(c) Any action under the law performed by an intellectual property adjudicator who has been invested with the role under subsection (a), will be considered, for the purposes of this Ordinance, as if performed by the Registrar.
Register to be open to public.

6. (a) The Register shall at all convenient times be open to inspection by the public in accordance with regulations.

(b) A certified copy of any entry shall be given to any person requiring the same upon payment of the prescribed fee.
CHAPTER THREE ELIGIBILITY FOR REGISTRATION

Exclusive right to trade mark
7. A person desirous of having the exclusive right to use some mark as a trade mark may apply for the registration of such mark under the provisions of this Ordinance.

Marks eligible for registration
8. (a) No mark is eligible for registration as a trade mark unless it is adapted to distinguish the goods of the proprietor of the mark from those of other persons (a mark so adapted being hereinafter referred to as a “distinctive mark”).
   (b) In determining whether a trade mark is distinctive, the Registrar or the Court may, in the case of a trade mark in actual use, take into consideration the extent to which such use has rendered such trade mark in fact distinctive for goods in respect of which it is registered or intended to be registered.

Limitation to certain colors
9. A trade mark may be limited in whole or in part to one or more specific colors, and in such case the fact that it is so limited shall be taken into consideration by the Registrar or Court having to decide on the distinctive character of such trade mark. If and so far as a trade mark is registered without limitations of color, it shall be deemed to be registered in respect of all colors.

Scope of application of registration
10. (a) A trade mark must be registered in respect of particular goods or classes of goods.
   (b) Any question as to the class within which any goods fall shall be determined by the Registrar, whose decision shall be final.

Marks ineligible for registration
11. The following marks are not eligible for registration:
   (1) a mark referring to some connection with the President of the State of his household or to presidential patronage or a mark from which any such connection or patronage might be involved.
   (2) flags and emblems of the State or its institutions, flags and emblems of foreign states or international organisations, and any mark resembling any of these;
(3) public armorial bearings, official signs or seals used by any state to indicate control or warranty, and any sign resembling any of these and any signs from which it might be inferred that its proprietor enjoys the patronage of or supplies goods or renders services to a head of state or a government, unless it is proved to the registrar that the proprietor of the mark is entitled to use it;
(4) a mark in which any of the following words appear: “Patent”, “Patented”, “By Royal Letters Patent”, “Registered”, “Registered Design”, “Copyright”, “To counterfeite this is forgery” or words to like effect;
(5) a mark which is or may be injurious to public policy or morality;
(6) a mark likely to deceive the public, a mark which contains a false indication of origin, and marks which encourages unfair trade competition;
(6a) a mark containing a geographical indication in respect of goods not originating in the geographical area indicated, if [inclusion of] the geographical indication [in said mark] may be misleading as to the real geographical area in which the goods originated;
(6b) a mark containing a geographical indication that is literally correct, however that contains a false representation to the effect that the goods originated in a different area;
(7) a mark identical with or similar to emblems of exclusively religious significance;
(8) a mark on which the representation of a person appears, unless the consent of that person has been obtained; in the case of representation of a deceased person, the Registrar shall request the consent of his survivors unless, in his opinion, reasonable grounds exist for not doing so;
(9) a mark identical with one belonging to a different proprietor which is already on the register in respect of the same goods or description of goods, or so nearly resembling such a mark as to be calculated to deceive;
(10) a mark consisting of numerals, letters or words which are in common use in trade to distinguish or describe goods or classes of goods or which bear direct reference to their character or quality, unless the mark has a distinctive character within the meaning of section 8(b) or 9;
(11) a mark whose ordinary significance is geographical or a surname, unless represented in a special manner or unless having a distinctive character within the meaning of section 8 (b) or 9;
(12) a mark identifying wines or spirits that contains a geographical indication, if such wine or spirit did not originate in that geographical area;
(13) a mark identical to, or misleadingly similar with, a well known trade mark even if the mark is not registered in respect of goods for which the mark is well known or in respect of goods of the same description;
(14) a mark identical to or similar to a well-known trade mark being a registered trade mark, even in respect of goods not of the same class, if the mark sought to be registered might indicate a connection between the goods in respect of which the mark is sought and the registered proprietor of the trade mark, and the registered proprietor of the trade mark might be harmed as a result of using the mark sought.

Mark identical with name of other person

12. The Registrar may refuse an application for registration of a trade mark identical with or resembling the name or business name of another person, or containing a name identical or resembling as aforesaid, if the mark is likely to deceive the public or to cause unfair competition.

Name or description of goods

13. Where a mark contains also a name or description of any goods, the Registrar may refuse to register it in respect of other goods; but he may so register it if in actual use the mark varies according to the goods for which it is used and the applicant adds a note to such effect in his application.

Registration of Certification Mark

(a) The Registrar may register a certification mark if he is satisfied that the proprietor of the mark is competent to certify the characteristics to be designated by the mark.
(b) A certification mark is capable of registration even if it lacks distinctiveness as required by section 8 (a).
(c) A certification mark may be transferred only with the permission of the Registrar.

Registration of Collective Mark

(a) The Registrar may register a collective mark if he is satisfied that it is intended for use by members of the body of persons concerned and that such body has control over the use of the mark by its members. (b) For every purpose of this Ordinance, the use of a collective mark by a member of this body shall be deemed to be used thereof by the body, whether or not the body itself uses or intends to use it. (c) A collective mark may be transferred only with the permission of the Registrar.

Registration of marks registered abroad
16. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 8 to 11, the Registrar shall not refuse to register a trade mark Registered as a trade mark in its country of origin unless —
(1) registration of the mark in Israel will infringe rights acquired in Israel by another person;
(2) the mark is devoid of any distinctive character; a trade mark shall not be disqualified from registration if it is different from the trade mark registered in its country of origin in a manner that does not alter its distinctiveness, and does not adversely affect its identity in the form in which it has been registered in the said country of origin;
(3) the mark consists exclusively of signs or indications which may serve in trade to designate the kind, quality, quantity, place of origin, intended purpose, time of production or value of the goods;
(4) the mark is customary in current language or in the bona fide and established trade practices in Israel;
(5) the mark is contrary to public order or morality;
(6) the mark is likely to deceive the public.
(b) "Country of Origin" — For the purpose of a trade mark whose registration is requested under this section— a Member State in which the applicant has an effective and serious industrial or commercial establishment, or, if he has no such establishment within a state as aforementioned, — a Member State in which he has his domicile or, if he has no domicile within a state as aforesaid,— a Member State of which he is a citizen.
(c) Where the Registrar accepts for registration a mark which would not have been registered but for the provisions of subsection (a), such fact shall be indicated in the publication of the application and in the register.
CHAPTER FOUR REGISTRATION PROCEEDINGS

Application

17.
(a) Any person claiming to be the proprietor of a trade mark used or intended to be used by him who wants to register the same trade mark shall apply in writing to the Registrar in the prescribed manner.
(b) An application as stated in sub-section (a) may be filed regarding one class of goods or a number of classes of goods.

Division of Application

17A.
(a) A person who has filed an application with the Registrar pursuant to section 17(a) above, in respect of multiple classes of goods, may, so long as the trade mark which is the subject of the application has not been registered pursuant to section 26, request from the Registrar to divide the application into separate applications, by class of the goods, and in the manner prescribed (in this paragraph - divisional application); Where the Registrar approves the division as aforesaid, the dates of each of the divisional applications shall be the date of filing of the original application.
(b) Where a divisional application is filed after publication of the acceptance of the original application pursuant to section 23, any opposition to the original application that was commenced pursuant to section 24 shall be deemed to have been commenced as against each of the divisional applications, insofar as the opposition relates thereto.

Unification of applications

(a) A person who has filed with the Registrar several applications as set forth in section 17(a) for the registration of the same mark, may, so long as publication of acceptance of the applications pursuant to section 23 has not occurred, request from the Registrar to unify the separate applications into a single application, in the manner prescribed (in this paragraph - application for unification).
(b) Where an application for unification has been filed, the Registrar may unify the separate applications into a single application, if he is persuaded that the following two conditions subsist:
(1) The separate applications were filed at the same time;
(2) The person claiming ownership of the trademark in the aforesaid separate applications, is in fact the same person submitting the application for unification.

Powers of Registrar

18. (a) Subject to the provisions of this Ordinance, the Registrar may refuse an application or accept it absolutely or subject to conditions, amendments or modifications, or to such limitations as to mode or place of use or otherwise as he may think right to impose.
(b) Regarding an application to register a trade mark in respect of a several classes of goods, the Registrar may request its division into a number of separate applications; and the filing date of each one of the applications so divided shall be the filing date of the original application.

Appeal

19. Where the Registrar had refused an application, his decision shall be subject to appeal before the District Court, with the Registrar being the respondent in the appeal.

Errors and corrections

20. The Registrar may at any time, correct any error in the application or in relation to it, prior to or after its' acceptance, or permit an applicant to amend his application according to terms he may deem fit.

Requirement of disclaimer

21. (a) If a trade mark contains matter common to the trade or otherwise of a non-distinctive character, and it appears to the Registrar that the proprietor of the mark is not entitled to the exclusive use of such matter or of part thereof, he may, in deciding whether such trade mark shall be entered or remain in the Register, require, as a condition thereof, that the proprietor disclaim any right to the exclusive use of such matter or make such other disclaimer as the Registrar considers necessary in order to define the proprietor's rights under the registration.
(b) A disclaimer under this section shall only affect the rights of proprietor of the trade mark which are driven from of the registration of the mark and none other.
Cancellation of applications

(a) Where the applicant has not complied with a demand of the Registrar within the time prescribed by him, and the Registrar has given the applicant notice in writing on the prescribed form, and three months have passed from the date of the notice and the applicant has still not complied with the demand, the Registrar may regard the application as void.
(b) The Registrar may extend the times prescribed under this section if he has been requested to do so in the manner and within the time prescribed by regulations and the applicant has given reasonable grounds for the request.

Publication

23. When an application has been accepted, whether as filed or subject to conditions or limitations, the Registrar shall publish the application as such accepted, as soon as possible after such acceptance and in the prescribed manner, specifying every condition and limitation subject to which it has been accepted.

Opposition

(a) Within three months from the date of the publication, any person may file with the Registrar a notice of his opposition to the registration of the mark.
(a1) the following are causes for opposition to the registration of a mark:
(1) there is a reason for which the registrar may, under the provisions of this Ordinance, refuse the application for registration;
(2) the opponent claims that he is the owner of the mark;
(b) The notice shall be given in writing in the prescribed manner, and shall include a statement of the grounds of opposition.
(c) The Registrar shall send a copy of the notice to the applicant.
(d) The applicant shall send to the Registrar, in the prescribed manner and within the prescribed time, a counter statement to the opposition, setting forth the grounds on which he relies for his application.
(e) If the applicant does not send a counterstatement as aforesaid, he shall be deemed to have abandoned his application.
(f) If the applicant sends a counterstatement, the Registrar shall furnish a copy thereof to the person who has given notice of opposition and shall, after hearing the parties, if so required, and considering the evidence, decide whether, and subject to what conditions, registration is to be permitted.

Appeal

25.
(a) A decision of the Registrar under section 24(f) shall be subject to appeal to the District Court.
(b) An appeal under this section shall be made within thirty days from the date of the decision of the Registrar.
(b1) The appellant shall notify the Registrar of the filing of an appeal under this section within 30 days of the date of its filing.
(c) In the appeal the Court shall, if required to do so, hear the parties and the Registrar and shall give a judgment determining whether, and subject to what conditions registration is to be permitted.
(d) During the hearing of the appeal any party may, either in the manner prescribed or by the special leave of the Court, bring forward further material for the consideration of the Court.
(e) The opponent or the Registrar may take no further grounds of opposition other than those stated by the opponent in the notice of opposition save by leave of the court which hears the appeal. Where any grounds are taken by leave as aforesaid, the applicant may on giving notice as prescribed withdraw his application without payment of costs of the opponent.
(f) The Court may, after hearing the Registrar, permit the trade mark proposed to be registered to be modified in any manner not substantially affecting its identity. A mark so modified shall be advertised in the prescribed manner before being registered.

Registration

26. When an application has been accepted and the time for notice of opposition has expired without there having been opposition or, there having been opposition, it has been decided in the favor of the applicant, the Registrar shall register the trade mark unless the application has been accepted in error or unless the Court otherwise directs.

Date of Registration

27. The date on which the application for registration of a trade mark was filed shall be entered as the date of registration thereof.
Certificate of Registration

28. On the registration of a trade mark, the Registrar shall issue to the applicant a certificate of registration in the prescribed form.

Rival Applications for similar marks

29. (a) Where separate applications are made by different persons to be registered as proprietors respectively of identical, or similar to a misleading degree, trademarks in respect of the same goods or goods of the same trade description, and the later application was filed before the acceptance of the prior application, the Registrar may refrain from accepting the applications until their respective rights have been determined by agreement between them approved by the Registrar. In the absence of such agreement or approval, the Registrar shall decide, for reasons which shall be recorded, which application shall continue to be processed pursuant to the provisions of this Ordinance.

(b) The decision of the Registrar under subsection (a) may be appealed to the District Court within thirty days of the date of the Registrar’s decision.

(c) The appellant shall deliver to the Registrar notice of having filed an appeal pursuant to sub-paragraph (b) within thirty days of its filing.

(d) On an appeal pursuant to sub paragraph (b) the court shall hear the Registrar, if so requested.

Concurrent use

30. (a) Where it appears to the Registrar that there is concurrent use in good faith, or where there are other special circumstances which in his opinion justify the registration of identical or similar trade marks in respect of identical goods, the Registrar may permit such registration subject to such conditions and limitations, if any, as he may think fit.

(b) A decision of the Registrar under subsection (a) shall be subject to appeal to the District Court. The appeal shall be filed within thirty days from the date of the decision of the Registrar. In the appeal, the Court shall have all the powers conferred upon the Registrar under subsection (a).

(c) The appellant shall deliver to the Registrar notice of having filed an appeal pursuant to sub-paragraph (b) within thirty days of its filing.
(d) On an appeal pursuant to sub paragraph (b) the court shall hear the Registrar, if so requested.
CHAPTER FIVE DURATION AND RENEWAL OF REGISTRATION

Period of validity of registration
31. The registration of a trade mark shall be valid for ten years from the date of filing of the application and may be extended thereafter in accordance with the provisions of sections 32 to 35.

Renewal of registration
32. The Registrar shall, on application made by the registered proprietor of a trade mark in the prescribed manner and within the prescribed period, renew the registration of such trade mark regarding some or all of the goods or classes of goods in respect of which it is registered for a period of ten years from the date of expiration of the original registration or the last renewal of registration such date (hereinafter referred to as “expiration date”).

Notice of expiration
33. (a) At the prescribed time before the expiration date, the Registrar shall send notice in the prescribed manner to the registered proprietor of the date at which the registration will expire and the conditions as to payment of fees and other matters upon which registration will be renewed.
(b) If the fee is not paid within six months after the expiration date, (hereafter – the first period) the Registrar shall expunge the trade mark from the Register; however:
(1) if the fee is paid within the first period it shall be increased by a prescribed amount;
(2) if the Registrar is satisfied that it is just to do so, he may on the request of the proprietor of the mark restore the registration, on such conditions as he may think fit, upon payment of the unpaid fee and the prescribed additional fee provided that the application was filed within six months after the termination of the first period.

Expunged trade mark
34. Where a trade mark has been expunged from the register for non-payment of the fee for renewal, such trade mark shall nevertheless, for the purpose of any application for registration filed within one year following such expunging shall be treated as if it were a registered trade mark.
Constraints on renewal

35. The provisions of section 34 shall not apply where the Registrar is satisfied either -
(1) that there has been no bona fide trade use of the trade mark during the two years preceding the removal; or
(2) that no description or confusion would be likely to arise from the use of the trade mark, which is the subject of the application for registration by reason of any previous use of the trade mark which has been removed.
CHAPTER SIX CHANGES AND CONCESSIONS

Change in registration at proprietor's request 36.
(a) The Registrar may, on request made in the prescribed manner by the registered proprietor —
   (1) correct any error in his name or address;
   (2) enter any change in his name or address;
   (3) strike out any goods or classes of goods from those for which the trade mark is registered;
   (4) enter in respect of the trade mark any disclaimer or alteration which does not in any way extend the rights given by the existing registration
   (5) cancel the entry of the trade mark in the Register.
(b) Any decision of the Registrar under subsection (a) shall be subject to appeal to the District Court with the Register as the respondent in the appeal.

Unification of separate registrations into a single registration 36A.
(a) The registered proprietor of several registrations of the same trade mark may apply to the Registrar for consolidation of said registrations into a single registration, in the manner prescribed (in this section – application for unification of registration).
(b) if an application for unification of registration has been submitted, then the Registrar may unify the separate registrations into a single registration, if he believes the applications for each registration have been submitted, as aforesaid, on the same date.
(c) If the Registrar has decided on unification of applications pursuant to this section, he shall note the fact thereof and any significant detail, under section 4, which had been noted for each of the unified registrations.

37. Repealed.

Alteration of register at the request of a person who is not the proprietor 38.
(a) Subject to the provisions of this Ordinance, any person aggrieved by the non-insertion or omission from the Register without sufficient cause, or by any entry wrongly remaining on the Register, or by any error or defect in any entry in the Register, may make an application in the prescribed manner to the Registrar.
(b) The decision of the Registrar under subsection (a) may be subject to appeal to the District court.
(b1) The appellant shall notify the Registrar of the appeal under subsection (b) within 3 days from the date of submission.
(b2) The court may hear the Registrar, if so needed, in the appeal submitted under subsection (b).
(c) Repealed.
(d) Repealed.

Removal of trade mark
39.
(a) An application under section 38 for the removal of a trade mark from the Register regarding some or all the goods or classes of goods in respect of which it is registered on the ground that it is not eligible for registration under sections 7 to 11 of the Ordinance, or on the ground that the mark creates an unfair competition in respect of the applicant’s right in Israel, must be made within five years of the issue of the certificate of registration under section 28.
(a1) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-section (a), an application for removal of a trade mark on the grounds that the application for registration of the mark was filed in bad faith may be filed at any time;
(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (a) —
(1) a trade mark of a non-resident registered in the country of origin shall not be removed from the Register save on grounds which under section 16 preclude registration;
(2) a trade mark of a non-resident which is not eligible for registration under the provisions of sections 8 to 11 and which has been registered under the provision of section 16 may be removed from the Register at any time on any of the grounds precluding its registration under the provisions of sections 8 to 11 when it is no longer registered in the country of origin; nothing in this provision shall prevent the proprietor of the mark from providing that at the time of application for removal the mark would have been eligible for registration upon application by a resident of Israel.

Procedure for alteration in register
40. Where the Court orders the rectification of the Register, it shall direct that notice of the rectification shall be served upon the Registrar by the successful party, and the Registrar shall, upon receipt of the notice, rectify the Register in accordance with the order.

Cancellation of registration due to non-use

41. (a) Without prejudice to the generality of the provision of sections 38 to 40, application for the cancellation of the Registration of a trade mark regarding some or all of the goods or classes of goods in respect of which a trade mark is registered (hereinafter - goods regarding which the cancellation is requested) may be made by any person interested on the ground that there was no bona fide intention to use the trade mark in connection with the goods regarding which there is a request to cancel the registration, and, that there has in fact been no bona fide use of the trade mark in connection with the goods regarding which there is a request to cancel the registration, or that there had not been any such use during the three years preceding the application for cancellation.

(b) The provisions of subsection (a) shall not apply where it is proved that the non-use is due to special circumstances in the trade and not to any intention not to use, or to abandon, the mark in respect of the said goods.

(c) For the purpose of this section, there shall be deemed not to have been bona fide use of the trade mark in the event of any of the following:

(1) use of the trade mark in Israel in advertising only whether in the local press or in foreign newspapers reaching Israel unless there are special circumstances which in the opinion of the Court or the Register justify the non-use of the mark on goods manufactured or sold in Israel.

(2) cancellation of an authorization to use the mark given to a manufacturer in Israel under section 50 unless the authorization is cancelled following an infringement of conditions or because the person who gave the authorization intends himself to manufacture the goods for which the mark is to be used or to grant the authorization to another manufacturer in Israel.

(d) Application for cancellation may be made in the prescribed manner to the Registrar.

(e) The Registrar’s decision on the application for cancellation may be subject to appeal before the District Court.

(e1) The appellant shall notify the Registrar of the submission of the appeal under subsection (e) within thirty days from the date of submission.

(e2) The court shall hear the Registrar, if so needed, in the appeal under subsection (e).

(f) in this section, “use” of a trade mark shall include —
(1) use of a registered trade mark by its proprietor or by an authorized person under section 50 in a manner that differs from that noted on the register in such a way as not to change the distinct character of the mark as it is registered;
(2) use by an authorized person under section 50 on condition that such use is subject to the control of the proprietor of the mark.

The right of the Registrar to notify of alteration proceedings
42. (a) In any legal proceeding in which the relief sought includes alteration or rectification of the Register, the Registrar shall have the right to appear and be heard and shall appear if so directed by the Court.
(b) Unless otherwise directed by the Court, the Registrar in lieu of appearing and being heard may submit to the Court a statement in writing signed by him giving particulars of the proceedings before him or of the grounds of any decisions given by him in relation to the manner at issue or of the practice and procedure of the office in like cases or of other matters relevant to the issue, and within his knowledge as Registrar as he shall think fit, and a statement as aforesaid shall be deemed to be evidence in the proceeding.

Regulations on adapting registrations to the new classification
43. The Registrar may, with the approval of the Minister, make such regulations, prescribe such forms and generally do such things as he thinks expedient for empowering him to amend the Register, whether by making or expunging or varying entries therein, so far as may be requisite for the purpose of adapting the designation therein of the goods of classes of goods in respect of which trade marks are registered to any substituted or amended classification they may be prescribed.

Adaptation of registrations
44. (a) The Registrar shall not, in exercise of any power conferred on him by section 43, make any amendment of the Register that would have the effect of adding any goods to those in respect of which a trade mark is registered (whether in one or in more classes) immediately before the amendment is to be made, or of antedating the registration of a trade in respect of any goods.

(b) The provisions of subsection (a) shall not have effect in relation to goods as to which the Registrar is satisfied that compliance with the said provisions would involve undue complexity and that the addition or the antedating would not affect any substantial quantity of goods and would not substantially prejudice the rights of any person.

Order for adaptation of registrations

45. (a) the Registrar shall notify any proposal for the amendment of the Register by virtue of his power under section 44 to the registered proprietor of the trade mark affected, and the registered proprietor may appeal against such proposals to the District Court. The proposal, with any proposal for modifications, shall be advertised.

(b) A person who considers himself aggrieved by the proposed amendment may oppose it before the Registrar on the ground that it contravenes the provisions of section 44, and the decision of the Registrar on the opposition shall be subjected to appeal to the District Court.

(c) The appellant shall deliver a notification to the Registrar of the submission of the appeal under subsection (b) within thirty days from date of its' submission.

(d) The Court shall hear the Registrar, if so needed, in the appeal under subsection (b).
CHAPTER SEVEN RIGHT OF PROPRIETOR OF TRADE MARK

The right of exclusive use
46. (a) Subject to any conditions of limitations entered in the Register, the valid registration of a person as proprietor of a trade mark shall give him the right to exclusive use of such trade mark upon, and in every matter relating to, the goods in respect of which it is registered.
(b) Where several persons are registered proprietors of identical trade marks, or identical in essence, relating to identical goods, each of them shall have the same rights as if he were the sole registered proprietor of such trade mark shall be acquired by any one of such persons as against any other by the registration thereof except in so far as their respective rights have been defined by the Registrar or the District Court.

Exclusive use of a well known trade mark
46A. (a) The proprietor of a well known trade mark, even if it is not registered trade mark, shall be entitled to the exclusive use of the mark in respect of the goods for which the mark is well known in Israel or in respect of goods of the same description.
(b) The proprietor of a well known trade mark that is a registered trade mark shall also be entitled to the exclusive use of that mark in respect of goods which are not of the same description if use of that mark by a person other than the proprietor would be likely to indicate a connection between the said goods and the registered proprietor of the mark, and the registered proprietor is likely to be damaged by such use.

Protection of trade marks displayed at exhibitions
46B. A mark that is not a registered trade mark shall be considered, for the purposes of goods shown at an official or officially recognized international exhibition held in Israel, as a registered mark for the duration of the term in which the exhibition is held.

Genuine use
47. Registration under this Ordinance shall not prevent any genuine use by a person of his own name or the name of his business or the geographic of his place of business, name of the place of business or the name of the place of business of any of his predecessors in business or the use by any person of any genuine description of quality of his goods.

Transfer of trade mark

48. (a) A registered trade mark may be assigned by the proprietor thereof, or pass by operation of law regarding some or all of the goods or classes of goods for which it is registered, either with or without the reputation of the business in the goods for which the trade mark had been registered. However, the Registrar may refuse to register a transfer as aforesaid if, in his opinion, the mark by the transference is likely to deceive the public or, the transfer is contrary to public order.

(a1) Had the trade mark been transferred under subsection (a) for some of the goods or the type of goods for which the trade mark had been registered, the Registrar shall divide the registration of the trade mark to separate registrations in the prescribed manner.

(b) For the purpose of subsection (a), a pending application for the registration of a trademark shall be treated as if it were a registered trademark.

Registration of transference

49. (a) Where a person becomes entitled to a registered trade mark by assignment or by operation of law, he shall apply to the Registrar to register his title and the Registrar shall, on proof of title to his satisfaction, register him as the proprietor of the trade mark and shall make entry in the Register, in the manner prescribed, of the transfer or of any instrument relating to the title.

(b) Any decision of the Registrar under this section shall be subject to appeal to the District Court.

(c) Except in cases of appeals under this section, a document or instrument in respect of which no entry has been made in the Register under this section shall not be admitted in evidence in any court in proof of the title to a trade mark unless the Court otherwise directs.

Authorization to use a trade mark

50. (a) The proprietor of a registered trade mark may authorize another person (in this ordinance referred to as an “authorized person”) to use such trade mark in relation to all or any of the goods in respect of which it is registered.
(b) An authorization shall not be valid unless it has been registered under the provisions of this section, and the Registrar may register it subject to such conditions and limitations as he may think fit.
(c) So long as the authorized person uses the mark in relation to the goods, in the course of his business, in accordance with the authorization and subject to any conditions and limitations attached thereto, his use of the mark shall be deemed to be exclusive use thereof by the proprietor thereof.
(d) The Registrar may register an authorization if it has been proved to his satisfaction that the use of the trade mark in relation to the goods in respect of which registration is applied for is not contrary to public order and is not likely to deceive.

Application for registration of authorization
51.
(a) An application, in the prescribed form, for the registration of an authorization shall be submitted by the proprietor of the mark and by the person to be registered as the authorized person and shall indicate, inter alia —
(1) the relationship between the proprietor of the mark and the person to be registered as the authorized person, including the extent of the control of the proprietor of the mark over the use thereof by the authorized person;
(2) the goods in respect of which the authorization is sought;
(3) the conditions of limitations which are to apply to use of the mark by virtue of the authorization if the same is registered;
(4) the period of validity of the authorization if its registration is requested for a determinate period.
(b) The Registrar may demand any document, evidence or particular which appear to him to be useful in determining the application.
(c) Particulars as referred to in subsections (a) and (b), other than particulars to be registered, shall not be open to inspection by the public.

Variation and cancellation of registration of authorization 52.
(a) The Registrar may, on application by the proprietor of the mark in the prescribed form, vary the registration of an authorization, in regard to any matter relating to the goods to which the authorization applies and to the conditions and limitations to which is it subject.

(b) The Registrar may cancel the registration of an authorization on application by the authorized person in the prescribed form.

(c) The Registrar may cancel the registration of an authorization if he has been requested so to do and in has been proved to his satisfaction that the existence of the authorization, or the use of the trade mark by the authorized person, is contrary to public order or is likely to deceive it.

(d) Before canceling an authorization or varying the conditions thereof under this section, the Registrar shall give every interest party an opportunity to be heard.

(f) The provisions of this section shall not derogate from the provisions of sections 38 to 49.

Continued use of a trademark

52A. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Ordinance, where an application for registration of a trademark is filed, or where a trade mark has been registered in good faith, or where rights to a trade mark have been acquired through use in good faith, neither the eligibility of the mark for registration, the validity of the registration, nor the right to use such trade mark, shall not be prejudiced for the sole reason that the trade mark is identical or similar to a geographical indication or to a well known trade mark, provided that the application for registration of the trade mark, the registration of the trade mark or the acquisition of rights through use as aforesaid were effected prior to –

(1) in the case of a well known trade mark – the day on which the trade mark become a well known trade mark;

(2) in the case of a geographical indication – 1 January 2000, or the date on which the geographical indication became protected in the member state in which the geographical area indicated by the geographical indication is situated.

Right of Appeal

53.

(a) Decisions by the Registrar under sections 50 to 52 shall be subject to appeal to the District Court.

(b) The Registrar shall be the respondent in any appeal on the decision of the Registrar under sections 50 or 51.

(c) The appellant on the decision of the Registrar under section 52 shall deliver a notification to the Registrar on the submission of the appeal within thirty days from the date of submission.
(d) The Court shall hear the Registrar, if so needed, in an appeal under subsection (b).
CHAPTER EIGHT REGISTRATION OF FOREIGN TRADE MARKS

Protection by the force of a mutual agreement

54. (a) If the Government has signed an agreement with the government of a foreign state for mutual protection of Trade marks, and the Minister of Foreign Affairs has notified such fact, then so long as the agreement is in force, any person who has applied for protection for a trade mark in that state, or his legal representative or assignee shall be entitled to registration of his trade mark under this Ordinance in priority to other applicants, provided he filled his application within six months from the date on which he applied for protection in the foreign state.

(b) The provisions of subsection (a) shall not entitle the proprietor of the trade mark to recover damages for infringements which occurred prior to the date on which his trade mark was actually registered in Israel.

(c) The registration of a trade mark shall not be invalidated by reason only of its use in Israel during the six-months period referred to in subsection (a).

Priority Rights

55. (a) A person or a person who preceded him in proprietorship who has filed an application for the registration of a trade mark in a Member State, (in this section – a prior application) may apply for the registration of the mark in Israel under the provisions of this section, and request that his application shall have priority over any application for registration filed after the date of filing of the prior application, provided that the following two conditions are satisfied:

1. The request for priority was filed together with the application for registration of a trade mark in Israel;

2. The application for registration of a trade mark in Israel was filed within six months of the filing date of the earliest prior application.

(b) A request for priority may be made with regard to some or all of the goods or classes of goods that were included in the application for the registration of a trade mark in Israel, and having been made, that priority request will be subject to the provisions of subsection (a) in respect of that claim.
Where the request for priority under the provisions of subsection (a) was based on more than one prior application, and priority was requested on the basis of each of those applications, the provisions of subsection (a) shall apply to the goods or classes of goods regarding which the registration of a trade mark was requested, in accordance with the date of the earliest prior application relating to said goods or class of goods, respectively.

(b2) Where the request for priority was based upon part of a prior application, the provisions of section (a) shall apply as if that same part had been filed for registration abroad in a separate prior application.

(c) The provisions of this section shall not confer a right to damages for an infringement committed before the date of filing of the application for registration of the mark in Israel.

Filing of an Application

56. An application for registration of a trade mark under section 54 or 55 shall be made in the same manner as an ordinary application under this Ordinance.

Article Two: International Applications Originating in Israel

The Registrar as an office of origin
56B. (a) The Registrar shall serve as an office of origin in respect of international applications and extension applications which do not designate Israel, which are filed under the provisions of section 56C.
(b) The Registrar is responsible for the processing of the applications referred to in subsection (a) and their transmission to the International Bureau; for purposes of this paragraph the provisions of this sub-chapter shall apply, and with respect to any relevant matter not addressed by this sub-chapter, the provisions of the Madrid Protocol and Regulations shall apply.

Filing of an international application or extension application.
56C. An Israeli citizen, Israeli resident or person who has an active industrial or commercial concern in Israel, who has filed an application to register a trade mark in Israel as a national trade mark, or who is the holder of a national trade mark, may file with the Registrar, in his capacity as an office of origin, on the basis of the application or registration as stated, and in accordance with the provisions of this chapter –
(1) an international application that does not designate Israel;
(2) an extension application that does not designate Israel, provided that the applicant is the holder of an international trademark.

The Registrar’s notifications to the international bureau
56D. Where the Registrar has transmitted to the International Bureau an international application, he shall notify the International Bureau of each of the following, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter:
(1) A final decision regarding the basic application, under sections 18 or 22 concerning its dismissal, cancellation, or acceptance subject to conditions, amendment or modification or restrictions, provided that the proceeding which culminated in such decision was commenced prior to the determining date;
(2) A judgment given on the appeal, under section 19, shall be final, so long as the proceeding in which the decision regarding the subject of the appeal began before the determining date;
(3) A final decision or judgment prohibiting the registration of a mark in respect of some or all of the goods or class of goods in respect of which the application was made, provided that said decision or judgment was given in consequence of a notice of opposition filed pursuant to the provisions of section 24 prior to the determining date opposing the registration of the trade mark as a national trade mark in accordance with the basic application.

(4) The basic registration expired prior to the determining date and was not renewed pursuant to the provisions of sections 32 and 33.

(5) A decision regarding the striking or the cancellation of the basic registration or of goods or classes of goods indicated in that registration, pursuant to an application filed by the registered holder of the trade mark pursuant to the provisions of section 36 prior to the determining date.

(6) A final decision or a final judgment, regarding the striking or cancellation of the basic registration or of some or all of the goods or classes of goods indicated in said basic registration, resulting from an application filed in accordance with the provisions of sections 39 or 41 prior to the determining date;

(7) Additional matters determined by the Minister of Justice in accordance with the provisions of the Protocol and Madrid Regulations. In this section -

"The basic application" - the application for the registration of a trade mark in Israel as a national trademark upon which an international application is based.

"The basic registration" - a national trade mark upon which the international application is based.

Correction of error in an international application in an application for expansion

56D1. Correction of error in an international application not intended to Israel or in an application for expansion not intended to Israel, shall be in accordance with the Madrid regulations, and the provisions of section 20 shall not apply in this matter.
Article Three: International Applications Designating Israel

Application of Ordinance’s provisions to applications designating Israel

56E. Where the Registrar received notification from the International Bureau regarding the filing of an application designating Israel, he will assess the trade mark’s eligibility for registration, and the provisions of this Ordinance shall apply, mutatis mutandis and in accordance with the following changes:

(1) The provisions of section 17 shall not apply;

(1a) With respect to sections 17A and 17B, division or unification of applications shall be made under the provisions of section 9 of the Protocol and under the Madrid regulations;

(2) With respect to section 24(c), the copy of the notice of opposition as stipulated in section 24(b) shall be sent to the International Bureau, according to the provisions of the Protocol and the Madrid Regulations within the period specified at the beginning of section 56F;

(3) With respect to registration in accordance with section 26, the Registrar shall record in the register that the trade mark is an international trade mark;

(4) Instead of the provisions of section 27, the following provisions shall apply:

(a) The date of registration in the Register of an international trade mark registered in Israel, resulting from an international application designating Israel – shall be the date on which the international trade mark was registered in the International Register;

(b) The date of registration in the Register of an international trade mark registered in Israel, resulting from an extension application designating Israel, will be the date on which the extension application was registered in the International Register;

Notification of refusal or of submission of opposition

56F.

(a) Within 18 months of the day on which the application designating Israel was sent to the Registrar, he will deliver a notification to the International Bureau regarding each of the following, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter:

(1) A decision holding that the trade-mark is not eligible for registration, or that the application can only be accepted subject to conditions, amendments, changes or restrictions, in accordance with the provisions of section 18;
(2) The filing of an opposition to the registration of a trade-mark, or existence of the possibility that such an opposition may be filed even after the passage of the above 18 months.
(b) Where the Registrar notified the International Bureau of the existence of the possibility that an opposition may be filed in accordance with the provisions of subsection (a)(2), he shall, within one month after the end of the period for filing such oppositions, notify the International Bureau of all oppositions filed during the aforesaid opposition period.

Registration of an international trade-mark
56G. Where the Registrar did not give notice to the International Bureau under section 56F within the periods stipulated therein, he shall register the trade mark in the Register and indicate therein that it is an international trade mark.

Notification of a final decision in an opposition 56H.
(a) Where the Registrar has made a decision in the matter of an opposition the filing of which he had previously notified to the International Bureau under the provisions of section 56F (a) or (b), and where within 30 days of the date of said decision the Registrar has not received notification under section 25(b1) of the filing of an appeal of said decision, the Registrar shall notify his decision in the said opposition matter to the inform the International Bureau;
(b) Where an appeal under section 25 was filed against the Registrar’s decision on an opposition, the Registrar shall inform the International Bureau of the final decision of the court hearing said appeal.

International trade-mark replacing national trade-mark 56I.
(a) The registration of an international trade-mark in the Register under the provisions of this Article shall replace the registration of a national trade mark, for all purposes, if the following three conditions are met:
(1) At the time of the filing of the application to the International Bureau designating Israel, the applied for international trade mark was a national trade mark;
(2) The international trade mark and the national trade mark are registered both in the International Register and the Register in the name of the same person;
(3) The international mark is registered in the International Register in respect of Israel regarding all the goods in respect of which the national trade mark is registered.
(b) The replacement of the registration under the provisions of subsection (a) shall not derogate from rights acquired by reason of the registration of the national trade-mark.
(c) Where the registration of the national mark has been replaced by the registration of an international mark, it shall be recorded in the Register.

Application of Ordinance provisions to International Trade-marks 56J. The provisions of this Ordinance regarding a registered trade mark shall apply to international trade-marks registered in Israel, mutatis mutandis, and in accordance with the following changes:
(1) Regarding sections 31 and the concluding part of section 32, the extension of the validity or renewal of a registered trade mark shall be in accordance with the provisions of Articles 6(1), 7 and 8 of the Protocol and in accordance with the provisions of the Madrid Regulations;
(2) The provisions of section 33 shall not apply;
(3) (a) Regarding sections 36, 49, 51 and 52 - applications for the registration of matters specified below shall be submitted either directly to the International Bureau or through the office of origin, all in accordance with the Madrid Regulations;
(1) Application for registration of a transfer arising under section 49(a) by either assignment or operation of law;
(2) Application for registration of authorized use under section 51(a);
(3) Application for the change of a registration regarding authorized use under section 52(a) or for the cancellation of such registration.
(4) With respect to section 36A, the unification of several registrations of the same trade mark shall be pursuant to the provisions of section 9 of the Protocol and in accordance with the Madrid Regulations.
(b) Where the Registrar has received notification from the International Bureau of the filing of one of applications specified in sub-paragraph (a), he shall decide said matter in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance.
Notification of striking or cancellation of international trade mark

56K. The Registrar shall notify the International Bureau of any final decision or final judgment concerning the striking or cancellation of an international trade mark registered in Israel under the provisions of sections 39 or 41 in respect of some or all of the goods for which it was registered under the provisions of this chapter.

Consequences of deletion from international register or cancellation

56L. (a) (1) Where the International Bureau notifies the Registrar of the striking or cancellation of an international registration from the international register, with regard to some or all of the goods or classes of goods in respect of which it is so registered, and where said international registration is also registered in the (Israel) Register, the Registrar shall strike or cancel the international registration in the Register, in respect of those goods or classes of goods that were struck or cancelled from the international register and so notified to the Registrar; The date of the striking or cancellation from the international register of said international registration shall be deemed to be the date of the striking or cancellation of said international registration from the Register;

(2) The provisions of sub-paragraph (1) above shall also apply to a trade mark registered in the register under the provisions of section 16, and the provisions of section 39(b) shall not apply for that purpose.

(b) Where the International Bureau has notified the Registrar of the striking or cancellation of an international trade mark from the international register, regarding some or all of the goods in respect of which it had been registered, and where at that time there is a pending application designating Israel, the Registrar shall discontinue the processing of said pending application in respect of the goods so notified as having been struck or cancelled from the international registration.

Replacement of international trade mark by national trade mark

56M. Where an international trade mark was struck or cancelled from the International Register, pursuant to notification from the office of origin under Article 6(4) of the Protocol, with regard to some or all of the goods or classes of goods in respect of which it had been registered, and where within three months of the date of such striking or cancellation, the person who had been the holder of said international trade mark files an application for the registration of an identical trade mark as a national trade mark in respect the goods struck or cancelled from said international registration, the following provisions shall apply:

(1) Regarding an international trade mark registered in Israel, the registration of which in the Register had been struck or cancelled pursuant to the provisions of section 56L(a) – the Registrar shall register the trade mark in the Register as a national trade mark, in accordance with the application;

(2) (a) Regarding an application designating Israel which was published in accordance with the provisions of section 23 – the application for the registration of a national trade mark shall replace the application that designates Israel for all intents and purposes, and any opposition filed against the registration of the international trade mark shall be regarded as an opposition filed against the registration of the national trade mark;

(b) Where the application designating Israel claimed priority under the provisions of section 55, said priority shall apply in respect of the application for the registration of the national trade mark.

(3) The date of the registration of the national trade mark shall be as stated in section 56E(4).
CHAPTER NINE INFRINGEMENT

Action for infringement
57. (a) The proprietor of a registered trade mark or the proprietor of a well-known trade mark may bring an action for infringement; the Court shall not entertain an action for infringement in respect of an unregistered trade mark. However, in the case of a well-known trade mark, it may entertain an action for infringement of a mark even it is not registered.
(b) Repealed.

Evidence of usage
58. In an action for infringement, evidence shall be admitted of the usages of the trade in respect of the get-up of the goods for which the trade mark is registered and of any trade marks or get-up legitimately used in connection with such goods by other persons.

Relief
59. (a) In an action for infringement, the plaintiff shall be entitled to relief by way of injunction, and to damages in addition to any other relief which the court dealing with the case is competent to grant and be entitled to the remedies set forth in section 59A;
(b) for the purposes of an infringement relating to a well-known trade mark that is not a registered trade mark, the plaintiff shall be entitled to relief by way of injunction only;

Additional Remedies
59A. (a) The court may order, at the end of hearing the claim, one of the following:
(1) the destruction of goods produced during the performance of the infringement or which served in performing the infringement (in this section – “the goods”);
(2) where the plaintiff so requests, the transfer of ownership of the goods to the plaintiff, in consideration for payment of the value of them but for the infringement;
(3) on performing any other activity with respect of the goods; however, the court shall not allow the defendant to possess the goods, even if the defendant has removed the infringing marks, except in extraordinary cases.

(b) A party that files an application for the destruction of goods under this section shall notify the Israel Police Force of such in the manner prescribed by the Minister in the regulations, and the court shall not hear such an application without giving the Police an opportunity to make claims.
CHAPTER TEN PENALTIES

Penalties

60. (a) A person who commits any of the following acts shall be liable to imprisonment for a term of three years or a fine seven times the fine provided for in section 61(a)(4) of the Penal Law, 5737-1977 (hereinafter referred to as “the Penal Law”).

(1) applies for the purpose of trade, without the permission of the proprietor of the mark or any person acting on his behalf, a registered trade mark or an imitation of such mark, on goods in respect of which the mark is registered in the Register or on the packaging of such goods, and which is likely to mislead any other person in this manner;

(2) imports for the purpose of trade, without the permission of the proprietor of the mark or any person acting on his behalf, goods or their packaging marked by a trade mark registered in the Register in respect of such goods, or an imitation of the aforesaid mark, and the mark is likely to mislead any other person; however, the provisions of this paragraph shall not apply in respect of goods marked with the permission of any person who is the proprietor of the mark in the country in which the mark was made;

(3) engages in the sale, hire or distribution of goods marked or imported to Israel contrary to the provisions of paragraphs (1) and (2), or sells, lets for hire or distributes such goods on a commercial scale;

(4) is in possession of goods marked or imported to Israel contrary to the provisions of paragraphs (1) and (2) for the purposes of trading in such goods.

(b) Where an offence under subsection (a) is committed by a body corporate, such corporate body shall be liable to double the fine provided for the offence.

(c) A person passing on false information to the Registrar in connection with an application for registration of a mark in the Register shall be liable to imprisonment for a term of one year.

(d) (1) A senior officer of a body corporate shall be obliged to supervise and take any action necessary to prevent any of the offences set forth in this section (hereinafter referred to as “an offence”) by a body corporate or any of its employees. Where such officer is in breach of his aforesaid obligation he shall be liable to the fine stated in section 61(a)(4) of the Penal Law.

(2) Where an offence has been committed by a body corporate or any of its employees, there is a presumption that the senior officer was in breach of his obligation under paragraph (1), unless it is proved that he took any action necessary to perform his aforesaid obligation.
(3) In this subsection, “senior officer” means an active manager of a body corporate, a partner — excluding a limited partner — and an officer responsible on behalf of the body corporate for the field in question in which the offence was committed.

Injunctions
61. After a conviction of an offence under section 60 the Court may in lieu or in addition to the prescribed penalties issue an injunction against a repetition of the offence.

Order for forfeiture or destruction
62. The court before which any person charged under section 60 is brought may order the forfeiture of destruction of any goods wrapping, packing or advertising material or blocks, dies and other apparatus and material for printing the marks or other materials in respect of which the offence was committed.

False representation of mark being registered
63. A person who represents a trade mark as registered which is not so registered shall be liable to a fine of 750 pounds for every offence.
A person shall be deemed, for the purpose of this section, to represent that a trade mark is registered if he uses in connection with the trade mark the word “registered” or any word expressing of implying that registration has been obtained for the trade mark.
CHAPTER ELEVEN EVIDENCE AND PROCEDURE

63A. Another decision made by the Registrar may, under this law, be appealed to the Court, if given permission to do so by the Court; In this regard, “another decision” – a decision which does not conclude proceedings before the Registrar.

The certified District Court
63B.
(a) The District Court certified, for the purpose of this law, is the District Court in the district of Jerusalem or in Tel Aviv, at the option of the appellant; however, the Minister may, by order, direct that the powers of the District Court under this law shall be given to other district courts as determined.
(b) The provisions of this section shall not apply for the purpose of Chapters 9 and 10.

Appeal on a judgment or another decision of the District Court
63C. A judgment and another decision, as defined under section 63A, by the District Court, under this law, may be appealed to the Supreme Court, if permission to do so was given by the President of the Supreme Court or by another Supreme Court judge assigned by the President of the Supreme Court. The provisions under the end of sections 41(b) and section 41(c) of the Courts Act shall apply, mutatis mutandis, with regard to the issue of granting permission to appeal the other decision as said.

Registration to be evidence of validity
64. In all legal proceedings relating to a registered trade mark the fact that a person is registered as proprietor of such trade mark shall be prima facie evidence of the validity of the original registration of such trade mark and all subsequent assignments and transmissions of the same.

Certificate of Registrar
65. A certificate purporting to be under the hand of the Registrar as to any entry or as to anything which he is authorized by this Ordinance or regulations made there under to do shall be prima facie evidence of the entry having been made and of the contents thereof and of the thing having been done or not done.
Hearing of Applicant
66. Where any discretionary or other power is given to the Registrar by this Ordinance or regulations made there under, he shall not exercise that power adversely to the applicant for registration or the registered proprietor of the trade mark without, if required by him within the prescribed time so to do, giving him an opportunity to be heard.

Evidence before Registrar
67. Subject to any regulation under this Ordinance, evidence is proceedings before the Registrar shall be by affidavit under section 15 of the Evidence Ordinance (New Version) 5732‒1971, or by declaration made abroad under the law of the place where it is made, so long as the Registrar does not otherwise direct; but the Registrar may, if he thinks fit, take oral testimony in lieu of or in addition of written evidence, and may permit the deponent or declarant to be cross-examined.

Powers of the Registrar with regard to witnesses.
68. The Registrar shall have the powers of a magistrate as to compelling a witness to attend before him and so hearing his testimony.

Costs
69. In every proceeding before him, the Registrar may award to a party such costs as he may consider reasonable.

Grant of notice to Customs Director
69A. (a) The proprietor of a registered trade mark whose rights have been infringed, or where there is a reasonable suspicion that they will be infringed, may give notice in writing to the Customs Director to the effect that he is the proprietor of the trade mark, and requesting the Director to delay releasing the goods that he claims are infringing goods and to treat them as goods the import of which is prohibited under the Customs Ordinance.
(b) A notice under subsection (a) shall include one of the following:
(1) An example of the original goods in respect of which the applicant has rights in the trade mark and in respect of which he gives notice of the importation of infringing goods;
(2) A catalog or any other document that enables the Customs Director to compare original goods with the infringing goods.
(c) The proprietor of a registered trade mark shall provide the Customs Director with the following information, to the extent that he has knowledge of it:

(1) The number of parcels to be received;
(2) Sufficient notation of means of importation or the name of the ship bringing the infringing goods;
(3) The date on which the infringing copies are meant to be received.

(d) The proprietor of the trade mark must provide the Customs Director with primary evidence, and a personal guarantee, as prescribed by the Customs Director, in order to cover all expenses connected with detaining goods, or in order to compensate for any damage caused as a result of the detaining of goods, should it become apparent that the detention of the goods was unjustified, and to pay any fee prescribed for this purpose in the Customs Ordinance.

(e) The provisions of this section shall not apply to infringing goods imported for personal use as defined in section 129 of the Customs Ordinance.
