act, to have been given an international filing date under Article 11 of the PCT.

(2) This section does not apply to an international application that was not filed in the receiving Office in English unless a translation of the application into English, verified in accordance with the regulations, has been filed.

(3) Where this section applies, the international filing date of the application is to be taken to be the date that, in the opinion of the Commissioner, should have been given to the application as its international filing date under the PCT.
11 Act binds the Crown
(1) This Act binds the Crown in right of the Commonwealth, of each of the States, of the Australian Capital Territory and of the Northern Territory.

(2) Nothing in this Act makes the Crown liable to be prosecuted for an offence.

(2) A patent may be assigned for a place in, or part of, the patent area.
Part 2 Ownership

15 Who may be granted a patent?
(1) Subject to this Act, a patent for an invention may only be granted to a person who:
   (a) is the inventor; or
   (b) would, on the grant of a patent for the invention, be entitled to have the patent assigned to the person; or
   (c) derives title to the invention from the inventor or a person mentioned in paragraph (b); or
   (d) is the legal representative of a deceased person mentioned in paragraph (a), (b) or (c).

(2) A patent may be granted to a person whether or not he or she is an Australian citizen.

16 Co-ownership of patents
(1) Subject to any agreement to the contrary, where there are 2 or more patentees:
   (a) each of them is entitled to an equal undivided share in the patent; and
   (b) each of them is entitled to exercise the exclusive rights given by the patent for his or her own benefit without accounting to the others; and
   (c) none of them can grant a licence under the patent, or assign an interest in it, without the consent of the others.

(2) Where a patented product, or a product of a patented method or process, is sold by any of 2 or more patentees, the buyer, and a person claiming through the buyer, may deal with the product as if it had been sold by all the patentees.

(3) This section does not affect the rights or obligations of a trustee or of the legal representative of a deceased person, or rights or obligations arising out of either of those relationships.

17 Directions to co-owners
(1) Where there are 2 or more patentees, the Commissioner may, on the application of any of them, give such directions in accordance with the application as the Commissioner thinks fit, being directions about:
(a) a dealing with the patent or an interest in it; or
(b) the grant of licences under the patent; or
(c) the exercise of a right under section 16 in relation to the patent.

(2) If a patentee fails to do anything necessary to carry out a direction under subsection (1) within 14 days after being asked in writing to do so by one of the other patentees, the Commissioner may, on the application of one of those other patentees, direct a person to do it in the name and on behalf of the defaulting patentee.

(3) Before giving a direction, the Commissioner must give an opportunity to be heard:
(a) in the case of an application by a patentee or patentees under subsection (1)—to the other patentee or patentees; and
(b) in the case of an application under subsection (2)—to the defaulting patentee.

(4) The Commissioner must not give a direction that:
(a) affects the rights or obligations of a trustee or of the legal representative of a deceased person, or rights or obligations arising out of either of those relationships; or
(b) is inconsistent with the terms of an agreement between the patentees.
Part 3 Validity

Division 1 Validity

(d) was not secretly used in the patent area before the priority date of that claim by, or on behalf of, or with the patentee’s or nominated person’s predecessor in title to the invention.

Patentable inventions for the purposes of an innovation patent

(1A) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), an invention is a patentable invention for the purposes of an innovation patent if the invention, so far as claimed in any claim:
(a) is a manner of manufacture within the meaning of section 6 the priority date of that claim:

(i) is novel; and
(ii) involves an innovative step; and
(c) is useful; and
(d) was not secretly used in the patent area before the priority date of that claim by, or on behalf of, or with the authority of, the patentee or nominated person or the patentee’s or nominated person’s predecessor in title to the invention.

(2) Human beings, and the biological processes for their

Certain inventions not patentable inventions for the purposes of an innovation patent

(3) For the purposes of an innovation patent, plants and animals, and the biological processes for the generation of plants and animals, are not patentable inventions.

(4) Subsection (3) does not apply if the invention is a microbiological process or a product of such a process.

19 Certificate of validity

(1) In any proceedings in a court in which the validity of a patent, or of a claim, is disputed, the court may certify that the validity of a specified claim was questioned.

(2) If a court issues a certificate, then, in any subsequent proceedings for infringement of the claim concerned, or for the revocation of the patent so far as it relates to that claim, the patentee, or any other person supporting the validity of the claim is, on obtaining a final order or judgment in his or her favour, entitled to full costs, charges and expenses as between solicitor and client, so far as that claim is concerned.

(3) Subsection (2) has effect subject to any direction by the court trying the proceedings.

20 Validity of patent not guaranteed

(1) Nothing done under this Act or the PCT guarantees the granting of a patent, or that a patent is valid, in Australia or anywhere else.

(2) The Commonwealth, the Commissioner, a Deputy Commissioner, or an employee, is not liable because of, or in connection with, doing any act under this Act or the PCT, or any proceedings consequent on doing any such act.

21 Validity not implied by making or refusal of non-infringement declaration

The making of, or refusal to make, a non-infringement declaration in respect of a claim of a patent does not imply that the claim is valid.

Division 2 Matters not affecting validity

22A Validity not affected by who patent is granted to A patent is not invalid merely because:
(a) the patent, or a share in the patent, was granted to a person who was not entitled to it; or
(b) the patent, or a share in the patent, was not granted to a person who was entitled to it.

22 Invalidity in relation to one claim not to affect validity in relation to other claims
The invalidity of a patent in relation to a claim does not affect its validity in relation to any other claim.

23 Validity not affected by publication etc. after priority date
A patent is not invalid, so far as the invention is claimed in any claim, merely because of:
(a) the publication or use of the invention, so far as claimed in that claim, on or after the priority date of that claim; or
(b) the grant of another patent which claims the invention, so far as claimed in the first-mentioned claim, in a claim of the same or a later priority date.

24 Validity not affected by making information available in certain circumstances
(1) For the purpose of deciding whether an invention is novel or involves an inventive step or an innovative step, the person making the decision must disregard:
(a) any information made publicly available in the prescribed circumstances, by or with the consent of the nominated person or patentee, or the predecessor in title of the nominated person or patentee; and
(b) any information made publicly available without the consent of the nominated person or patentee, through any publication or use of the invention by another person who derived the information from the nominated person or patentee or from the predecessor in title of the nominated person or patentee; but only if a complete application for the invention is made within the prescribed period.

(2) For the purpose of deciding whether an invention is novel or involves an inventive step or an innovative step, the person making the decision must disregard:

(a) any information given by, or with the consent of, the nominated person or the patentee, or his or her predecessor in title, to any of the following, but to no other person or organisation:

(i) the Commonwealth or a State or Territory, or an authority of the Commonwealth or a State or Territory;

(ii) a person authorised by the Commonwealth or a State or Territory to investigate the invention; and

(b) anything done for the purpose of an investigation mentioned in subparagraph (a)(ii).

25 Validity: patents of addition

Objection cannot be taken to a patent request or complete specification in respect of an application for a patent of addition, and a patent of addition is not invalid, merely because the invention, so far as claimed, does not involve an inventive step, having regard to the publication or use of the main invention during the prescribed period.

26 Validity not affected in certain cases involving amendments

(1) Objection cannot be taken to a patent request and specification that have been accepted, and a patent is not invalid, merely because the specification claims an invention that was not the subject of the request, or that was not described or claimed in the specification as filed.

(2) Except in the case of an amendment made in contravention of section 112 or 112A, objection cannot be taken to a patent request and specification that have been accepted, and a patent is not invalid, merely because an amendment of the specification has been made that was not allowable.

Division 3 Notice of matters affecting validity

27 Notice of matters affecting validity of standard patents

(1) A person may, within the prescribed period after a complete specification filed in relation to an application for a standard patent becomes open to public inspection, notify the Commissioner, in accordance with the regulations, that the person asserts, for reasons stated in the notice, that the invention concerned is not a patentable invention because it does not comply with paragraph 18(1)(b).

(2) The Commissioner must:
(a) notify the applicant for the patent of any matter of which the Commissioner is notified under subsection (1); and
(b) give the applicant for the patent a copy of any document accompanying the notice under subsection (1).

(2A) Without limiting paragraph (2)(b), the Commissioner may give the copy by:
(a) making the copy available to the applicant for the patent in an electronic form; and
(b) notifying the applicant for the patent that the copy is available.

(3) The Commissioner must otherwise consider and deal with a notice in accordance with the regulations.

(4) A notice and any document accompanying it are open to public inspection.

28 Notice of matters affecting validity of innovation patents

Person may give notice of invalidity of an innovation patent

(1) A person may notify the Commissioner that the person asserts, for reasons stated in the notice, that an innovation patent is invalid because the invention concerned does not comply with paragraph 18(1A)(b).

When notice may be given

(2) A notice may only be given to the Commissioner under subsection (1) in respect of an innovation patent within the prescribed period after an innovation patent has been granted.

How notice must be given

(3) Notice must be given in accordance with the regulations.
(4) The Commissioner must:
(a) notify the patentee of any matter of which the Commissioner is notified under subsection (1); and
(b) give the patentee a copy of any document accompanying the notice under subsection (1).

(4A) Without limiting paragraph (4)(b), the Commissioner may give the copy by:
(a) making the copy available to the patentee in an electronic form; and
(b) notifying the patentee that the copy is available.

(5) The Commissioner must otherwise consider and deal with a notice in accordance with the regulations.

may make a joint Convention application.

(2) If 2 or more basic applications for protection in respect of inventions have been made in one or more Convention countries, one Convention application may be made by a Convention applicant in relation to those basic applications, or by 2 or more such entitled applicants jointly, in respect of the inventions disclosed in the basic applications.

(3) Subject to subsections (4) and (5), a Convention application must be made and dealt with in the same way as any other patent application.

(2) The Commissioner may make a determination under subsection (1) whether or not the application has lapsed.

(3) The Commissioner must not make a determination under subsection (1) without first giving each joint applicant a reasonable opportunity to be heard.

(1) If, in any proceedings in a court relating to a patent (the first patent), the court is satisfied either:
(a) that one or more persons are eligible persons in relation to an invention so far as claimed in any claim of the patent (the original claim) but that the patentee is not an eligible person; or
(b) that the patentee and another person or persons are eligible persons in relation to an invention so far as claimed in any claim of the first patent (the original claim);
the court, in addition to any other order it may make in the proceedings, may, by order, declare that the persons who it is satisfied are eligible persons are eligible persons in relation to that invention so far as so claimed.

(2) The Commissioner must not make a declaration without first giving the former patentee a reasonable opportunity to be heard.

(3) An appeal lies to the Federal Court against a decision of the Commissioner making, or refusing to make, a declaration.

36 Other applications by eligible persons

(a) a patent application has been made and, in the case of a complete application, the patent has not been granted; and

(b) an application for a declaration by the Commissioner is made by one or more persons (the section 36 applicants) in accordance with the regulations; and

(c) the Commissioner is satisfied on the balance of probabilities, in relation to an invention disclosed in the specification filed in relation to the application for the patent:
(i) that the nominated person is not an eligible person, but that the section 36 applicants are eligible persons; or
(ii) that the nominated person is an eligible person, but that the section 36 applicants are also eligible persons;

(4) If a complete application is made under section 29 by one or more of the declared persons, the priority date of the claims of a patent for the invention granted to the person, or persons, as the case may be, must be determined under the regulations.

(5) An appeal lies to the Federal Court against a decision by the Commissioner under this section.

37 Complete application may be treated as provisional

(1) Where a complete application is made, the applicant may, at any time during the prescribed period, by written request, ask the Commissioner to direct that the application be treated as a provisional application.

(2) A person is not entitled to make a request if the patent request and specification filed in respect of the application have been accepted or have become open to public inspection.

direction as asked.

(4) Where the Commissioner gives a direction, the complete application is to be taken, for the purposes of this Act, to be, and to have always been, a provisional application.

38 Time for making complete application
(1) If an applicant makes a provisional application, the applicant may make one or more complete applications associated with the provisional application at any time within the prescribed period.

Requirements relating to complete specifications
(2) A complete specification must:
(a) disclose the invention in a manner which is clear enough and complete enough for the invention to be performed by a person skilled in the relevant art; and
(aa) disclose the best method known to the applicant of performing the invention; and
(b) where it relates to an application for a standard patent—end with a claim or claims defining the invention; and

(3) The claim or claims must be clear and succinct and supported by matter disclosed in the specification.

(3A) The claim or claims must not rely on references to descriptions, drawings, graphics or photographs unless absolutely necessary to define the invention.

(4) The claim or claims must relate to one invention only.

41 Specifications: micro-organisms

Provisional specifications

(1A) A specification is taken to comply with subsection 40(1), so far as it requires a description of a micro-organism, if:
(a) the micro-organism is deposited with a prescribed depository institution in accordance with such provisions of the Budapest Treaty as are applicable; and
(b) the prescribed circumstances apply.

Complete specifications

(1) To the extent that an invention is a micro-organism, the complete specification is to be taken to comply with paragraph 40(2)(a), so far as it requires a description of the micro-organism, if the deposit requirements are satisfied in relation to the micro-organism.

(2) Where:
(a) an invention involves the use, modification or cultivation of a micro-organism, other than the micro-organism mentioned in subsection (1); and
(b) a person skilled in the relevant art in the patent area could not reasonably be expected to perform the invention without having a sample of the micro-organism before starting to perform the invention; and
(c) the micro-organism is not reasonably available to a person skilled in the relevant art in the patent area;
the specification is to be taken to comply with paragraph 40(2)(a), so far as it requires a description of the micro-organism, if, and only if, the deposit requirements are satisfied in relation to the micro-organism.

(3) For the purposes of this section, a micro-organism may be taken to be reasonably available to a person even if it is not so available in the patent area.

(4) Where:
(a) the requirements specified in paragraph 6(c) or (d) cease to be satisfied in relation to a micro-organism; and
(b) steps are taken at a later time within the prescribed period in accordance with such provisions (if any) of the regulations as are applicable; and
(c) as a result of those steps, if the period during which those requirements are not satisfied is disregarded, those requirements would be satisfied at that later time; those requirements are to be taken to have been satisfied during the period mentioned in paragraph (c), and such provisions as are prescribed have effect for the protection or compensation of persons who availed themselves, or took definite steps by way of contract or otherwise to avail themselves, of the invention during that period.

42 Micro-organisms ceasing to be reasonably available
(1) Where:
(a) a complete application has been made for a patent, or a patent has been granted for an invention of a kind mentioned in paragraph 41(2)(a); and
(b) the relevant micro-organism was, at the date of filing of the complete specification, reasonably available (within the meaning of section 41) to a skilled person working in the relevant art in the patent area; and
(c) the micro-organism has ceased to be so available; a prescribed court or the Commissioner, on application made in accordance with the regulations, or the Commissioner, on his or her own motion, may declare that the specification does not comply with section 40 unless the deposit requirements are satisfied in relation to the micro-organism.

(2) Where a declaration is made under subsection (1):
(a) this Act has effect in relation to the specification accordingly; and
(b) section 6 applies as if the references in that section to the date of filing of the specification were references to a date specified in the declaration for the purposes of this
(3) Subsection (2) does not limit the operation of section 223.

Division 3 Priority dates

43 Priority dates
(1) Each claim of a specification must have a priority date.
(2) The priority date of a claim is:
(a) if subsection (2A) applies to the claim—the date determined under the regulations; or
(b) otherwise—the date of the filing of the specification.

(2A) This subsection applies to a claim if:
(a) prescribed circumstances apply in relation to the invention defined in the claim; and
(b) a prescribed document discloses, or a prescribed set of prescribed documents considered together disclose, the invention in the claim in a manner that is clear enough and complete enough for the invention to be performed by a person skilled in the relevant art.
(2B) A prescribed document, or a prescribed set of prescribed documents considered together, is taken to disclose the invention in a claim as mentioned in paragraph (2A)(b) so far as such disclosure requires a description of a micro-organism, if:
(a) the micro-organism is deposited with a prescribed depository institution in accordance with such provisions of the Budapest Treaty as are applicable; and
(b) the prescribed circumstances apply.

(3) Where a claim defines more than one form of an invention, then, for the purposes of determining the priority date of the claim, it must be treated as if it were a separate claim for each form of the invention that is defined.

(4) The priority date of a claim of a specification may be different from the priority date of any other claim of the specification.

(5) If, at the time when a Convention application or a PCT application is made in respect of an invention:
(a) an application (the earlier application) has been made for protection in respect of the invention in a Convention country; and
(b) the earlier application was made in the prescribed period; and
(c) the earlier application has been withdrawn, abandoned or refused without becoming open to public inspection; and
(d) the earlier application has not been used as the basis of claiming a right of priority in a Convention country under a law of that country; and
(e) a later application has been made by the same applicant for protection in respect of the invention in a Convention country; the earlier application is taken, for the purposes of this Act, to have never been made.

43AA Disclosure in basic applications
Prescribed documents relating to basic applications
(1) The regulations may prescribe documents that relate to a basic application.
Disclosures in prescribed documents may generally be taken into account

(2) Without limiting the documents or disclosures that may be taken into account for the purposes of this Act in relation to a basic application, account may be taken of a disclosure in a prescribed document that relates to a basic application. Disclosures in prescribed documents must not be taken into account if Commissioner’s requirement not complied with

(3) However, if the Commissioner makes a requirement under subsection (4) in relation to a prescribed document, account must not be taken, for the purposes of this Act, of a disclosure in the prescribed document unless the document has been made available by the prescribed means and within the prescribed period. Commissioner may require prescribed documents be made available

(4) The Commissioner may require that a prescribed document relating to a basic application be made available to the Commissioner by the prescribed means and within the prescribed period.

(3) Where the patent request and specification relating to a complete application for a standard patent are open to public inspection, a person may, in accordance with the regulations, require the Commissioner to direct the applicant to ask, within the prescribed period, for an examination of the request and specification.

(4) Where required under subsection (3), the Commissioner must give a direction accordingly, unless the applicant has already asked, or been directed to ask, for an examination of the patent request and specification.
45 Examination

(1) Subject to subsection (1A), if an applicant asks for an examination of a patent request and complete specification relating to an application for a standard patent, the Commissioner must examine the request and specification and report on:

(a) whether the specification complies with subsections 40(2) to (4); and
(b) whether, to the best of his or her knowledge, the invention, so far as claimed, satisfies the criteria mentioned in paragraphs 18(1)(a), (b) and (c); and
(c) whether the invention is a patentable invention under subsection 18(2); and
(d) such other matters (if any) as are prescribed.

(1A) If a PCT application has been made and the prescribed requirements have not been met, the Commissioner may decline to examine the request and specification under subsection (1) until the requirements have been met.

(2) The examination must be carried out in accordance with the regulations.
Part 3 Acceptance

Division 1 Acceptance of standard patents

49 Acceptance of patent request: standard patent
(1) Subject to section 50, the Commissioner must accept a patent request and complete specification relating to an application for a standard patent if the Commissioner is satisfied, on the balance of probabilities:
(a) that the specification complies with subsections 40(2) to (4); and
(b) that the invention, so far as claimed, satisfies the criteria mentioned in paragraphs 18(1)(a), (b) and (c); and
(c) that the invention is a patentable invention under subsection 18(2); and
(d) as to the matters (if any) prescribed under paragraph 45(1)(d).

(b) the Commissioner has not specified a day to which acceptance is postponed;
the Commissioner is not required to accept the patent request and complete specification unless the applicant withdraws the request in writing.

50 Application or grant may be refused in certain cases
(1) The Commissioner may refuse to accept a request and specification relating to a standard patent, or to grant a standard patent:
(a) for an invention the use of which would be contrary to law; or
(b) on the ground that the specification claims as an invention:
(i) a substance that is capable of being used as food or medicine (whether for human beings or animals and whether for internal or external use) and is a mere mixture of known ingredients; or
(ii) a process producing such a substance by mere admixture.

(2) The Commissioner may refuse to accept a specification relating to a standard patent containing a claim that includes the name of a person as the name, or part of the name, of the invention so far as claimed in that claim.

50A Revocation of acceptance

(1) The Commissioner may revoke the acceptance of a patent request and complete specification relating to an application for a standard patent if the Commissioner is satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, that:

(a) a patent has not been granted on the application; and
(b) the request and specification should not have been accepted, taking account of all the circumstances that existed when the request and specification were accepted (whether or not the Commissioner knew then of their existence); and
(c) it is reasonable to revoke the acceptance, taking account of all the circumstances.

(2) If the Commissioner revokes the acceptance:

(a) the patent request and complete specification are taken to have never been accepted; and
(b) the Commissioner must continue to examine, and report on, the application under section 45; and
(c) sections 49 and 50 continue to apply in relation to the request and specification.

51 Appeal

An appeal lies to the Federal Court against a decision of the Commissioner under this Division (other than a decision under section 50A).

Division 2 Acceptance of innovation patents

52 Formalities check and acceptance of innovation patents

(1) If a complete application for an innovation patent is made, the Commissioner must undertake a formalities check in respect of the application.

(2) If satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, that the application passes the formalities check, the Commissioner must accept the patent request and complete specification.
Chapter 4 Publication

53 Publication of certain information about applicants etc.
(1) If a patent application (other than a PCT application) is made, the Commissioner must publish in the Official Journal the prescribed information about the applicant and the application.

(2) The regulations may make provision for and in relation to the publication of information relating to PCT applications.

54 Notice of publication
(1) Where a complete specification filed in respect of an application for a standard patent (other than a PCT application) has not become open to public inspection, the Commissioner must, if asked to do so by the applicant, publish, in accordance with the regulations, a notice in the Official Journal that the complete specification is open to public inspection.

(2) If subsection 41(2) applies to a specification, the applicant cannot make a request under subsection (1) in relation to the specification unless the specification includes the particulars mentioned in paragraph 6(c).

(3) Where:
(a) a complete specification has been filed in respect of an application for a standard patent (other than a PCT application); and
(b) the prescribed period has ended; and
(c) the specification is not open to public inspection; the Commissioner must publish a notice in the Official Journal that the specification is open to public inspection, unless the application has lapsed or been refused or withdrawn.

(4) Where:
(a) a divisional application for a standard patent provided for in section 79B (other than a PCT application) is made in respect of an original application, whether a PCT application or not; and
(b) the complete specification filed in respect of the original application was open to public inspection when the divisional application was made; the Commissioner must publish a notice in the Official Journal that the complete specification filed in respect of the divisional application is open to public inspection.

(5) Where a divisional application for a standard patent provided for in section 79B (other than a PCT application) is made in respect of an original application that is not a PCT application and:
(a) a notice is published in the Official Journal that the complete specification filed in respect of the original application is open to public inspection; or
(b) a notice is published in the Official Journal that the complete specification filed in respect of the divisional application is open to public inspection;
the Commissioner must also publish in the Official Journal a notice that:
(c) where paragraph (a) applies—the complete specification filed in respect of the divisional application is open to public inspection; or
(d) where paragraph (b) applies—the complete specification filed in respect of the original application is open to public inspection.

(6) Where:
(a) a divisional application for a standard patent provided for in section 79B (other than a PCT application) is made in respect of an original application that is a PCT application; and
(b) a notice is published in the Official Journal that the complete specification filed in respect of the original application is open to public inspection;
the Commissioner must also publish in the Official Journal a notice that the complete specification filed in respect of the divisional application is open to public inspection.

55 Documents open to public inspection
(1) Where a notice is published under section 54 or under subsection 62(3), the specification concerned, and such other documents (if any) as are prescribed, are open to public inspection.
(2) Where a notice is published under paragraph 49(5)(b) in relation to an application for a standard patent, or under subsection 62(2) in relation to the grant of an innovation patent, the following documents are open to public inspection:

(a) all documents (other than prescribed documents) filed in relation to the application or the patent, whether before or after the acceptance or grant;

(b) all documents (other than prescribed documents) filed, after the patent ceases, expires or is revoked, in relation to the former patent;

(c) copies of all documents relating to the application or patent (other than prescribed documents) given by the Commissioner to the applicant or patentee, or the former applicant or patentee;

being documents that have not already become open to public inspection.

(3) Subject to section 56A, a specification, or other document, is to be taken to have been published on the day on which it becomes open to public inspection unless it has been published otherwise before that day.

56 Certain documents not to be published

(1) Except as otherwise provided by this Act, documents of the kind mentioned in section 55:

(a) must not be published or be open to public inspection; and

(b) are not liable to be inspected or produced before the Commissioner or in a legal proceeding unless the Commissioner, court, or any person having power to order inspection or production, directs that the inspection or production be allowed.

(2) Notice of an application for the production in legal proceedings of a document of the kind mentioned in section 55 must be given to the Commissioner, who is entitled to be heard on the application.

56A Publication and inspection of PCT applications

(1) The regulations may make provision for and in relation to the public inspection of PCT applications.
(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the regulations may make provision for and in relation to:
(a) notices regarding the opening of complete specifications relating to PCT applications to public inspection; and
(b) the circumstances in which PCT applications become open to public inspection.

57 Effect of publication of complete specification
(1) After a complete specification relating to an application for a standard patent has become open to public inspection and until a patent is granted on the application, the applicant has the same rights as he or she would have had if a patent for the invention had been granted on the day when the specification became open to public inspection.

(3) Subsection (1) does not give the applicant a right to start proceedings in respect of the doing of an act unless:
(a) a patent is granted on the application; and
(b) the act would, if done after the grant of the patent, have constituted an infringement of a claim of the specification.

(4) It is a defence to proceedings under subsection (1) in respect of an act done:
(a) after the complete specification became open to public inspection; and
(b) before the patent request was accepted:
if the defendant proves that a patent could not validly have been granted to the applicant in respect of the claims (as framed when the act was done) that are alleged to have been infringed by the doing of the act.

(5) For the purposes of applying this section to a PCT application, references to the complete specification becoming open to public inspection are references to the PCT application becoming open to public inspection in accordance with regulations made for the purposes of section 56A.

58 Result of search may be disclosed
The Commissioner may disclose the result of any search made for the purpose of making a report under this Act.
Chapter 5 Opposition to grant of standard patent

59 Opposition to grant of standard patent
The Minister or any other person may, in accordance with the regulations, oppose the grant of a standard patent on one or more of the following grounds, but on no other ground:
(a) that the nominated person is either:
   (i) not entitled to a grant of a patent for the invention; or
   (ii) entitled to a grant of a patent for the invention but only in conjunction with some other person;
(b) that the invention is not a patentable invention;
(c) that the specification filed in respect of the complete application does not comply with subsection 40(2) or (3).

60 Hearing and decision by Commissioner
(1) Where the grant of a standard patent is opposed, the Commissioner must decide the case in accordance with the regulations.

(2) The Commissioner must give the applicant and the opponent a reasonable opportunity to be heard before deciding a case.

(3) The Commissioner may, in deciding a case, take into account any ground on which the grant of a standard patent may be opposed, whether relied upon by the opponent or not.

(3A) If the Commissioner is satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, that a ground of opposition to the grant of the standard patent exists, the Commissioner may refuse the application.

(3B) The Commissioner must not refuse an application under this section unless the Commissioner has, where appropriate, given the applicant a reasonable opportunity to amend the relevant specification for the purpose of removing any ground of opposition and the applicant has failed to do so.

(4) The applicant, and any opponent, may appeal to the Federal Court against a decision of the Commissioner under this section.
Chapter 6 Grant and term of patents

Part 1 Grant

61 Grant of standard patent

(1) Subject to section 100A and paragraph 210A(2)(a), the Commissioner must grant a standard patent, by registering prescribed particulars of the patent in the Register, if:

(2) A standard patent must be granted within the prescribed period.

(3) The Commissioner must notify the patentee that the standard patent has been granted.

62 Grant and publication of innovation patent

(1) If:
(a) the Commissioner accepts a patent request and complete specification filed in respect of an application for an innovation patent; and the Commissioner must grant the innovation patent by registering prescribed particulars of the patent in the Register.

(2) If an innovation patent is granted, the Commissioner must publish a notice in the Official Journal stating that:

63 Joint patentees

A patent may be granted to 2 or more nominated persons jointly.

64 Grant: multiple applications

(1) Subject to this section, where there are 2 or more applications for patents for identical, or substantially identical, inventions, the granting of a patent on one of those applications does not prevent the granting of a patent on any of the other applications.

(2) Where:
(a) an application for a standard patent claims an invention that is the same as an invention that is the subject of a patent and is made by the same inventor; and
(b) the relevant claim or claims in each of the complete specifications have the same priority date or dates; a standard patent cannot be granted on the application.

65 Date of patent

The date of a patent is:
(a) the date of filing of the relevant complete specification; or
(b) where the regulations provide for the determination of a different date as the date of a patent—the date determined under the regulations.

68 Term of innovation patent
The term of an innovation patent is 8 years from the date of the patent.
Part 3 Extension of term of standard patents relating to pharmaceutical substances

70 Applications for extension of patent
(1) The patentee of a standard patent may apply to the Commissioner for an extension of the term of the patent if the requirements set out in subsections (2), (3) and (4) are satisfied.

(2) Either or both of the following conditions must be satisfied:
(a) one or more pharmaceutical substances per se must in substance be disclosed in the complete specification of the patent and in substance fall within the scope of the claim or claims of that specification;
(b) one or more pharmaceutical substances when produced by a process that involves the use of recombinant DNA technology, must in substance be disclosed in the complete specification of the patent and in substance fall within the scope of the claim or claims of that specification.

(3) Both of the following conditions must be satisfied in relation to at least one of those pharmaceutical substances:
(a) goods containing, or consisting of, the substance must be included in the Australian Register of Therapeutic Goods;
(b) the period beginning on the date of the patent and ending on the first regulatory approval date for the substance must be at least 5 years.

(4) The term of the patent must not have been previously extended under this Part.

Meaning of first regulatory approval date
(5) For the purposes of this section, the first regulatory approval date, in relation to a pharmaceutical substance, is:
(a) if no pre-TGA marketing approval was given in relation to the substance—the date of commencement of the first inclusion in the Australian Register of Therapeutic Goods of goods that contain, or consist of, the substance; or
(b) if pre-TGA marketing approval was given in relation to the substance—the date of the first approval.
(5A) For the purposes of paragraph (5)(a), disregard an inclusion in the Australian Register of Therapeutic Goods of goods that contain, or consist of, a pharmaceutical substance if the inclusion was sought for the sole purpose of exporting the goods from Australia to address a public health problem in an eligible importing country:
(a) in circumstances of national emergency or other circumstances of extreme urgency; or
(b) by the public non-commercial use of the goods.

Meaning of pre-TGA marketing approval
(6) For the purposes of this section, pre-TGA marketing approval, in relation to a pharmaceutical substance, is an approval (however described) by a Minister, or a Secretary of a Department, to:

74 Acceptance or refusal of application
Acceptance
(1) If a patentee of a standard patent makes an application for an extension of the term of the patent, the Commissioner must accept the application if the Commissioner is satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, that the requirements of sections 70 and 71 are satisfied in relation to the application.

(2) If the Commissioner accepts the application, the Commissioner must:
(a) notify the applicant of the acceptance; and
(b) publish a notice of the acceptance in the Official Journal.

The Minister or other person may not oppose the grant of the extension on any other ground.

(2) If the grant of an extension of the term of a standard patent is opposed, the Commissioner must decide the case in accordance with the regulations.

(3) The Commissioner must give the applicant and the opponent a reasonable opportunity to be heard before deciding a case.

(4) The applicant, and any opponent, may appeal to the Federal Court against a decision of the Commissioner under this section.

76 Grant of extension

(1) The Commissioner must grant an extension of the term of a standard patent if:
   (a) there is no opposition to the grant; or

(2) If the Commissioner grants an extension, the Commissioner must notify the applicant of the grant and publish a notice of the grant in the Official Journal.

77 Calculation of term of extension

(1) If the Commissioner grants an extension of the term of a standard patent, the term of the extension is equal to:
   (a) the period beginning on the date of the patent and ending on the earliest first regulatory approval date (as defined by section 70) in relation to any of the pharmaceutical substances referred to in subsection 70(2); reduced (but not below zero) by:
(b) 5 years.

(2) However, the term of the extension cannot be longer than 5 years.

78 Exclusive rights of patentee are limited if extension granted
If the Commissioner grants an extension of the term of a standard patent, the exclusive rights of the patentee during the term of the extension are not infringed:
(a) by a person exploiting:
   (i) a pharmaceutical substance per se that is in substance disclosed in the complete specification of the patent and in substance falls within the scope of the claim or claims of that specification; or
   (ii) a pharmaceutical substance when produced by a process that involves the use of recombinant DNA technology, that is in substance disclosed in the complete specification of the patent and in substance falls within the scope of the claim or claims of that specification; for a purpose other than therapeutic use; or
(b) by a person exploiting any form of the invention other than:
   (i) a pharmaceutical substance per se that is in substance disclosed in the complete specification of the patent and in substance falls within the scope of the claim or claims of that specification; or
   (ii) a pharmaceutical substance when produced by a process that involves the use of recombinant DNA technology, that is in substance disclosed in the complete specification of the patent and in substance falls within the scope of the claim or claims of that specification.

79 Rights of patentee if extension granted after patent expires
If:
(a) a patentee applies for an extension of the term of a standard patent; and
(b) the term of the patent expires before the application is determined; and
(c) the extension is granted; the patentee has, after the extension is granted, the same rights to start proceedings in respect of the doing of an act during the period:
(d) commencing on the expiration of the term of the patent; and
(e) ending on the day on which the extension was granted; as if the extension had been granted at the time when the act was done.

79A Commissioner not to make decision if court proceedings pending
If:
(a) a patentee of a standard patent applies for an extension of the term of the patent; and
(b) relevant proceedings in relation to the patent are pending; the Commissioner must not make any decision under this Part in relation to the patent without the leave of the court.
Chapter 6A Divisional applications

79B Divisional applications prior to grant of patent

(1) If:
(a) a complete application (the first application) for a patent is made; and
(b) the first application is not a divisional application for an innovation patent provided for in section 79C;
the applicant may make a further complete application for a patent for an invention disclosed in the specification filed in relation to the first application.

(2) The further complete application:
(a) must be made in accordance with the regulations made for the purposes of this subsection; and
(b) must include the prescribed particulars.

(3) The further complete application can only be made during the period:
(a) starting on the day the first application is made; and
(b) ending when any of the following happens:

(iii) the first application is withdrawn;
(iv) a period prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this subparagraph ends.

(4) In this section:

79C Divisional applications for innovation patents may be made after grant of an innovation patent

Applications may be made

(1) A patentee of an innovation patent (the first patent) may make a complete application for another innovation patent for a further invention disclosed in the first patent if the invention was disclosed in the complete specification filed in respect of the application on which the first patent was granted.

(1A) The further complete application:
(a) must be made in accordance with the regulations made for the purposes of this subsection; and
(b) must include the prescribed particulars.

(2) The patentee may make the further complete application only during the period:
(a) starting when an examination of the first patent begins; and

(iii) the first patent ceases;
(iv) a period prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this subparagraph ends.

When does an examination begin?
(3) For the purposes of subsection (2), an examination of the patent begins:

(b) if the Commissioner decided to examine the patent under paragraph 101A(a)—on the day the Commissioner made that decision.
Chapter 7 Patents of addition

80 Chapter does not apply to innovation patents
This Chapter does not apply in relation to innovation patents.

81 Grant of patent of addition
(1) Where:
(a) a patent for an invention (in this Chapter called the main invention) has been applied for or granted; and
(b) the applicant or patentee (or a person authorised by the applicant or patentee) applies for a further patent for an improvement in, or modification of, the main invention; and
(c) the application for that further patent is made in accordance with the regulations;
the Commissioner may, subject to this Act and the regulations, grant a patent of addition for the improvement or modification.

(2) A patent request and complete specification relating to an application for a patent of addition must not be examined before a request is made for the examination of the patent request and complete specification relating to the application for the patent for the main invention.

(3) A patent of addition must not be granted before the patent for the main invention is granted.
(4) An appeal lies to the Federal Court against a decision of the Commissioner under this section.

82 Revocation of patent and grant of patent of addition instead
(1) Where:
(a) an invention that is an improvement in, or modification of, a main invention is the subject of an independent patent; and
(b) the patentee of the independent patent is also the patentee of the patent for the main invention;
the Commissioner may, on an application made by the patentee, revoke the independent patent and grant a patent of addition for the improvement or modification.

(2) A patent of addition granted under this section must be given the same date as the date of the independent patent that is revoked.
(3) An appeal lies to the Federal Court against a decision of the Commissioner refusing an application under this section.

83 Term of patent of addition

Usual term

(1) The general rule is that a patent of addition remains in force for so long as the patent for the main invention remains in force. However, this rule is subject to the exceptions set out in subsections (3) and (4).

(2) The term of a patent of addition may be extended under Part 3 of Chapter 6, even though the patent for the main invention is not extended under that Part.

Patent of addition extended

(3) If the term of a patent of addition is extended under Part 3 of Chapter 6:
   (a) the extension begins at the end of the unextended term of the patent for the main invention; and
   (b) when the extension begins, the patent of addition becomes an independent patent.

Patent for main invention extended

(4) If:
   (a) the term of the patent for the main invention is extended under Part 3 of Chapter 6; and
   (b) the term of the patent of addition is not extended under that Part;
   the term of the patent of addition expires at the end of the unextended term of the patent for the main invention.

85 Revocation of patent for main invention

(1) If the patent for the main invention is revoked by a prescribed court, or by the Commissioner under section 101 or 137, the patent of addition becomes an independent patent unless otherwise ordered by:
   (a) where the patent is revoked by a prescribed court—that court; or
   (b) in any other case—the Commissioner.
(2) Where a patent of addition becomes an independent patent under this section, its term cannot be more than the unexpired part of the term of the patent for the main invention.

86 Renewal fees not payable
A fee is not payable for the renewal of a patent of addition.

87 Fees payable where patent of addition becomes an independent patent
The fees payable after a patent of addition becomes an independent patent, and the dates when they become payable, are to be determined by reference to the date of the independent patent.
Chapter 9 Re-examination of standard patents

96A Chapter does not apply to innovation patents
This Chapter does not apply in relation to innovation patents.

97 Re-examination of complete specifications

(3A) The re-examination must be carried out in accordance with the regulations.

(4) Where relevant proceedings in relation to a patent are pending, the Commissioner must not re-examine the complete specification relating to the patent under subsection (2).

(5) Where:
(a) the Commissioner has started to re-examine a complete specification relating to a patent under subsection (2); and
(b) relevant proceedings in relation to the patent are started;
the Commissioner must not continue the re-examination.

99 Statement by applicant or patentee
(1) Where the Commissioner reports adversely on a complete specification, the applicant or patentee may, within the prescribed period, file a statement, in accordance with the regulations, disputing the whole or any part of the report.

(2) The applicant or patentee may file a statement whether or not the applicant or patentee takes steps to amend the complete specification, or files a statement of amendments in accordance with a direction under section 106 or 107.

100 Copies of report to be given to court
A copy of a report under section 98, and of any statement filed under section 99 in relation to the report, must, where the re-examination was directed under subsection 97(3), be given to the court that gave the direction.

100A Refusal to grant patent--re-examination before grant
(1) The Commissioner may refuse to grant a patent if the Commissioner:
(a) makes an adverse report on a re-examination of the relevant specification under subsection 97(1); and
(b) is satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, that there is a lawful ground of objection to the specification.

(2) The Commissioner cannot refuse to grant a patent under this section unless the Commissioner:
(a) has given the applicant a reasonable opportunity to be heard; and
(b) has, where appropriate, given the applicant a reasonable opportunity to amend the relevant specification for the purpose of removing any lawful ground of objection and the applicant has failed to do so.

(3) The applicant may appeal to the Federal Court against a decision of the Commissioner under this section.

101 Revocation of patent. re-examination after grant

101A Examination may be requested or Commissioner may decide to examine After the grant of an innovation patent, the Commissioner:
(a) may, if the Commissioner decides to do so; and
(b) must, if asked to do so, in writing, by the patentee or any other person; examine the complete specification relating to an innovation patent.

101B Examination of an innovation patent
What the Commissioner must do in examining a patent
(1) If the Commissioner decides, or is asked, to examine an innovation patent under section 101A, the Commissioner must:

(e) the patent does not claim as an invention a substance that is capable of being used as food or medicine (whether for human beings or animals and whether for internal or external use) and is a mere mixture of known ingredients; and
(f) the patent does not claim as an invention a process producing such a substance by mere admixture; and
(g) the patent does not contain a claim that includes the name of a person as the name, or part of the name, of the invention so far as it is claimed in that claim; and
(h) the patent does not claim an invention that is the same as an invention that is the subject of a patent and is made by the same inventor, where the relevant claim or claims in respect of each patent have the same priority date or dates; and (i) the complete specification complies with such other matters (if any) as are prescribed for the purpose of this paragraph.

101C How and when examination to be carried out

The examination under section 101B must be carried out:

(iii) the invention is a patentable invention under subsections 18(2) and (3);
(iv) the use of the invention would not be contrary to law;
(v) the patent does not claim as an invention a substance that is capable of being used as food or medicine (whether for human beings or animals and whether for internal or external use) and is a mere mixture of known ingredients;
(vi) the patent does not claim as an invention a process producing such a substance by mere admixture;
(vii) the patent does not contain a claim that includes the name of a person as the name, or part of the name, of the invention so far as it is claimed in that claim;
(viii) the patent does not claim an invention that is the same as an invention that is the subject of a patent and is made by the same inventor, where the relevant claim or claims in respect of each patent have the same priority date or dates;
(ix) the complete specification complies with such other matters (if any) as are prescribed for the purpose of paragraph 101B(2)(i); and
(b) the patent has not ceased under section 143A.

(2) If this section applies, the Commissioner must:
(a) notify the patentee and the person who requested the examination (if that person is not the patentee) that the patent has been examined and that a certificate of examination is to be issued; and
(b) publish a notice of the examination having occurred in the Official Journal; and
(c) issue a certificate of examination to the patentee in the approved form; and
(d) register the issue of the certificate.

101EA Revocation of certificate of examination

(1) The Commissioner may revoke a certificate of examination issued in relation to an innovation patent if the Commissioner is satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, that:
(a) the certificate of examination should not have been issued, taking account of all the circumstances that existed when the certificate was issued (whether or not the Commissioner knew then of their existence); and
(b) it is reasonable to revoke the certificate, taking account of all the circumstances; and
(c) there are no relevant proceedings pending.

(2) If the Commissioner revokes the certificate:
(a) all of the provisions of section 101E are taken, after revocation, to have never operated in relation to the patent; and
(b) the Commissioner must continue to examine and report on the patent under section 101B; and
(c) sections 101E and 101F continue to apply in relation to the patent.

101F Revocation of innovation patents following examination under section 101B

(1) The Commissioner must revoke a patent if:
(a) the patent has been examined under section 101B; and
(b) section 101E does not apply to the patent; and
(c) the patent has not ceased under section 143A.

(2) If the Commissioner revokes the patent:
(a) the Commissioner must notify the patentee and the person who requested the examination (if that person is not the patentee) of the revocation; and
(b) register the revocation of the patent.

(3) The Commissioner must not revoke a patent under this section unless the Commissioner:
(a) has given the patentee a reasonable opportunity to be heard; and
(b) has, if appropriate, given the patentee a reasonable opportunity to amend the relevant specification for the purposes of removing a ground for the revocation of the patent and the patentee has failed to do so.

(4) An appeal lies to the Federal Court against a decision of the Commissioner revoking a patent.
Part 2 Re-examination of innovation patents

101G Re-examination of complete specifications of innovation patents
(1) Subject to subsections 101K(2) and (3) and the regulations, after an innovation patent has been certified, the Commissioner:
(a) may, if the Commissioner decides to do so; and
(b) must, if asked to do so, in writing, by the patentee or any other person;
re-examine the complete specification relating to the patent.

(1A) The re-examination must be carried out in accordance with the regulations.

(2) If the Commissioner re-examines an innovation patent under subsection (1):
(a) the Commissioner must re-examine the complete specification relating to the patent to determine if the patent is invalid and should be revoked because a ground set out in subsection (3) is made out; and
(b) the Commissioner must report on the grounds set out in subsection (3).

(3) The grounds for the revocation of the patent under subsection (2) are as follows:
(a) that the specification filed in respect of the complete application does not comply with subsection 40(2) or (3);
(b) that the invention, so far as claimed, does not comply with paragraph 18(1A)(a), (b) or (c);
(c) that the invention is not a patentable invention under subsection 18(2) or (3).

(4) There are no other grounds for the revocation of a patent under subsection (2).

101H Patentee statements
(1) If the Commissioner reports that, after re-examining a patent under section 101G, a ground for the revocation of the patent has been made out, the patentee may, within the prescribed period, file a statement, in accordance with the regulations, disputing the whole or any part of the report.

(2) The patentee may file a statement whether or not the patentee takes steps to amend the complete specification, or files a statement of amendments in accordance with a direction under section 106.

101J Revocation of innovation patent following re-examination

(1) The Commissioner may, by notice in writing, revoke a patent, either wholly or so far as it relates to a particular claim, if the Commissioner:
(a) makes an adverse report on a re-examination of the relevant specification under section 101G; and
(b) is satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, that there is a ground of revocation of the patent.

(2) If the Commissioner revokes the patent:
(a) the Commissioner must notify the patentee and the person who requested the examination (if that person is not the patentee) of the revocation; and
(b) register the revocation of the patent.

(3) The Commissioner must not revoke a patent under this section unless:
(a) the Commissioner has given the patentee a reasonable opportunity to be heard; and
(b) the Commissioner has considered the statement made by the patentee under section 101H (if any); and
(c) the Commissioner has, if appropriate, given the patentee a reasonable opportunity to amend the relevant specification for the purpose of removing any ground for revocation and the patentee has failed to do so.

(4) The Commissioner must not revoke a patent under this section while relevant proceedings in relation to that patent are pending.

(5) The patentee may appeal to the Federal Court against a decision of the Commissioner under this section.
101K Relevant proceedings and re-examination

(1) If the validity of an innovation patent is disputed in any proceedings before a prescribed court under this Act, the court may direct the Commissioner to re-examine the complete specification relating to the patent. If so directed, the Commissioner must re-examine the specification accordingly.

(2) If relevant proceedings in relation to an innovation patent are pending, the Commissioner must not re-examine the complete specification relating to the patent.

(3) If:
   (a) the Commissioner has started to re-examine a complete specification relating to an innovation patent; and
   (b) relevant proceedings in relation to the patent are started; the Commissioner must not continue the re-examination.

101L Copies of report to be given to court

A copy of a report under paragraph 101G(2)(b), and of any statement filed under section 101H in relation to the report, must, if the re-examination was directed under subsection 101K(1), be given to the court that gave the direction.
Part 3 Opposition to innovation patents

101M Opposition to innovation patent
The Minister, or any other person, may, in accordance with the regulations, oppose an innovation patent that has been certified and seek the revocation of it, on one or more of the following grounds of invalidity, but on no other:
(a) that the patentee is either:
(i) not entitled to the patent; or
(ii) entitled to the patent but only in conjunction with some other person;
(b) that the complete specification does not comply with subsection 40(2) or (3);
(c) that the invention is not a patentable invention because it does not comply with paragraph 18(1A)(a), (b) or (c);
(d) that the invention is not a patentable invention under subsection 18(2) or (3).

101N Hearing and decision by the Commissioner
(1) If an innovation patent has been opposed under section 101M, the Commissioner must decide the case in accordance with the regulations.

(2) The Commissioner must give the opponent and the patentee a reasonable opportunity to be heard before deciding the case.

(3) The Commissioner may, in deciding whether to revoke the patent, take into account any ground on which the grant of an innovation patent may be opposed, whether relied upon by the opponent or not.

(4) Subject to subsection (6), if the Commissioner is satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, that a ground exists for the revocation of an innovation patent, the Commissioner may revoke the patent in writing either wholly or so far as it relates to a particular claim.

(5) If the Commissioner revokes the patent:
(a) the Commissioner must notify the patentee and the opponent of the revocation; and
(b) register the revocation of the patent.
(6) The Commissioner must not revoke a patent under this section unless the Commissioner has, where appropriate, given the patentee a reasonable opportunity to amend the relevant specification for the purpose of removing any ground for revocation and the patentee has failed to do so.

(7) The patentee, and any opponent, may appeal to the Federal Court against a decision of the Commissioner under this section.

101P Relevant proceedings and opposition
If relevant proceedings in relation to an innovation patent are pending, the Commissioner must not make a decision under this Part in relation to the patent without the leave of the court.
Chapter 10 Amendments

Part 1 Amendments that are not allowable

102 What amendments are not allowable?
Amendment of complete specification not allowable if amended specification claims or discloses matter extending beyond that disclosed in certain documents

(1) An amendment of a complete specification is not allowable if, as a result of the amendment, the specification would claim or disclose matter that extends beyond that disclosed in the following documents taken together:
(a) the complete specification as filed;
(b) other prescribed documents (if any).

Certain amendments of complete specification are not allowable after relevant time

(2) An amendment of a complete specification is not allowable after the relevant time if, as a result of the amendment:
(a) a claim of the specification would not in substance fall within the scope of the claims of the specification before amendment; or
(b) the specification would not comply with subsection 40(2) or (3).

Meaning of relevant time

(2A) For the purposes of subsection (2), relevant time means:
(a) in relation to an amendment proposed to a complete specification relating to a standard patent—after the specification has been accepted; or
(b) in relation to an amendment proposed to a complete specification relating to an innovation patent—after the Commissioner has made a decision under paragraph 101E(1)(a) in respect of the patent.

Amendment of innovation patent request not allowable in certain circumstances

(2B) An amendment to a patent request relating to an innovation patent application is not allowable if:
(a) the patent application was provided for in section 79C; and
(b) the effect of the proposed amendment would be to convert the application from an application for an innovation patent to an application for a standard patent.

Amendments of a kind prescribed by regulations not allowable

(2D) An amendment of a patent request or a complete specification is not allowable if it is of a kind prescribed by regulations made for the purposes of this section. Section does not apply in certain cases

(3) This section does not apply to an amendment for the purposes of:
(a) correcting a clerical error or an obvious mistake made in, or in relation to, a complete specification; or
(b) complying with paragraph 6(c) (about deposit requirements).

103 Consent of mortgagee or exclusive licensee needed

(1) Where a person is registered as the mortgagee or exclusive licensee of a patent, an amendment of the complete specification is not allowable unless the mortgagee or licensee has consented, in writing, to the amendment.

(2) If a mortgagee or licensee refuses to consent to a proposed amendment, the Commissioner may, on the application of the applicant or patentee, if satisfied on the balance of probabilities that the consent has been unreasonably refused, direct that the consent of the mortgagee or licensee is not necessary.
Part 2 Amendments of patent requests, specifications and other filed documents

104 Amendments by applicants and patentees

(1) An applicant for a patent or a patentee, may, subject to this Act, and subject to and in accordance with the regulations, ask the Commissioner for leave to amend the relevant patent request or complete specification, or any other filed document, for any purpose including either or both of the following:
   (a) removing a lawful ground of objection to the request or specification, whether that objection is raised in the course of an examination or re-examination or otherwise;
   (b) correcting a clerical error or an obvious mistake.

(2) Where an applicant or patentee asks for leave to amend a patent request or complete specification, or any other filed document, the Commissioner must consider and deal with the request in accordance with the regulations.

(4) The Minister or any other person may, subject to and in accordance with the regulations, oppose allowing an amendment.

(5) The Commissioner must not allow an amendment that is not allowable under section 102.

(6) On the allowance of an amendment, the amendment is to be taken to have been made.

(7) An appeal lies to the Federal Court, against a decision of the Commissioner allowing, or refusing to allow, a requested amendment, other than a prescribed decision.

105 Amendments directed by court

Order for amendment during relevant proceedings

(1) In any relevant proceedings in relation to a patent, the court may, on the application of the patentee, by order direct the amendment of the patent request or the complete specification in the manner specified in the order.

Order for amendment during an appeal
(1A) If an appeal is made to the Federal Court against a decision or direction of the Commissioner in relation to a patent application, the Federal Court may, on the application of the applicant for the patent, by order direct the amendment of the patent request or the complete specification in the manner specified in the order.

Orders for amendment generally
(2) An order under subsection (1) or (1A) may be made subject to such terms (if any) as to costs, advertisements or otherwise, as the court thinks fit.

(3) The applicant for an order under subsection (1) or (1A) must give notice of an application for an order to the Commissioner, who is entitled to appear and be heard, and must appear if the court directs.

(4) A court is not to direct an amendment that is not allowable under section 102.

(5) The applicant must file a copy of an order within the prescribed period.

(6) On the filing of a copy of an order, the patent request or complete specification is to be taken to have been amended in the manner specified in the order.

106 Amendments directed by Commissioner: patents
(1) Where:
(a) a patent has been granted; and
(b) the Commissioner is satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, that the patent is invalid on grounds that could be removed by appropriate amendments of the specification following:
(i) in the case of a standard patent—re-examination of the patent; or
(ii) in the case of an innovation patent—examination of, re-examination of, or opposition to, the patent; the Commissioner may, in accordance with the regulations, direct the patentee to file, within such time as the Commissioner allows, a statement of proposed amendments of the specification for the purpose of removing those grounds.

(2) The Commissioner must not give a direction without first giving the patentee a reasonable opportunity to be heard.

(3) A patentee may, in accordance with the regulations, amend a statement of amendments.

(4) If the Commissioner is satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, that the amendments set out in a statement (or an amended statement) are allowable and would, if made, remove the grounds on which the patent is invalid, the Commissioner must allow the amendments.

(5) On the allowance of an amendment, the amendment is to be taken to have been made.

107 Amendments directed by Commissioner: applications for standard patents

(1) Where:
(a) a complete application for a standard patent has been made; and
(b) the Commissioner is satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, that there are lawful grounds of objection to the patent request or complete specification, but that those grounds of objection could be removed by appropriate amendments of the request or specification; and
(c) the applicant has not taken action to amend the request or specification so as to remove those grounds of objection; the Commissioner may, in accordance with the regulations, direct the applicant to file, within such time as the Commissioner allows, a statement of proposed amendments of the request or specification for the purpose of removing those grounds of objection.

(2) The Commissioner must not give a direction without first giving the applicant a reasonable opportunity to be heard.

(3) An applicant may, in accordance with the regulations, amend a statement of amendments.
(4) If the Commissioner is satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, that the amendments set out in a statement (or an amended statement) are allowable and would, if made, remove all lawful grounds of objection to the patent request and complete specification, the Commissioner must allow the amendments.

(5) On the allowance of an amendment, the amendment is to be taken to have been made.

109 Appeal

An appeal lies to the Federal Court against a direction of the Commissioner under section 106 or 107.
Part 3 Miscellaneous

110 Advertisement of amendment of complete specification
An amendment of a complete specification that is open to public inspection must be notified in the Official Journal.

112 Pending proceedings
A complete specification relating to a patent must not be amended, except under section 105, while relevant proceedings in relation to the patent are pending.

112A Decisions on appeal
A complete specification relating to a patent application must not be amended, except under section 105, if:
(a) an appeal against a decision or direction of the Commissioner has been made to the Federal Court in relation to the specification; and
(b) the appeal, and any proceedings resulting from it, have not been finally determined, withdrawn or otherwise disposed of.

113 Persons claiming under assignment or agreement
(1) Where, before a patent is granted, a person would, if the patent were then granted, be entitled under an assignment or agreement, or by operation of law, to:
(a) the patent or an interest in it; or
(b) an undivided share in the patent or in such an interest; the Commissioner may, on a request made by the person in accordance with the regulations, direct that the application proceed in the name of the person, or in the name of the person and the applicant or the other joint applicant or applicants, as the case requires.

(2) Where the Commissioner gives a direction:
(a) the person is to be taken to be the applicant, or a joint applicant, as the case requires; and
(b) the patent request is to be taken to have been amended so as to request the grant of a patent to the person, either alone or as a joint patentee, as the case requires.

114 Priority date of claims of certain amended specifications
(1) This section applies if:
(a) a complete specification has been amended; and
(b) the amendment was not allowable under subsection 102(1); and
(c) as a result of the amendment, a claim of the amended specification claims an invention that:
(i) was not disclosed by the complete specification as filed in a manner that was clear enough and complete enough for the invention to be performed by a person skilled in the relevant art; but
(ii) is disclosed in that manner by the amended specification.

(2) If this section applies, the priority date of the claim must be determined under the regulations.

114A Objection cannot be taken to certain amended specifications
(1) This section applies if:
(a) a complete specification (the original specification) has been amended; and
(b) the amendment was not allowable under subsection 102(1); and
(ba) as a result of the amendment, a claim of the amended specification claims an invention that was not disclosed by the original specification as filed in a manner that was clear enough and complete enough for the invention to be performed by a person skilled in the relevant art; and
(c) after the filing date of the original specification there is a publication or use of the invention as described in the original specification.

(2) If this section applies, objection cannot be taken to the amended specification, and a patent is not invalid, on the ground that the invention, so far as claimed in the amended specification and having regard to the publication or the use of the invention described in the original specification, does not involve:
(a) in the case of a standard patent—an inventive step; or
(b) in the case of an innovation patent—an innovative step.

115 Restriction on recovery of damages etc.
(1) Where a complete specification is amended after becoming open to public inspection, damages shall not be awarded, and an order shall not be made for an account of profits, in respect of any infringement of the patent before the date of the decision or order allowing or directing the amendment:

(a) unless the court is satisfied that the specification without the amendment was framed in good faith and with reasonable skill and knowledge; or
(b) if the claim of the specification that was infringed is a claim mentioned under subsection 114(1).

(2) Subsection (1) has effect subject to subsections 57(3) and (4).

116 Interpretation of amended specifications
The Commissioner or a court may, in interpreting a complete specification as amended, refer to the specification without amendment.
Chapter 11 Infringement

Part 1 Infringement and infringement proceedings

117 Infringement by supply of products
(1) If the use of a product by a person would infringe a patent, the supply of that product by one person to another is an infringement of the patent by the supplier unless the supplier is the patentee or licensee of the patent.

(2) A reference in subsection (1) to the use of a product by a person is a reference to:
(a) if the product is capable of only one reasonable use, having regard to its nature or design—that use; or
(b) if the product is not a staple commercial product—any use of the product, if the supplier had reason to believe that the person would put it to that use; or
(c) in any case—the use of the product in accordance with any instructions for the use of the product, or any inducement to use the product, given to the person by the supplier or contained in an advertisement published by or with the authority of the supplier.

118 Infringement exemptions: use in or on foreign vessels, aircraft or vehicles
The rights of a patentee are not infringed:
(a) by using the patented invention on board a foreign vessel, in the body of the vessel, or in the machinery, tackle, apparatus or other accessories of the vessel, if the vessel comes into the patent area only temporarily or accidentally and the invention is used exclusively for the needs of the vessel; or
(b) by using the patented invention in the construction or working of a foreign aircraft or foreign land vehicle, or in the accessories of the aircraft or vehicle, if the aircraft or vehicle comes into the patent area only temporarily or accidentally.

119 Infringement exemptions: prior use
(1) A person may, without infringing a patent, do an act that exploits a product, method or process and would infringe the patent apart from this subsection, if immediately before the priority date of the relevant claim the person:
(a) was exploiting the product, method or process in the patent area; or
(b) had taken definite steps (contractually or otherwise) to exploit the product, method or process in the patent area.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if, before the priority date, the person:
(a) had stopped (except temporarily) exploiting the product, method or process in the patent area; or
(b) had abandoned (except temporarily) the steps to exploit the product, method or process in the patent area.

Limit for product, method or process derived from patentee

(3) Subsection (1) does not apply to a product, method or process the person derived from the patentee or the patentee’s predecessor in title in the patented invention unless the person derived the product, method or process from information that was made publicly available:
(a) by or with the consent of the patentee or the patentee’s predecessor in title; and
(b) in the prescribed circumstances mentioned in paragraph 24(1)(a).

Exemption for successors in title

(4) A person (the disposer) may dispose of the whole of the disposer’s entitlement under subsection (1) to do an act without infringing a patent to another person (the recipient). If the disposer does so, this section applies in relation to the recipient as if the references in subsections (1), (2) and (3) to the person were references to:
(a) the disposer; or
(b) if the disposer’s entitlement arose because of one or more previous applications of this subsection—the first person:
(i) who was entitled under subsection (1) (applying of its own force) to do an act without infringing the patent; and
(ii) to whom the disposer’s entitlement is directly or indirectly attributable.

Definition
exploit includes:

(a) in relation to a product:
(i) make, hire, sell or otherwise dispose of the product; and
(ii) offer to make, hire, sell or otherwise dispose of the product; and
(iii) use or import the product; and
(iv) keep the product for the purpose of doing an act described in subparagraph (i), (ii) or (iii); and

(b) in relation to a method or process:
(i) use the method or process; and
(ii) do an act described in subparagraph (a)(i), (ii), (iii) or (iv) with a product resulting from the use of the method or process.

119A Infringement exemptions: acts for obtaining regulatory approval of pharmaceuticals

(1) The rights of a patentee of a pharmaceutical patent are not infringed by a person exploiting an invention claimed in the patent if the exploitation is solely for:

(a) purposes connected with obtaining the inclusion in the Australian Register of Therapeutic Goods of goods that:
   (i) are intended for therapeutic use; and
   (ii) are not medical devices, or therapeutic devices, as defined in the Therapeutic Goods Act 1989; or

(b) purposes connected with obtaining similar regulatory approval under a law of a foreign country or of a part of a foreign country.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to the export from Australia of goods for purposes described in paragraph (1)(b) unless the term of the patent has been extended under Part 3 of Chapter 6 and the goods consist of or contain:

(a) a pharmaceutical substance per se that is in substance disclosed in the complete specification of the patent and in substance falls within the scope of the claim or claims of that specification; or

(b) a pharmaceutical substance when produced by a process that involves the use of recombinant DNA technology, that is in substance disclosed in the complete specification of the patent and in substance falls within the scope of the claim or claims of that specification.

(3) In this section:
pharmaceutical patent means a patent claiming:
(a) a pharmaceutical substance; or
(b) a method, use or product relating to a pharmaceutical substance, including any of the following:
(i) a method for producing a raw material needed to produce the substance;
(ii) a product that is a raw material needed to produce the substance;
(iii) a product that is a pro-drug, metabolite or derivative of the substance.

119B Infringement exemptions: acts for obtaining regulatory approval (non-pharmaceuticals)
(1) A person may, without infringing a patent, do an act that would infringe the patent apart from this subsection, if the act is done solely for:
(a) purposes connected with obtaining an approval required by a law of the Commonwealth or of a State or Territory to exploit a product, method or process; or
(b) purposes connected with obtaining a similar approval under a law of another country or region.

(2) This section does not apply in relation to a pharmaceutical patent within the meaning of subsection 119A(3).

119C Infringement exemptions: acts for experimental purposes
(1) A person may, without infringing a patent for an invention, do an act that would infringe the patent apart from this subsection, if the act is done for experimental purposes relating to the subject matter of the invention.

(2) For the purposes of this section, experimental purposes relating to the subject matter of the invention include, but are not limited to, the following:
(a) determining the properties of the invention;
(b) determining the scope of a claim relating to the invention;
(c) improving or modifying the invention;
(d) determining the validity of the patent or of a claim relating to the invention;
(e) determining whether the patent for the invention would be, or has been, infringed by the doing of an act.

120 Infringement proceedings
(1) Subject to subsection (1A), infringement proceedings may be started in a prescribed court, or in another court having jurisdiction to hear and determine the matter, by the patentee or an exclusive licensee.

(1A) Infringement proceedings in respect of an innovation patent cannot be started unless the patent has been certified.

(2) If an exclusive licensee starts infringement proceedings, the patentee must be joined as a defendant unless joined as a plaintiff.

(3) A patentee joined as a defendant is not liable for costs unless the patentee enters an appearance and takes part in the proceedings.

(4) Infringement proceedings must be started within:
(a) 3 years from the day on which the relevant patent is granted; or
(b) 6 years from the day on which the infringing act was done; whichever period ends later.

121 Counter-claim for revocation of patent
(1) A defendant in infringement proceedings may apply by way of counter-claim in the proceedings for the revocation of the patent.

(2) The provisions of this Act relating to proceedings for the revocation of a patent apply, with the necessary changes, to a counter-claim.

121A Burden of proof-infringement of patent for a process
(1) This section applies only to a patent for a process for obtaining a product.

(2) If, in proceedings for infringement of a patent started by the patentee or the exclusive licensee:

(a) the defendant alleges that he or she has used a process different from the patented process to obtain a product (defendant’s product) identical to the product obtained by the patented process; and

(b) the court is satisfied that:

(i) it is very likely that the defendant’s product was made by the patented process; and

(ii) the patentee or exclusive licensee has taken reasonable steps to find out the process actually used by the defendant but has not been able to do so;

then, in the absence of proof to the contrary the onus for which is on the defendant, the defendant’s product is to be taken to have been obtained by the patented process.

(3) In deciding how the defendant is to adduce evidence for the purposes of subsection (2), the court is to take into account the defendant’s legitimate interests in having business and manufacturing secrets protected.

122 Relief for infringement of patent

(1) The relief which a court may grant for infringement of a patent includes an injunction (subject to such terms, if any, as the court thinks fit) and, at the option of the plaintiff, either damages or an account of profits.

(1A) A court may include an additional amount in an assessment of damages for an infringement of a patent, if the court considers it appropriate to do so having regard to:

(a) the flagrancy of the infringement; and

(b) the need to deter similar infringements of patents; and

(c) the conduct of the party that infringed the patent that occurred:

(i) after the act constituting the infringement; or

(ii) after that party was informed that it had allegedly infringed the patent; and

(d) any benefit shown to have accrued to that party because of the infringement; and

(e) all other relevant matters.

(2) On the application of either party, the court may make such order for the inspection of any thing in or on any vehicle, vessel, aircraft or premises, and may impose such terms and give such directions about the inspection, as the court thinks fit.

123 Innocent infringement
(1) A court may refuse to award damages, or to make an order for an account of profits, in respect of an infringement of a patent if the defendant satisfies the court that, at the date of the infringement, the defendant was not aware, and had no reason to believe, that a patent for the invention existed.

(2) If patented products, marked so as to indicate that they are patented in Australia, were sold or used in the patent area to a substantial extent before the date of the infringement, the defendant is to be taken to have been aware of the existence of the patent unless the contrary is established.

(3) Nothing in this section affects a court’s power to grant relief by way of an injunction.
Part 2 Non-infringement declarations

124 Interpretation
In this Part:
patentee includes an exclusive licensee.

125 Application for non-infringement declaration
(1) A person who has done, is doing, or is intending to do an act may apply to a prescribed court for a declaration that the doing of the act does not, or would not, infringe a patent.

(2) An application may be made:
(a) for a declaration in relation to an invention claimed in a standard patent—at any time after the patent has been granted; and
(b) for a declaration in relation to an innovation patent—at any time after the patent has been certified; and
(c) whether or not the patentee has made any assertion to the effect that the doing of the act has or would infringe the claim.

(3) The patentee must be joined as a respondent in the proceedings.

126 Proceedings for non-infringement declarations
(1) A prescribed court must not make a non-infringement declaration unless:
(a) the applicant for the declaration:
(i) has asked the patentee in writing for a written admission that the doing of the act has not infringed, or would not infringe, the patent; and
(ii) has given the patentee full written particulars of the act done, or proposed to be done; and
(iii) has undertaken to pay a reasonable sum for the patentee’s expenses in obtaining advice about whether the act has infringed or would infringe the claim; and
(b) the patentee has refused or failed to make the admission.

(2) The court may make orders as to costs as the court thinks fit.
127 Effect of non-infringement declarations

If:
(a) a patentee has given a person a written admission that the doing of an act has not infringed, or would not infringe, a claim, or a prescribed court has made a non-infringement declaration in respect of an invention; and
(b) the patentee later gets an injunction restraining the person from doing the act as specified in the admission, or the declaration is revoked;
the person is not liable:
(c) to account to the patentee for any profits, made by the person before the date on which the injunction was granted or the declaration was revoked, from the doing of the act as specified in the admission or declaration; or
(d) to pay damages for any loss suffered by the patentee before that date as a result of the doing of that act.
Part 3 Unjustified threats of infringement proceedings

128 Application for relief from unjustified threats

(1) Where a person, by means of circulars, advertisements or otherwise, threatens a person with infringement proceedings, or other similar proceedings, a person aggrieved may apply to a prescribed court, or to another court having jurisdiction to hear and determine the application, for:
(a) a declaration that the threats are unjustifiable; and
(b) an injunction against the continuance of the threats; and
(c) the recovery of any damages sustained by the applicant as a result of the threats.

(1A) The court may include an additional amount in an assessment of damages sustained by the applicant as a result of the unjustifiable threats, if the court considers it appropriate to do so having regard to:
(a) the flagrancy of the threats; and
(b) the need to deter similar threats; and
(c) the conduct of the person who made the threats, being conduct that occurred after the person made the threats; and
(d) any benefit shown to have accrued to the person who made the threats because of the threats; and
(e) all other relevant matters.

(2) Subsection (1) applies whether or not the person who made the threats is entitled to, or interested in, the patent or a patent application.

129 Court’s power to grant relief if threats related to a standard patent or standard patent application

If an application under section 128 for relief relates to threats made in respect of a standard patent or an application for a standard patent, the court may grant the applicant the relief applied for unless the respondent satisfies the court that the acts about which the threats were made infringed, or would infringe:
(a) a claim that is not shown by the applicant to be invalid; or
(b) rights under section 57 in respect of a claim that is not shown by the applicant to be a claim that would be invalid if the patent had been granted.

129A Threats related to an innovation patent application or innovation patent and court’s power to grant relief

Certain threats of infringement proceedings are always unjustifiable

(1) If:
   (a) a person:
      (i) has applied for an innovation patent, but the application has not been determined; or
      (ii) has an innovation patent that has not been certified; and
   (b) the person, by means of circulars, advertisements or otherwise, threatens a person with infringement proceedings or other similar proceedings in respect of the patent applied for, or the patent, as the case may be;
then, for the purposes of an application for relief under section 128 by the person threatened, the threats are unjustifiable.

Courts power to grant relief in respect of threats made by the applicant for an innovation patent or the patentee of an uncertified innovation patent

(2) If an application under section 128 for relief relates to threats made in respect of an innovation patent that has not been certified or an application for an innovation patent, the court may grant the applicant the relief applied for.

Courts power to grant relief in respect of threats made by the patentee of a certified innovation patent

(3) If an application under section 128 for relief relates to threats made in respect of a certified innovation patent, the court may grant the applicant the relief applied for unless the respondent satisfies the court that the acts about which the threats were made infringed, or would infringe, a claim that is not shown by the applicant to be invalid.

130 Counter-claim for infringement

(1) The respondent in proceedings under section 128 may apply, by way of counter-claim, for relief to which the respondent would be entitled in separate proceedings for an infringement by the applicant of the patent to which the threats relate.
(2) Where the respondent applies by way of counter-claim, the applicant may, without making a separate application under Chapter 12, apply in the proceedings for the revocation of the patent.

(3) The provisions of this Act relating to infringement proceedings apply, with the necessary changes, to a counter-claim.

(4) The provisions of this Act relating to proceedings under section 138 for the revocation of a patent apply, with the necessary changes, to an application under subsection (2).

131 Notification of patent not a threat
The mere notification of the existence of a patent, or an application for a patent, does not constitute a threat of proceedings for the purposes of section 128.

132 Liability of legal practitioner or patent attorney
A legal practitioner or a registered patent attorney is not liable to proceedings under section 128 in respect of an act done in a professional capacity on behalf of a client.
Chapter 12 Compulsory licences and revocation of patents

Part 1 Introduction

132A Simplified outline of this Chapter
This Chapter provides for court orders requiring the grant of compulsory licences in respect of patented inventions. Special provision is made for compulsory licences to exploit patented pharmaceutical inventions. This is to enable the manufacture of a pharmaceutical product in Australia for export to an eligible importing country, to address public health problems in that country. This Chapter also provides generally for the surrender of patents, and for court orders revoking patents.
Part 2 Compulsory licences (general)

132B Simplified outline of this Part
The Federal Court may make an order under this Part requiring the grant of a compulsory licence to work a patented invention. The court may order a compulsory licence to be granted if the reasonable requirements of the public are not being met with respect to a patented invention.

The reasonable requirements of the public relate, broadly speaking, to whether Australian trade or industry is unreasonably affected by the actions of the patentee in relation to the manufacture or licensing of the invention (or the carrying on of a patented process).

The court may also order a compulsory licence to be granted if the patentee has engaged in restrictive trade practices in connection with the patent under the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 or under an application law (within the meaning of that Act).

The court may order a patent to be revoked after an order for a compulsory licence has been made (on the same grounds that apply to an order for a compulsory licence).

The patentee must be paid an agreed amount of remuneration, or an amount of remuneration determined by the court.

133 Compulsory licences—general
(1) Subject to subsection (1A), a person may apply to the Federal Court, after the end of the prescribed period, for an order requiring the patentee to grant the applicant a licence to work the patented invention.

(1A) A person cannot apply for an order in respect of an innovation patent unless the patent has been certified.

(2) After hearing the application, the court may, subject to this section, make the order if satisfied that:
(a) all the following conditions exist:
(i) the applicant has tried for a reasonable period, but without success, to obtain from the patentee an authorisation to work the invention on reasonable terms and conditions;
(ii) the reasonable requirements of the public with respect to the patented invention have not been satisfied;
(iii) the patentee has given no satisfactory reason for failing to exploit the patent; or
(b) the patentee has contravened, or is contravening, Part IV of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 or an application law (as defined in section 150A of that Act) in connection with the patent.

(3) An order must direct that the licence:
(a) is not to give the licensee, or a person authorised by the licensee, the exclusive right to work the patented invention; and
(b) is to be assignable only in connection with an enterprise or goodwill in connection with which the licence is used; and may direct that the licence is to be granted on any other terms specified in the order.

(3B) If the patented invention cannot be worked by the applicant without his or her infringing another patent:
(a) the court is to make the order only if the court is further satisfied that the patented invention involves an important technical advance of considerable economic significance on the invention (other invention) to which the other patent relates; and
(b) the court must further order that the patentee of the other invention:
   (i) must grant to the applicant a licence to work the other invention insofar as is necessary to work the patented invention; and
   (ii) is to be granted, if he or she so requires, a cross-licence on reasonable terms to work the patented invention; and
(c) the court must direct that the licence granted by the patentee of the other invention may be assigned by the applicant:
   (i) only if he or she assigns the licence granted in respect of the patented invention; and
   (ii) only to the assignee of that licence.

(4) An order operates, without prejudice to any other method of enforcement, as if it were embodied in a deed granting a licence and executed by the patentee and all other necessary parties.
(5) The patentee is to be paid in respect of a licence granted to the applicant under an order:
(a) such amount as is agreed between the patentee and the applicant; or
(b) if paragraph (a) does not apply—such amount as is determined by the Federal Court to be just and reasonable having regard to the economic value of the licence and the desirability of discouraging contraventions of Part IV of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 or an application law (as defined in section 150A of that Act).

(6) The patentee or the Federal Court may revoke the licence if:
(a) the patentee and the licensee are agreed, or the court on application made by either party finds, that the circumstances that justified the grant of the licence have ceased to exist and are unlikely to recur; and
(b) the legitimate interests of the licensee are not likely to be adversely affected by the revocation.

134 Revocation of patent after grant of compulsory licence under section 133
(1) Where a compulsory licence ordered under section 133 relating to a patent is granted, an interested person may apply to the Federal Court, after the end of the prescribed period, for an order revoking the patent.

(2) After hearing the application, the court may make the order if satisfied that:
(a) both:
(i) the reasonable requirements of the public with respect to the patented invention have not been satisfied; and
(ii) the patentee has given no satisfactory reason for failing to exploit the patent; or
(b) the patentee is contravening Part IV of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 or an application law (as defined in section 150A of that Act) in connection with the patent.

135 Reasonable requirements of the public
(1) For the purposes of sections 133 and 134, the reasonable requirements of the public with respect to a patented invention are to be taken not to have been satisfied if:
(a) an existing trade or industry in Australia, or the establishment of a new trade or industry in Australia, is unfairly prejudiced, or the demand in Australia for the patented product, or for a product resulting from the patented process, is not reasonably met, because of the patentee’s failure:
(i) to manufacture the patented product to an adequate extent, and supply it on reasonable terms; or
(ii) to manufacture, to an adequate extent, a part of the patented product that is necessary for the efficient working of the product, and supply the part on reasonable terms; or
(iii) to carry on the patented process to a reasonable extent; or
(iv) to grant licences on reasonable terms; or
(b) a trade or industry in Australia is unfairly prejudiced by the conditions attached by the patentee (whether before or after the commencing day) to the purchase, hire or use of the patented product, the use or working of the patented process; or
(c) if the patented invention is not being worked in Australia on a commercial scale, but is capable of being worked in Australia.

(2) If, where paragraph (1)(c) applies, the court is satisfied that the time that has elapsed since the patent was granted has, because of the nature of the invention or some other cause, been insufficient to enable the invention to be worked in Australia on a commercial scale, the court may adjourn the hearing of the application for the period that the court thinks sufficient for that purpose.

136 Orders to be consistent with international agreements
An order must not be made under section 133 or 134 that is inconsistent with a treaty between the Commonwealth and a foreign country.

136A Dealing with allegation of contravention of application law Proceedings under section 133 or 134 involving an allegation of contravention of an application law that is a law of a State must be dealt with as if the law were a law of the Commonwealth.
Part 3 Patented pharmaceutical invention compulsory licences (for manufacture and export to eligible importing countries)

Division 1 Introduction

136B Simplified outline of this Part
The Federal Court may make an order under this Part requiring the grant of a compulsory licence to exploit a patented pharmaceutical invention for manufacture and export to an eligible importing country. The court may order a compulsory licence to be granted if the proposed use of the pharmaceutical product is to address a public health issue in the eligible importing country:
(a) in a national emergency (or other extremely urgent circumstances); or
(b) by the public non-commercial use of the product.
The order may be amended or revoked by another order of the court. The patentee must be paid an agreed amount of remuneration, or an amount of remuneration determined by the court.

136C Relationship between Parts 2 and 3
This Part does not prevent a compulsory licence from being ordered under Part 2 in relation to a patented pharmaceutical invention.

Division 2 Patented pharmaceutical invention compulsory licences

136D PPI compulsory licences-applications for orders
Application for order
(1) A person (the PPI order applicant) may apply to the Federal Court for an order (the PPI order) under section 136E requiring the patentee of a patented pharmaceutical invention to grant the PPI order applicant a licence (a PPI compulsory licence) to exploit the invention to the extent necessary for the purposes of manufacturing a pharmaceutical product in Australia for export to an eligible importing country.

(2) However, a person cannot apply for an order in respect of an innovation patent unless the patent has been certified.
Statement—eligible importing country
(3) An application must include a copy of a statement made by or on behalf of, and with the authorisation of, the eligible importing country to the effect that it will take reasonable measures within its means, proportionate to its administrative capacities and to the risk of trade diversion, to prevent re-exportation from its territory of a pharmaceutical product imported into its territory in accordance with a PPI compulsory licence.

Statement—importer
(4) If the pharmaceutical product is to be imported on behalf of, and with the authorisation of, the eligible importing country, an application must also include a copy of a statement made by the importer to the effect that it will take reasonable measures within its means to prevent the pharmaceutical product from being used other than in accordance with a PPI compulsory licence.

Parties
(5) The following are parties to proceedings on an application under this section:
(a) the PPI order applicant;
(b) the patentee;
(c) any person claiming an interest in the patent as exclusive licensee or otherwise;
(d) at the option of the eligible importing country—that country.

136E PPI compulsory licences—orders
(1) After hearing an application for a PPI order under section 136D, the Federal Court may, subject to this Part, make the order sought if the court is satisfied of all of the following matters:
(a) the application is made in good faith;
(b) the pharmaceutical product is to be imported:
(i) by the eligible importing country; or
(ii) by a person (the third party importer) on behalf of, and with the authorisation of, the eligible importing country;
(c) the proposed use of the pharmaceutical product is to address a public health problem in the eligible importing country:
(i) in circumstances of national emergency or other circumstances of extreme urgency; or
(ii) in other circumstances—by the public non-commercial use of the pharmaceutical product;
(d) exploiting the patented pharmaceutical invention is necessary to enable the import and proposed use of the pharmaceutical product as mentioned in paragraphs (b) and (c);
(e) if subparagraph (c)(ii) applies:
(i) the PPI order applicant has given the patentee a notice in the approved form seeking from the patentee an authorisation to exploit the patented pharmaceutical invention for public non-commercial use; and
(ii) during the 30 days beginning when the notice was given, the PPI order applicant has tried, without success, to obtain such an authorisation from the patentee on reasonable terms and conditions;
(f) the notification requirements prescribed by regulation in relation to the importation of the pharmaceutical product into the eligible importing country have been complied with;
(g) the PPI order applicant, the eligible importing country and, if there is a third party importer, that importer, will take reasonable measures to prevent a pharmaceutical product that is exported from Australia in accordance with a PPI compulsory licence from being used for a purpose other than the purpose of addressing the public health problem mentioned in paragraph (c).

(2) Without limiting the matters that the court may take into account in deciding whether it is satisfied of a matter mentioned in subsection (1), the court must take into account any matters prescribed by regulation.

(3) A regulation made for the purposes of paragraph (1)(f) may:
(a) without limiting subsection 33(3A) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901, prescribe different notification requirements for the importation of pharmaceutical products into eligible importing countries of different kinds; and
(b) despite subsection 14(2) of the Legislation Act 2003, refer to eligible importing countries (or different kinds of eligible importing countries) by applying, adopting or incorporating, with or without modification, any matter contained in any other instrument or other writing as in force or existing from time to time.

136F PPI compulsory licences—terms

(1) A PPI order must direct that the PPI compulsory licence is granted on the following terms:
(a) no more than the quantity of the pharmaceutical product that is determined by the Federal Court to be necessary to meet the needs of the eligible importing country is manufactured;
(b) the entirety of the pharmaceutical product manufactured for that purpose is exported to that country;
(c) the pharmaceutical product is labelled and marked in accordance with the regulations;
(d) before shipment of the pharmaceutical product begins, the shipment information prescribed by regulation is made available on a website by, or on behalf of, the licensee for a minimum period prescribed by regulation;
(e) the duration of the licence is only for the period of time determined by the Federal Court to be necessary to address the public health problem concerned;
(f) the licence does not give the licensee, or a person authorised by the licensee, the exclusive right to exploit the patented pharmaceutical invention;
(g) the licence is to be assignable only in connection with an enterprise or goodwill in connection with which the licence is used;
(h) the licensee must give the Commissioner the information prescribed by regulation in relation to the licence in accordance with the regulations.

(2) A PPI order may also direct that the licence is to be granted on any other terms specified in the order, including terms covering:
(a) other requirements relating to the labelling and marking of the pharmaceutical product; and
(b) other information to be made available by the licensee and the way in which it is to be made available.

(3) However, a term specified in a PPI order must not be inconsistent with any regulations prescribed for the purposes of paragraph (1)(c), (d) or (h).

136G PPI compulsory licences—amendment

Application for order

(1) A person may apply to the Federal Court for an order amending any of the following terms of a PPI compulsory licence:
(a) the quantity of the pharmaceutical product concerned;
(b) how the pharmaceutical product is labelled and marked;
(c) the duration of the licence;
(d) the information that is to be made available by the licensee and the way it is to be made available.

Order

(2) The court may make the order sought in relation to a term if it is satisfied that:
(a) it is just to do so in all the circumstances; and
(b) the legitimate interests of the following are not likely to be adversely affected by the amendment of the term:
(i) the patentee;
(ii) any person claiming an interest in the patent as exclusive licensee or otherwise;
(iii) the licensee;
(iv) the eligible importing country.

(3) However, an amended term must not be inconsistent with any regulations prescribed for the purposes of paragraph 136F(1)(c), (d) or (h).

Parties

(4) The following are parties to any proceedings under this section:
(a) the applicant under subsection (1);
(b) the patentee;
(c) any person claiming an interest in the patent as exclusive licensee or otherwise;
(d) the licensee;
(e) at the option of the eligible importing country—that country.
136H PPI compulsory licences—revocation

Application
(1) A person may apply to the Federal Court for an order revoking a PPI compulsory licence.

Federal Court may revoke licence
(2) The Federal Court may make the order sought if the court is satisfied that:
(a) one or more of the following applies:
(i) the substantive circumstances that justified the grant of the licence have ceased to exist and are unlikely to recur;
(ii) the licensee has not complied with the terms of the licence;
(iii) if an amount of remuneration has been agreed or determined under section 136J— the amount has not been paid within the time agreed or determined; and
(b) the legitimate interests of the licensee or the eligible importing country are not likely to be adversely affected by the revocation.

Parties
(3) The following are parties to any proceedings under this section:
(a) the applicant for revocation;
(b) the licensee;
(c) at the option of the eligible importing country—that country.

Division 3 Remuneration

136J PPI compulsory licences—remuneration

Working out amount of remuneration
(1) The patentee is to be paid an amount agreed or determined under subsection (3) in respect of the use of a patented pharmaceutical invention authorised by a PPI compulsory licence.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the use of a patented pharmaceutical invention authorised by the PPI compulsory licence is:
(a) while it is in force— the use authorised by the licence as granted and as amended (from time to time) under section 136G; or
(b) if it has ceased to be in force (whether because it was revoked or otherwise)—the actual use of the patented pharmaceutical invention under the licence while it was in force.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (1), the amount is:
(a) an amount agreed between the patentee and the PPI order applicant, licensee or former licensee (as the case requires); or
(b) if paragraph (a) does not apply—an amount determined by the Federal Court to be adequate remuneration taking into account the economic value to the eligible importing country of the use of the patented pharmaceutical invention authorised by the PPI compulsory licence.

Application to make or amend a determination
(4) A person may apply to the Federal Court:
(a) to make a determination under paragraph (3)(b); or
(b) to amend a determination made under that paragraph.

Parties
(5) The following are parties to any proceedings under this section:
(a) the applicant for the determination or the amendment of the determination;
(b) the PPI order applicant;
(c) the licensee;
(d) the patentee of the patented pharmaceutical invention;
(e) any person claiming an interest in the patent as exclusive licensee or otherwise.

Can PPI be exploited if remuneration is not agreed or determined?
(6) To avoid doubt, if the proposed use of the pharmaceutical product is to address a public health problem in the eligible importing country in circumstances of national emergency or other circumstances of extreme urgency, the licensee may exploit a patented pharmaceutical invention under a PPI compulsory licence, as granted or amended (as the case may be), whether or not an amount has been agreed or determined under this section.

(7) However, if the proposed use of the pharmaceutical product is to address a public health problem in the eligible importing country in other circumstances, by the public non-commercial use of the pharmaceutical product, the licensee must not exploit a patented pharmaceutical invention under a PPI compulsory licence unless an amount has been agreed or determined under this section.

Can PPI compulsory licence be revoked if remuneration is not agreed or determined?

(8) To avoid doubt, a PPI compulsory licence may be revoked whether or not an amount has been agreed or determined under this section.

Division 4 General

136K PPI compulsory licences—nature of orders
Without prejudice to any other method of enforcement, a PPI order operates as if it were embodied in a deed granting or amending a licence and executed by the patentee and all other necessary parties.

136L PPI compulsory licences—consistency of orders with international agreements
A PPI order must not be made that is inconsistent with a treaty between the Commonwealth and a foreign country.

136M PPI compulsory licences—applications heard together
Nothing in this Part prevents the Federal Court from dealing with the following applications together:
(a) applications for different PPI orders, or for the amendment or revocation of such orders;
(b) applications for determinations under paragraph 136J(3)(b) for remuneration in relation to different PPI compulsory licences, or for the amendment of such determinations.
Part 4 Surrender and revocation of patents

136N Simplified outline of this Part
A patentee may offer to surrender a patent by giving the Commissioner written notice. The Commissioner may accept the offer of surrender, and revoke the patent, after hearing all interested parties. If court proceedings are pending in relation to the patent, leave of the court, or the consent of the parties, is required. The Commissioner must not accept the offer if a compulsory licence ordered under Part 2 is in force in relation to the patent. In addition, a court may revoke a patent on the following grounds:
(a) the patentee is not entitled to the patent;
(b) the invention is not a patentable invention;
(c) the patent was (broadly speaking) improperly obtained;
(d) the patent was (broadly speaking) obtained on the basis of a non-compliant specification.

137 Revocation on surrender of patent
(1) A patentee may, at any time, by written notice to the Commissioner, offer to surrender the patent.

(2) The Commissioner must give notice of an offer in accordance with the regulations.

(3) After hearing all interested persons who notify the Commissioner in accordance with the regulations of their wish to be heard, the Commissioner may accept the offer and revoke the patent.

(4) Where relevant proceedings in relation to a patent are pending, the Commissioner must not accept an offer to surrender the patent without either the leave of the court or the consent of the parties to the proceedings.

(5) Where a licence ordered under Part 2 is in force in relation to a patent, the Commissioner must not accept an offer to surrender the patent.
138 Revocation of patents in other circumstances

(1) Subject to subsection (1A), the Minister or any other person may apply to a prescribed court for an order revoking a patent.

(1A) A person cannot apply for an order in respect of an innovation patent unless the patent has been certified.

(2) At the hearing of the application, the respondent is entitled to begin and give evidence in support of the patent and, if the applicant gives evidence disputing the validity of the patent, the respondent is entitled to reply.

(3) After hearing the application, the court may, by order, revoke the patent, either wholly or so far as it relates to a claim, on one or more of the following grounds, but on no other ground:
(a) that the patentee is not entitled to the patent;
(b) that the invention is not a patentable invention;
(d) that the patent was obtained by fraud, false suggestion or misrepresentation;
(e) that an amendment of the patent request or the complete specification was made or obtained by fraud, false suggestion or misrepresentation;
(f) that the specification does not comply with subsection 40(2) or (3).

(4) A court must not make an order under subsection (3) on the ground that the patentee is not entitled to the patent unless the court is satisfied that, in all the circumstances, it is just and equitable to do so.
Part 5 Other matters

138A Simplified outline of this Part
This Part deals with the parties to proceedings under this Chapter (other than proceedings under Part 3). This Part also enables the Commissioner to appear and be heard in all proceedings under this Chapter.

139 Parties to proceedings
(1) The patentee, and any person claiming an interest in the patent as exclusive licensee or otherwise, are parties to any proceedings under section 133, 134 or 138.

(2) In any proceedings under this Chapter:
(a) the applicant must serve a copy of the application on the Commissioner; and
(b) the Commissioner may appear and be heard in the proceedings.

140 Commissioner to be given copies of orders
An office copy of an order made under this Chapter must be served on the Commissioner by the Registrar or other appropriate officer of the court that made the order.
Chapter 13 Withdrawal and lapsing of applications and ceasing of patents

141 Withdrawal of applications
(1) A patent application, other than a PCT application, may be withdrawn if all of the following conditions are met:
   (a) the applicant lodges a written notice of withdrawal signed by the applicant;
   (b) if the application has been opposed under section 59, the Commissioner has consented to the withdrawal;
   (c) if the regulations prescribe a period within which an application must not be withdrawn—the withdrawal will not occur within the prescribed period.

(2) The regulations may prescribe circumstances in which PCT applications may be withdrawn, or are to be taken to be withdrawn.

142 Lapsing of applications
(1) A provisional application for a patent lapses at the end of the period prescribed for the purpose of section 38 or, if that period is extended, at the end of the period as so extended.

(2) A complete application for a standard patent lapses if:
   (a) the applicant does not ask for an examination of the patent request and complete specification within the relevant period prescribed for the purposes of subsection 44(1), (2) or (3), as the case requires; or
   (d) the applicant does not pay a continuation fee for the application within the period prescribed for the purposes of this paragraph; or
   (e) the patent request and complete specification are not accepted within the period prescribed for the purposes of this paragraph; or
   (f) if the application is a PCT application—prescribed circumstances apply to the application.

(3) A complete application for a standard patent lapses if the applicant does not comply with a direction of the Commissioner under section 107 within the time allowed by the Commissioner under that section.
143 Ceasing of patents
A standard patent ceases if the patentee:
(a) does not pay a renewal fee for the patent within the prescribed period; or
(b) does not file the prescribed documents (if any) within the prescribed period.

143A Ceasing of innovation patents
An innovation patent ceases if:
(a) the fee for filing the request and accompanying specification relating to an application for an innovation patent is not paid in accordance with the regulations; or
(b) after an examination of the patent has been requested under paragraph 101A(b), the patentee does not pay the prescribed fee for the examination within the prescribed period; or
(c) the Commissioner does not make a decision under paragraph 101E(1)(a) within the period prescribed for the purposes of this paragraph; or
(d) the patentee does not pay a renewal fee for the patent within the prescribed period; or
(e) the patentee does not comply with a direction of the Commissioner under section 106 within the time allowed by the Commissioner under that section.

143B Payment of fees
To avoid doubt, a reference in this Chapter to the payment of a continuation fee or renewal fee by the applicant or patentee is taken to include a reference to the payment of that fee by a person other than the applicant or patentee.
Chapter 14 Contracts

144 Void conditions

(1) A condition in a contract relating to the sale or lease of, or a licence to exploit, a patented invention is void if the effect of the condition would be:
(a) to prohibit or restrict the buyer, lessee or licensee from using a product or process (whether patented or not) supplied or owned by a person other than the seller, lessor or licensor, or a nominee of the seller, lessor or licensor; or
(b) to require the buyer, lessee or licensee to acquire a product not protected by the patent from the seller, lessor or licensor, or a nominee of the seller, lessor or licensor.

(1A) A condition in a contract relating to the sale or lease of, or a licence to exploit, an invention the subject of an innovation patent is void if the effect of the condition would be to:
(a) prohibit the buyer, lessee or licensee from applying for examination of the patent; or
(b) impose restrictions on the circumstances in which the buyer, lessee or licensee may apply for examination of the patent.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if:
(a) the seller, lessor or licensor proves that, at the time the contract was made, the buyer, lessee or licensee had the option of buying the product, or obtaining a lease or licence, on reasonable terms without the condition; and
(b) the contract entitles the buyer, lessee or licensee to be relieved of the liability to comply with the condition on giving the other party 3 months’ notice in writing and paying, in compensation for the relief:
(i) in the case of a sale—such sum as is fixed by an arbitrator appointed by the Minister; or
(ii) in the case of a lease or licence—such rent or royalty as is so fixed for the rest of the term of the contract.

(3) A person is not stopped from applying for or obtaining relief in any proceedings under this Act merely because of an admission made by the person about the reasonableness of terms offered to the person as mentioned in paragraph (2)(a).

(4) It is a defence to proceedings for infringement of a patent that the patented invention is, or was when the proceedings were started, the subject of a contract containing a provision, inserted by the patentee, that is void under this section.

(5) If the patentee offers the other parties to a contract mentioned in subsection (4) a new contract that does not contain the void condition but that otherwise gives the parties the same rights as the existing contract, then, whether or not the other parties accept the new contract in place of the existing contract, subsection (4) ceases to apply, but the patentee is not entitled to damages or an account of profit for an infringement of the patent committed before the offer of the new contract.

145 Termination of contract after patent ceases to be in force

(1) A contract relating to the lease of, or a licence to exploit, a patented invention may be terminated by either party, on giving 3 months’ notice in writing to the other party, at any time after the patent, or all the patents, by which the invention was protected at the time the contract was made, have ceased to be in force.

(2) Subsection (1) applies despite anything to the contrary in that contract or in any other contract.

146 Effect of Chapter

Nothing in this Chapter:

(a) affects a condition in a contract that prohibits a person from selling products other than those of a particular person; or
(b) validates a contract that would otherwise be invalid; or
(c) affects a right to terminate a contract, or to terminate a condition of a contract, being a condition exercisable independently of this section; or
(d) affects a condition in a contract for the lease of, or a licence to exploit, a patented product, that reserves to the lessor or licensor the right to supply new parts of the patented product that are required to put or keep it in repair.
Chapter 15 Special provisions relating to associated technology

147 Certificate by Director as to associated technology
(1) Where the Commissioner considers that a specification in respect of an application may contain information of a kind referred to in the definition of associated technology in subsection 4(1) of the Safeguards Act, the Commissioner must give the Director written notice to that effect together with a copy of the patent request and specification.

(2) On receiving a notice, the Director may, if satisfied that the specification contains information of that kind, issue a certificate to that effect.

(3) Where the Director is satisfied that:
(a) the possession by the applicant or the nominated person of the associated technology containing the information was not in accordance with a permit; or
(b) the communication of the information involved in making the application was not in accordance with an authority;
the Director may include in the certificate:
(c) if the application is not a relevant international application—a direction that the application should lapse; or
(d) if the application is a relevant international application—a direction that the application should not be treated as an international application.

(4) Where the Director issues a certificate, the Director must give a copy of it to the Commissioner who must give a copy to the applicant.

148 Lapsing etc. of applications
(1) Where:
(a) the Commissioner receives a copy of a certificate under subsection 147(2) in relation to an application; and
(b) the certificate includes a direction under subsection 147(3);
then, upon receipt by the Commissioner of that copy:
(c) if the application is not a relevant international application—the application lapses; or
(d) if the application is a relevant international application—the application must cease to be treated as an international application.

(2) Where an application has lapsed under this section, the Commissioner must publish a notice to that effect in the Official Journal.

149 Revocation of direction
Where under section 148 an application has lapsed, or has ceased to be treated as an international application, because of a direction by the Director under section 147, the applicant may apply in writing to the Director for the revocation of the direction and the Director may revoke the direction.

150 Restoration of lapsed application
(1) Where an application has lapsed under section 148, the applicant may, in writing, ask the Commissioner to restore it.

(2) On receiving a request, the Commissioner must restore the application if satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, that:
(a) the relevant direction of the Director is no longer in force; and
(b) there is no other reason not to do so.

(3) Where the Commissioner restores an application, the Commissioner must publish a notice to that effect in the Official Journal.

(4) Where an application is restored under this section, such provisions as are prescribed have effect for the protection or compensation of persons who exploited (or took definite steps by contract or otherwise to exploit) the relevant invention after the lapse of the application and before the day on which its restoration was notified in the Official Journal.

(5) Proceedings cannot be started under section 57 in respect of anything done during the period from and including the day on which the application lapsed to and including the day on which its restoration was notified in the Official Journal.
151 Reinstatement of application as an international application

(1) Where a relevant international application has ceased to be treated as an international application under section 148, the applicant may ask the Commissioner in writing to reinstate it.

(2) On receiving a request, the Commissioner must reinstate the application as an international application if satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, that:
   (a) the relevant direction of the Director is no longer in force; and
   (b) there is no other reason not to do so.

(3) Where the Commissioner reinstates an application as an international application, the application must be treated as an international application.

(4) Where:
   (a) the relevant international application specifies Australia as a designated State; and
   (b) the Commissioner cannot reinstate the application merely because, under the PCT, it is to be considered as having been withdrawn; and
   (c) the applicant files, within the prescribed period, a written request that the application be treated as an application under this Act for a standard patent; and
   (d) the applicant files any prescribed documents and pays the prescribed fee;
then, except as otherwise prescribed:
   (e) the application must be treated as requested; and
   (f) the description, claims, drawings, graphics and photographs in the application must be treated as a complete specification filed in respect of the application; and
   (g) the application and complete specification must be treated as having been filed on the date on which the relevant international application was filed.

152 Notice of prohibitions or restrictions on publication

(1) Where the Director issues a certificate under section 147 in relation to an application, the Director may give written notice to the Commissioner of any prohibitions or restrictions on the publication or communication of the information in the specification, or in a relevant abstract, that the Director considers appropriate.

(2) On receiving a notice, the Commissioner must take such steps as are necessary or expedient to give effect to it.

(3) Without limiting the generality of subsection (2), the Commissioner may, by written order, prohibit or restrict the publication or communication of information about the subject-matter of the application, whether generally or in relation to a particular person or class of persons.

(4) A person must not, except in accordance with the written consent of the Commissioner, publish or communicate information in contravention of an order.
Penalty: Imprisonment for 2 years.

153 Effect of order
(1) Where an order is in force in relation to an application for a standard patent, the application may proceed up to the acceptance of the patent request and complete specification, but the complete specification must not be made open to public inspection, the acceptance must not be notified in the Official Journal and a patent must not be granted on the application.

(2) While an order is in force in relation to an application for an innovation patent, the application may proceed up to the acceptance of the patent request and complete specification but a patent must not be granted on the application.

(3) Where an order in relation to an application for a standard patent has been revoked after the acceptance of the patent request and complete specification, the acceptance must be notified in the Official Journal within the prescribed period.

(4) Nothing in this Act prevents disclosing information about an invention to the Director for the purpose of obtaining advice on whether an order should be made, amended or revoked.
Chapter 16 Jurisdiction and powers of courts

154 Jurisdiction of Federal Court
(1) The Federal Court has jurisdiction with respect to matters arising under this Act.

(2) The jurisdiction of the Federal Court to hear and determine appeals against decisions or directions of the Commissioner is exclusive of the jurisdiction of any other court except the jurisdiction of the High Court under section 75 of the Constitution.

(3) A prosecution for an offence against this Act must not be started in the Federal Court.

155 Jurisdiction of other prescribed courts
(1) Each prescribed court (other than the Federal Court) has jurisdiction with respect to matters arising under this Act in respect of which proceedings may, under this Act, be started in a prescribed court.

(2) The jurisdiction conferred by subsection (1) on the Supreme Court of a Territory is conferred:
(a) in the case of proceedings for the infringement of a patent or proceedings under subsection 125(1) or section 128, or a matter arising under this Act that may be heard and determined in the course of such proceedings, to the extent that the Constitution permits; and
(b) in any other case—only in relation to proceedings instituted by a natural person who is resident in the Territory, or a corporation that has its principal place of business in the Territory, at the time the proceedings are started.

156 Exercise of jurisdiction
The jurisdiction of a prescribed court under section 154 or 155 is to be exercised by a single judge.

157 Transfer of proceedings
(1) A prescribed court in which proceedings under this Act have been started may, on the application of a party made at any stage in the proceedings, by order, transfer the proceedings to another prescribed court having jurisdiction to hear and determine the proceedings.

(2) Where a court transfers proceedings to another court:
(a) all documents of record relevant to those proceedings filed in the transferring court shall be sent to the other court by the Registrar or other appropriate officer of the transferring court; and
(b) the other court shall proceed as if the proceedings had been started in the other court and as if the same steps in the proceedings had been taken there as had been taken in the transferring court.

158 Appeals
(1) An appeal lies to the Federal Court against a judgment or order of:
(a) another prescribed court exercising jurisdiction under this Act; or
(b) any other court in proceedings under subsection 120(1) or section 128.

(2) Except with the leave of the Federal Court, an appeal does not lie to the Full Court of the Federal Court against a judgment or order of a single judge of the Federal Court in the exercise of its jurisdiction to hear and determine appeals from decisions or directions of the Commissioner.

(3) With the special leave of the High Court, an appeal lies to the High Court against a judgment or order referred to in subsection (1).

(4) Except as otherwise provided by this section, an appeal does not lie against a judgment or order referred to in subsection (1).

159 Commissioner may appear in appeals
The Commissioner may appear and be heard at the hearing of an appeal to the Federal Court against a decision or direction of the Commissioner even if the Commissioner is not a party to the appeal.
160 Powers of Federal Court

On hearing an appeal against a decision or direction of the Commissioner, the Federal Court may do any one or more of the following:

(a) admit further evidence orally, or on affidavit or otherwise;

(c) order an issue of fact to be tried as it directs;
(d) affirm, reverse or vary the Commissioner’s decision or direction;

Chapter 17 The Crown

Part 1 Introductory

161 Nominated persons and patentees
A reference in this Chapter to a nominated person or to a patentee includes a reference to the successor in title of the nominated person or patentee or an exclusive licensee of the nominated person or patentee.

162 Commonwealth and State authorities
A reference in this Chapter to the Commonwealth includes a reference to an authority of the Commonwealth and a reference to a State includes a reference to an authority of a State.
Part 2 Exploitation by the Crown

163 Exploitation of inventions by Crown

(1) Where, at any time after a patent application has been made, the invention concerned is exploited by the Commonwealth or a State (or by a person authorised in writing by the Commonwealth or a State) for the services of the Commonwealth or the State, the exploitation is not an infringement:

(a) if the application is pending—of the nominated person’s rights in the invention; or

(b) if a patent has been granted for the invention—of the patent.

(2) A person may be authorised for the purposes of subsection (1):

(a) before or after any act for which the authorisation is given has been done; and

(b) before or after a patent has been granted for the invention; and

(c) even if the person is directly or indirectly authorised by the nominated person or patentee to exploit the invention.

(3) Subject to section 168, an invention is taken for the purposes of this Part to be exploited for services of the Commonwealth or of a State if the exploitation of the invention is necessary for the proper provision of those services within Australia.

164 Nominated person or patentee to be informed of exploitation

As soon as practicable after an invention has been exploited under subsection 163(1), the relevant authority must inform the applicant and the nominated person, or the patentee, of the exploitation and give him or her any information about the exploitation that he or she from time to time reasonably requires, unless it appears to the relevant authority that it would be contrary to the public interest to do so.

165 Remuneration and terms for exploitation

(2) The terms for the exploitation of the invention (including terms concerning the remuneration payable to the nominated person or the patentee) are such terms as are agreed, or determined by a method agreed, between the relevant authority and the nominated person or the patentee or, in the absence of agreement, as are determined by a prescribed court on the application of either party.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2), the terms, or the method, may be agreed before, during or after the exploitation.

(4) When fixing the terms, the court may take into account any compensation that a person interested in the invention or the patent has received, directly or indirectly, for the invention from the relevant authority.

165A Exploitation of invention to cease under court order

(1) A prescribed court may, on the application of the nominated person or the patentee, declare that the exploitation of the invention by the Commonwealth or the State is not, or is no longer, necessary for the proper provision of services of the Commonwealth or of the State if the court is satisfied that, in all the circumstances of the case, it is fair and reasonable to make the declaration.

(2) The court may further order that the Commonwealth or the State is to cease to exploit the invention:
(a) on and from the day specified in the order; and
(b) subject to any conditions specified in the order.

In making the order, the court is to ensure that the legitimate interests of the Commonwealth or of the State are not adversely affected by the order.

166 Previous agreements inoperative

An agreement or licence (whether made or given before or after the commencement of this Act) fixing the terms on which a person other than the Commonwealth or a State may exploit an invention is inoperative with respect to the exploitation, after the commencement of this Act, of the invention under subsection 163(1), unless the agreement or licence has been approved:
(a) if the relevant authority is the Commonwealth—by the Minister; or
(b) if the relevant authority is a State—by the Attorney-
167 Sale of products
(1) The right to exploit an invention under subsection 163(1) includes the right to sell products made in exercise of that right.

(2) Where under subsection 163(1) the sale of products is not an infringement of:
(a) a patent; or
(b) a nominated person’s rights in the products;
the buyer, and any person claiming through the buyer, is entitled to deal with the products as if the relevant authority were the patentee or the nominated person.

168 Supply of products by Commonwealth to foreign countries
Where the Commonwealth has made an agreement with a foreign country to supply to that country products required for the defence of the country:
(a) the use of a product or process by the Commonwealth, or by a person authorised in writing by the Commonwealth, for the supply of that product is to be taken, for the purposes of this Chapter, to be use of the product or process by the Commonwealth for the services of the Commonwealth; and
(b) the Commonwealth or the authorised person may sell those products to the country under the agreement; and
(c) the Commonwealth or the authorised person may sell to any person any of the products that are not required for the purpose for which they were made.

169 Declarations that inventions have been exploited
(1) Subject to subsection (4), a patentee who considers that the patented invention has been exploited under subsection 163(1) may apply to a prescribed court for a declaration to that effect.

(2) In proceedings under subsection (1):
(a) the alleged relevant authority is the defendant; and
(b) the alleged relevant authority may apply by way of counter-claim in the proceedings, for the revocation of the patent.
(3) The provisions of this Act relating to the revocation of patents apply, with the necessary changes, to a counter-claim.

(4) An application under subsection (1) in respect of an innovation patent cannot be made unless the patent has been certified.

170 Sale of forfeited articles
Nothing in this Chapter affects the right of the Commonwealth or a State, or of a person deriving title directly or indirectly from the Commonwealth or a State, to sell or use an article forfeited under a law of the Commonwealth or the State.
Part 3 Acquisitions by and assignments to the Crown

171 Acquisition of inventions or patents by Commonwealth
(1) The Governor-General may direct that a patent, or an invention that is the subject of a patent application, be acquired by the Commonwealth.

(2) When a direction is given, all rights in respect of the patent or the invention are, by force of this subsection, transferred to and vested in the Commonwealth.

(3) Notice of the acquisition must be:
(a) given to the applicant and the nominated person, or the patentee; and
(b) published in the Official Journal and the Gazette unless, in the case of the acquisition of an invention that is the subject of an application for a patent, a prohibition order, or an order under section 152, is in force in respect of the application.

(4) The Commonwealth must pay a compensable person such compensation as is agreed between the Commonwealth and the person or, in the absence of agreement, as is determined by a prescribed court on the application of either of them.

172 Assignment of invention to Commonwealth
(1) An inventor, or an inventor’s successor in title, may assign the invention, and any patent granted or to be granted for the invention, to the Commonwealth.

(2) The assignment and all covenants and agreements in the assignment are valid and effectual, even if valuable consideration has not been given for the assignment, and may be enforced by proceedings in the name of the Minister.
Part 4 Prohibition orders

173 Prohibition of publication of information about inventions

(1) Subject to any directions of the Minister, the Commissioner may, if it appears to the Commissioner to be necessary or expedient to do so in the interests of the defence of the Commonwealth, by written order:
(a) prohibit or restrict the publication of information about the subject-matter of an application for a patent (including an international application); or
(b) prohibit or restrict access to a micro-organism deposited for the purposes of section 41 with a prescribed depositary institution situated in Australia.

(2) A person must not contravene a prohibition order except in accordance with the written consent of the Commissioner. Penalty: Imprisonment for 2 years.

(3) A reference in subsection (1) to giving access to a micro-organism includes a reference to giving a sample of the micro-organism.

174 Effect of prohibition orders

(1) While a prohibition order is in force in relation to an application for a standard patent, the application may proceed up to the acceptance of the patent request and complete specification, but the complete specification must not be made open to public inspection, the acceptance must not be notified in the Official Journal and a patent must not be granted on the application.

(2) Where a prohibition order in relation to an application for a standard patent is revoked after the acceptance of the patent request and complete specification, the acceptance must be notified in the Official Journal within the prescribed period.

(3) While a prohibition order is in force in relation to an application for an innovation patent, the application may proceed up to the acceptance of the patent request and complete specification, but a patent must not be granted on the application.
175 Disclosure of information to Commonwealth authority
Nothing in this Act prevents disclosing information about an invention, or giving access to, or a sample of, a micro-organism to a department or authority of the Commonwealth for the purpose of obtaining advice on whether a prohibition order should be made, amended or revoked.

176 International applications treated as applications under this Act
Where:
(a) an international application specifies Australia as a designated State; and
(b) as a result of a prohibition order or of anything done in reliance on section 175, the application is, under the PCT, to be considered as having been withdrawn; and
(c) the applicant files, within the prescribed period, a written request that the application be treated as an application under this Act for a standard patent; and
(d) the applicant files any prescribed documents and pays the prescribed fee;
