PART I GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section I Aim, Scope, Definitions and Persons Entitled to Protection

Art. 1 Aim and Scope
The aim of this Decree-Law is to protect trademarks registered in conformity with the provisions thereof. This Decree-Law establishes the principles, rules and conditions for the protection of trademarks.

Art. 2 Definitions
For the purposes of this Decree-Law:
(a) “trademarks” means trademarks or service marks, including guarantee marks and collective marks;
(b) “Paris Convention” means the Paris Convention for the Protection of Industrial Property of March 20, 1883, and those of its amendments ratified by Turkey;
(c) “Institute” means the Turkish Patent Institute established by Decree-Law No. 544;
(d) “trademark agents” means the persons entitled to represent third parties before the Institute in the assertion and protection of the rights provided for in this Decree-Law.

Art. 3 Persons Entitled to Protection
The protection conferred by this Decree-Law shall be available to natural and legal persons domiciled or having industrial or commercial establishments within the territory of the Turkish Republic, or to persons having application rights deriving from the Paris or Berne Conventions or the Agreement Establishing the World Trade Organization. Natural or legal persons other than those referred to in the first paragraph of this Article who are nationals of States that accord legal and de facto protection to nationals of the Turkish Republic shall enjoy trademark protection in Turkey according to the principle of reciprocity.

Art. 4 Priority of International Agreements
Where the provisions of international agreements that have entered into force as provided in the laws of the Turkish Republic offer more favorable conditions than this Decree-Law, the persons referred to in Article 2 may request treatment according to those more favorable conditions.
Section II Signs that May Constitute a Trademark and Means of Acquiring Trademark Rights

Art. 5 Signs that May Constitute a Trademark
A trademark, provided that it is capable of distinguishing the goods and services of one undertaking from the goods and services of other undertakings, may consist of all kinds of signs being represented graphically such as words, including personal names, figures, letters, numbers, “shape of the goods” or “the packaging thereof” and similarly descriptive means capable of being published and reproduced by printing.
A trademark may be registered along with the good or the packaging. However, the registration of the good or packaging shall not grant any exclusive rights to the trademark proprietor. Such items which do not raise any exclusive right are clearly stated on the certificate of registration.

Art. 6 Means of Acquiring Trademark Rights
Protection for a trademark under this Decree-Law is obtained by registration.

Art. 7 Absolute Grounds for Refusal of Trademark Registration
The following signs shall not be registered as trademarks:

a) Signs which do not fall into the scope of Article 5;
b) Trademarks which are identical with or confusingly similar to a trademark registered or previously applied for registration for the same or same kind of goods or services;
c) Trademarks which consist exclusively or mainly of signs and designations which serve in trade to indicate the kind, type, characteristics, quality, quantity, intended purpose, value, geographical origin, or to indicate other characteristic features of goods and services;
d) Trademarks which consist exclusively or mainly of signs and names used to distinguish specific groups of craftsmen, professionals or tradesmen or which have become customary in the established practices of the trade;
e) Signs containing the shape of the product which originate from the nature of the relevant good, which is necessary to obtain a technical result, or which adds substantial value to the goods;
f) Trademarks of such a nature as to deceive the public with respect to the nature, quality or place of production, or geographical origin of a good or service;
g) Trademarks which have not been authorized by the competent authorities and are to be refused as per Article 6ter of Paris Convention;
h) Trademarks containing state emblems, emblems or official hallmarks other than those covered by Article 6ter of Paris Convention which are not allowed to be used by the competent authorities and are of particular historical and cultural public interest;
i) (repealed)
j) Trademarks containing religious symbols;
k) Trademarks which are against the public order and public morality.
A trademark which has been used before the registration and has acquired distinctive character through such use cannot be refused to be registered as per sub-paragraphs (a), (c) and (d).

Art. 8 Relative Grounds for Refusal of Trademark Registration
On opposition from the proprietor of a trademark registration application or registered trademark, the trademark registration applied for shall not be granted under the following circumstances:
(a) if the trademark filed for registration is identical to a registered trademark or to a trademark that has an earlier application date and the protection is sought for identical goods or services;
(b) if, because of its identicalness or similarity to a trademark that has an earlier application date or to a registered trademark and because of the identicalness or similarity of the goods and services covered by the trademarks, there exists a risk of confusion on the part of the public and that risk of confusion includes the likelihood of association with the registered trademark or with the trademark that has an earlier application date.
On opposition from the proprietor of a trademark, a trademark shall not be registered where an agent or representative of the proprietor of the trademark has applied for such registration in his own name without the proprietor’s consent and without valid justification.
On opposition from the proprietor of an unregistered trademark or of another sign used in the course of trade, the trademark registration applied for shall not be granted where:
(a) the rights in the sign were acquired prior to the date of the trademark registration application, or the priority date claimed for the said application;
(b) the sign confers on its proprietor the right to prohibit the use of a subsequent trademark.
A trademark filed for registration that is identical or similar to a registered trademark or to a trademark with an earlier application date may be used for different goods and services. However, where a registered trademark or a trademark with an earlier application date has a reputation, and where the use without due cause of the trademark filed for registration would take unfair advantage of or be detrimental to the distinctive character or reputation of the registered trademark or of the trademark with an earlier application date, on opposition from the proprietor of the earlier trademark the trademark applied for shall not be registered, even for use in connection with goods or services that are not similar to those for which the earlier trademark is registered.
On opposition from the holder of the relevant rights, the trademark filed for registration shall not be registered if it contains the name or photograph or infringes the copyright or any industrial property rights of third parties.
On opposition, a trademark filed for registration that is identical or similar to a collective or guarantee mark shall not be registered for three years following the expiry date of the collective or guarantee mark.
A trademark filed for registration that is identical or similar to a trademark the registration of which has not been renewed, and which is to be registered for identical or similar goods and services, on opposition, shall not be registered for two years following the expiry date.

Section III Scope of Protection of the Trademark

Art. 9 Scope of the Rights arising from a Trademark Registration Rights arising from a trademark registration exclusively belong to the proprietor of the relevant trademark. The proprietor of a trademark may request prevention of the following acts:
a) Use of any sign which is identical with the registered trademark, regarding the same goods and/or services that are covered by the registration scope of the trademark;
b) Use of any sign which will possibly create confusion among public, including the likelihood of association with the sign and a registered trademark in that it is identical with or similar to the registered trademark and it covers the same or similar goods and/or services subject to the registered trademark;
c) Use of any sign which is not identical with or similar to the registered trademark, which does not fall into the scope of the registered trademark, and/or which does not cover similar goods and/or services, yet which is likely to derive unfair benefits from or be detrimental to the reputation of a registered trademark due to the highly well-known status reached in Turkey.

The following can be banned as per the provision of the first paragraph:

a) Placement of the sign on a good or package;
b) Release of a good bearing the sign on the market or stocking thereof with this purpose, the proposal of its delivery or offering or supply of services under the subject matter sign;
c) Entry of a good bearing the sign into the customs zone, its being subject to any transaction or use approved by the customs;
d) Use of the sign on the business documents and advertisements of the enterprise;
e) Provided that the person using the sign does not have any right for or any legal connection with regards to the use of the sign, use of a sign which is identical with or similar to the sign on the Internet in the form of a domain name, directing code, keyword, etc. in a manner to create a commercial effect.

The rights arising from a trademark shall inure to the proprietor’s benefit against third parties, as of the publication of the trademark registration. The applicant shall be entitled to claim damages due to the acts realized after publication of the trademark registration in the bulletin and that would be banned upon announcement of the trademark registration. The Court shall not make a decision as to authenticity of the claims set forth, before publication of the registry.

Art. 10 Reproduction of the Trademark in Dictionaries and Reference Works

Where a trademark is reproduced in a dictionary, encyclopedia or similar reference work without any mention that it is registered, thereby giving the impression that it is the generic name of the goods or services for which the trademark is registered, the publisher shall, at the request of the proprietor, correct the fault in the next edition.

Art. 11 Prohibition of the Use of a Trademark Registered in the Name of an Agent or Representative

Where a trademark is registered in the name of the agent or representative of the proprietor of the trademark without the said proprietor’s consent, the proprietor shall be entitled to oppose the use of the trademark unless the agent or representative has valid justification.

Art. 12 Limits on the Effects of a Registered Trademark

The proprietor of a trademark may not prevent a third party from using, in the course of trade, his own name or address, information concerning the kind, quality, quantity, intended purpose, value, geographical origin or time of production of the goods or rendering of the services, or other characteristics of the goods or services, provided that the use is made in accordance with proper practice in industrial or commercial matters.

Art. 13 Exhaustion of the Rights Conferred by a Registered Trademark

Acts in relation to a product incorporating a registered trademark shall not constitute a breach of the rights therein where they occur after the product has been put on the market in Turkey by the proprietor or with his consent. The proprietor shall have the right, even where the foregoing paragraph applies, to oppose further commercialization of the goods, notably where the condition of the goods is changed or impaired after they have been placed on the market.

Section IV Use of the Trademark

Art. 14 Use of the Trademark

If, within a period of five years following registration, the trademark has not been put to use without a justifiable reason, or if the use thereof has been suspended for an uninterrupted period of five years, the trademark shall be invalidated. The following shall be understood to constitute use:

(a) use of the registered trademark in a form differing in elements that do not alter the distinctive character thereof;

(b) use of the trademark on goods or their packaging solely for export purposes;

(c) use of the trademark with the consent of the proprietor;

(d) importation of the goods bearing the trademark.
Section V Legal Transactions Relating to Trademark Rights

Art. 15 Legal Transactions
A registered trademark may be transferred to a third party, used as security or licensed, and may be passed on by inheritance. The relevant provisions of the Civil Code shall apply with respect to security rights.
Inter vivos transactions concerning the registered trademark shall be evidenced in writing.

Art. 16 Transfer of the Trademark
A trademark may be transferred for some or all of the goods or services for which it has been registered. Unless provided otherwise, transfer of an undertaking along with its assets and liabilities shall include transfer of the undertaking’s trademarks. This provision shall apply to the transfer of the relevant undertaking, in the form of a contractual obligation.
With the exception of the second paragraph; transfer of a trademark shall be made in writing and the transfer agreement shall be signed by the parties to the same, except when it is a result of a court decision. Agreements to the contrary shall be deemed null and void. Where the transfer of a trademark is likely to mislead the public concerning the nature, quality and geographical origin of the goods or services; the Institute shall not register the transfer unless the successor agrees to limit registration of the trademark with certain goods or services in an attempt to avoid confusion among the public.
At the request of one of the parties, a transfer shall be entered in the register and published.
As long as a transfer has not been entered in the register, the parties cannot claim the rights arising from the registration of the trademark against the third parties acting in good faith.

Art. 17 Transfer of a Trademark Registered in the Name of an Agent or Representative
Where a trademark is registered in the name of an agent or representative of the proprietor of a trademark without the consent of the said proprietor, the proprietor shall be entitled to demand the assignment of the registration to him unless the agent or representative justifies his action.
Art. 18 Using the Trademark as Security
A registered trademark may be used as security independently of the undertaking.
Use as security shall be recorded in the Register and published at the request of one of the parties.

Art. 19 Attachment
A registered trademark may be attached independently of the undertaking.
The attachment shall be entered in the Register and published.

Art. 20 Licensing
The rights in a registered trademark may be licensed in respect of some or all of the goods and services for which it is registered.

Art. 21 Licensing Conditions
A license may be exclusive or non-exclusive. Unless otherwise provided in the contract, the license shall be understood to be non-exclusive. The licensor may use the trademark himself, and may license the same trademark to third parties. In the case of an exclusive license, the licensor may not grant licenses to other parties and may not make use of the trademark unless the contract specifically so provides. Unless the contract specifically so provides, the licensee may not transfer the rights under the license or grant a sublicense. Unless otherwise provided in the contract, the licensee shall have exclusive rights in the use of the trademark during the period of protection. Unless otherwise provided in the contract, the holder of an exclusive license may, in the event of infringement of the trademark rights, institute in his own name all legal proceedings available to the proprietor of the trademark under this Decree-Law. Holders of non-exclusive licenses shall not have the right to institute legal proceedings. In the event of infringement, the holder of a non-exclusive license may serve notice on the proprietor of the trademark, through a notary public, to institute such proceedings as may be required. Should the proprietor of the trademark refuse, or within three months of receipt of the notice fail, to institute proceedings, the non-exclusive license holder shall have the right to institute proceedings himself. The licensee may, in the face of serious damage that will persist with the passage of time, apply to the court for the issue of a restraining injunction. The licensee who has instituted proceedings shall notify the proprietor of the trademark accordingly. The proprietor of the trademark shall take the necessary measures to ensure the quality of the products produced or services rendered by the licensee.

Where the provisions of the license contract have been breached by the licensee, proceedings may be instituted to invoke the rights under a registered trademark against the said licensee. A license shall not be enforceable against third parties acting in good faith until it is registered.

A license contract may not contain provisions contrary to this Decree-Law and other related laws, decrees and regulations. Such contrary provisions of a license contract shall be void even if they conform to legal provisions that have come into force after the signing of the contract.

Art. 22 Legal Procedures

Legal procedures relating to the transfer, licensing, attachment and use as security of a trademark and changes in the proprietorship thereof shall apply also to a trademark application.

In the event change of the notification address, such change shall be notified to the Institution. In case of any failure to make such notification, the notifications sent to the current address available at the Institute shall be deemed to have been duly made.
PART II APPLICATION

Section I Filing of Application

Art. 23 Filing of Application
An application for registration of a sign shall be filed with the following:
(a) a request, the form and contents of which shall be specified in the Implementing Regulations, including information identifying the applicant;
(b) a representation of the trademark suitable for reproduction;
(c) a list of the goods or services for which the trademark is to be used;
(d) the original receipt attesting payment of the application fees;
(e) the original receipt attesting payment of the class fees;
(f) the power of attorney if an agent is appointed;
(g) a signature circular where the applicant is a legal person;
(h) documents evidencing the applicant’s business activity.
The application fee shall be paid at the time of filing for the trademark registration application to be valid.
A separate application shall be filed for each trademark.
All documents filed with the application for registration of a trademark or submitted to the Institute later shall comply with the Implementing Regulations.

Art. 24 Classification
The goods and services for which the trademark is to be registered shall be classified according to the International Classification of Goods and Services. The principles of classification shall be specified in the Implementing Regulations.

Art. 25 Right of Priority
Natural or legal persons who are nationals of any State party to the Paris Convention or, if not nationals, are domiciled or have an active business in such a State shall enjoy a right of priority of six months, counted from the date on which a valid application for registration of a trademark was filed with the authorized bodies of the State concerned, for the filing of an application for a registration certificate in Turkey in respect of the same trademark. Priority rights not exercised within that period shall be considered void.
Where priority is claimed under the first paragraph above, all applications filed and registration certificates obtained by third parties in respect of trademarks falling within the scope of protection shall be declared invalid as from the date recognized as giving rise to the right of priority.

If a natural or legal person who is a national of a State party to the Paris Convention has filed a valid application in a State not party to the Paris Convention, he shall enjoy the right of priority under this Article in respect of that filing.

Art. 26 Exhibition Priority

Natural or legal persons within the meaning of the first paragraph of Article 3 who have displayed the goods or services to which the trademark is affixed at national or international exhibitions in Turkey or at official or officially recognized national or international exhibitions in States party to the Paris Convention may claim a right of priority for registration of the trademark in Turkey if the application claiming priority is filed within six months from the date of the first display of the goods.

If the goods or services to which the trademark is affixed have been displayed at the exhibition before the official opening date, the right of priority shall start from the date on which the goods or services were first displayed at the exhibition.

The officials of the exhibition held in Turkey shall supply evidence specifying the names of the goods or types of the services, the date of first display and the official opening date on which the goods or services were displayed to the public.

With respect to goods and services displayed in foreign countries, the evidence specified in the foregoing paragraph shall be supplied by the relevant authorities of the State concerned.

Goods to which the trademark is affixed may not be prevented from being displayed at an exhibition in Turkey or from being returned to their country of origin after the close of the exhibition.

Where there have been two or more applicants for a trademark registered or registration applied for in respect of the same goods or services, the applicant who first displayed the goods or services or, if both displayed at the same time, the one who files his application first shall enjoy the right of priority.

Art. 27 Effect of Priority Rights

The priority rights deriving from Articles 25 and 26 shall have effect as from the date of the application for which the priority is claimed.
Art. 28 Claiming and Evidencing of Priority

An applicant wishing to avail himself of his priority rights shall file a declaration of priority with his application for registration of a sign. If the right of priority is not substantiated within three months of the filing of the application, the declaration of priority shall be considered invalid.

Exhibition priority rights granted shall not extend the period of priority laid down in Article 25.
PART III REGISTRATION PROCEDURES

Section I Examination of the Application

Art. 29 Examination for Compliance with Filing Conditions
The Institute shall examine whether the application complies with the conditions specified in Article 23 and whether there are deficiencies. If it concludes that there are no deficiencies, the application shall be accorded as the date of filing the date, hour and minute of the original filing of the application with the Institute or with the body authorized for the purpose by the Institute. If a priority declaration has been filed, the Institute shall undertake an examination in accordance with Articles 25, 26 and 27.

Art. 30 Remediying Deficiencies Regarding Compliance With Filing Conditions
If deficiencies regarding compliance with the conditions of Article 23 are noted, the Institute shall request the applicant to remedy those deficiencies within the period specified in the Implementing Regulations. The Institute shall refuse an application where the information identifying the applicant as provided in subparagraph (a) of Article 23 is completely or partly lacking, or where any of the documents provided for in subparagraphs (b), (c) and (d) has not been supplied. If the applicant complies with the Institute’s request and remedies, within the time specified in the Implementing Regulations, those deficiencies that fall within the scope of subparagraphs (e), (f), (g) and (h) of Article 23, the Institute shall allow the date on which the deficient application was originally filed as the date of filing. Failure to satisfy the requirement for the claiming of priority shall result only in loss of the right of priority for the application.

Art. 31 Examination as to Entitlement
Applications filed by natural or legal persons who are not within the scope of Article 3 shall be refused.

Art. 32 Examination as to Absolute Grounds for Refusal
On concluding that there are no deficiencies regarding compliance with the conditions of filing, the Institute shall examine the application to determine whether it is eligible for registration under Article 7 in respect of all or some of the goods or services to be registered.
Any application found ineligible shall be refused under Article 7 in respect of all or some of those goods or services.

Section II Publication of the Application

Art. 33 Publication of the Application
An application for registration of a trademark that complies with the application conditions and has not been refused under Article 29, 30, 31 or 32 shall be published in the relevant Bulletin. Where an application is refused under any of the Articles referred to in the foregoing paragraph, after publication of the application, the decision of refusal shall also be published.

Section III Observations by Third Parties

Art. 34 Observations by Third Parties
Any natural or legal person or any group representing manufacturers, producers, providers of services, traders or consumers may, following the publication of the trademark application, submit written observations to the Institute alleging that the trademark does not conform to the registration requirements under Article 7. They shall not be party to the proceedings before the Institute, however.

Art. 35 Opposition
Notices of opposition to the registration of a trademark on the ground that it may not be registered under Article 7 or 8, and notices of opposition on the ground that there is evidence of bad faith in the application, shall be submitted within three months of the publication of the application.
Opposition under the last paragraph of Article 8 shall be refused if the opposing party does not use his trademark during the period specified.
Oppositions shall be submitted in writing and shall contain a statement of grounds. The Institute may request the supply of further facts, evidence and documents within the period specified in the Implementing Regulations.
Where the additional facts, evidence and documents requested are not submitted within the period prescribed by the Implementing Regulations, the opposition shall be deemed not to have been made.
Art. 36 Examination of the Opposition
During the examination of the opposition, the Institute may, when it deems fit and as often as necessary, request the parties to submit observations in writing and communicate observations and objections so submitted to the other parties involved. The Institute may, if it sees fit, invite the parties to reach an amicable settlement. The Institute shall refuse the opposition if it is found not to be valid. If the opposition is found to be valid for some of the goods or services for which the trademark application has been filed, the opposition shall be accepted in respect of those goods or services.

Section IV Procedural Matters Relating to Trademark Applications

Art. 37 Corrections
At the request of the applicant, corrections to spelling errors and to errors in the name and address of the applicant that do not cause any change in the goods or services or the scope of the application shall be allowed during the examination stage.

Art. 38 Withdrawal
A trademark application may be withdrawn by the applicant before it is registered.

Section V Registration

Art. 39 Registration
Where an application filed under this Decree-Law and the related Regulations has been found to be without defects, where its deficiencies have been remedied, where it has received no opposition within the prescribed period or where opposition to it has been refused, it shall be entered in the Register. The applicant shall receive a certificate of trademark registration. The Register entry shall include: the date of registration of the trademark, the representation of the trademark, the application date, the list of the goods or services for which the trademark is to be used, the classification of the goods or services, the name and nationality of the proprietor of the trademark and the agent’s name if applicable, the title, address and country of registration of the legal person, any changes relating to the trademark and to the rights in the trademark and any other particulars specified in the Implementing Regulations.
The Trademark Registry shall be open to the public. Copies of register entries shall be obtainable on request and payment of the prescribed fee.

On registration a trademark shall be published as provided in the Implementing Regulations together with the information contained in the second paragraph above.
PART IV TERM OF REGISTRATION AND RENEWAL OF A TRADEMARK

Art. 40 Term of Registration
A trademark shall be registered for a period of ten years from the date of filing of the application. Registration may be renewed for further periods of ten years.

Art. 41 Renewal
The registration of a trademark shall be renewed, on payment of the renewal fee, at the request of the owner of the rights or of the person authorized by him.
The Institute shall inform the owner of the rights of the expiry of the registration within the time specified in the Implementing Regulations. The Institute shall not be liable for failure to give such information.
The request for renewal shall be submitted and the renewal fee paid within six months before the last day of the month in which protection ends. Where that time limit is not met, the request may be submitted within a further period of six months from the day referred to in the previous sentence on payment of an additional fee.
Renewal shall take effect on the day following the date on which the current registration expires. The renewal shall be entered in the Register.
The provisions of this Decree-Law shall cease to have effect on trademarks that have not been renewed within the six months following expiry of the term of protection.
PART V INVALIDITY OF A TRADEMARK AND TERMINATION OF TRADEMARK RIGHTS

Section I Invalidity of a Trademark

Art. 42 Invalidity
A registered trademark shall be declared invalid by the competent court in under the following circumstances:
a) The circumstances laid down in Article 7 (However, the action regarding the well-known trademarks defined in subparagraph(i) of Article 7 must be filed within 5 years from “the date of registration”. If there is bad faith in registration of the trademark, the given time limit shall not apply.);
b) The circumstances laid down in Article 8 (However, regarding the proceedings instituted under the last paragraph of Article 8, if the previous right owner has not used his trademark within two years beginning from expiry of the protection period; it shall not constitute a reason for invalidity.);
c) (repealed)
d) Where the trademark has become a generic name for the goods and services, due to the acts of the trademark proprietor;
e) Where, as a result of the use made by the right owner or the person authorized by him, there exists likelihood of confusion on the part of the public as to the nature, quality, place of production, and geographical origin of the goods and services for which it is registered;
f) Where used in breach of Article 59;
Where the invalidity is involved only for some of the goods or services, partial invalidation shall be ruled with respect to the concerned goods or services.
Where a trademark has been used before the date of registration and has acquired distinctive character through such use, in respect of the goods or services subject to the relevant registration; its registration cannot be invalidated as per subparagraphs (a), (c) and (d) of Article 7.

Art. 43 Application for a Declaration of Invalidity
Any injured party, the State prosecutor or related official authorities may apply to the court for invalidation.

Art. 44 Effect of Invalidity
A final decision declaring invalidity shall have retroactive effect.
The retroactive effect of invalidity shall not extend to the following, but without prejudice to compensation claims for damage caused by negligence or lack of good faith on the part of the proprietor of the trademark:
(a) a final decision on infringement of the trademark reached and enforced prior to the declaration of invalidity;
(b) contracts concluded and executed prior to the declaration of invalidity; however, partial or total repayment of sums paid under the contract may be claimed, on the grounds of equity, to an extent justifiable by the circumstances.
A final declaration of invalidity shall be effective against all persons.

Section II Termination of Rights

Art. 45 Causes of Termination
The rights in a trademark shall terminate on:
(a) expiry of the term of protection and failure to renew within the prescribed period;
(b) surrender of his rights by the proprietor of the trademark.
The termination of the rights in a trademark shall have effect from the time at which the cause of the termination arose. The termination of the rights in a trademark shall be published in the current Bulletin.

Art. 46 Surrender of Rights
The proprietor of a trademark may surrender his rights in respect of some or all of the goods or services for which it is registered. The surrender shall be declared in writing to the Institute. It shall be effective as of the date of the corresponding entry in the Register. The proprietor of a trademark may not surrender his rights without obtaining the consent of the licensees or holders of rights recorded in the Register.
Where a claim on the rights is made by a third party, the surrender of the rights may not be requested without the consent of the said third party.
PART VI APPEALS AGAINST DECISIONS OF THE INSTITUTE

Art. 47 Appeals
Appeals may be lodged against decisions of the Institute. Where an appeal is lodged against an interim decision, a separate appeal shall be allowed on the decision becoming final.

Art. 48 Persons Entitled to Appeal
Any party adversely affected by a decision of the Institute may appeal. Any other parties to the proceedings shall be party to the appeal as of right.

Art. 49 Form of Appeal
A notice of appeal shall be filed with the Institute in writing within two months of the notification of the decision. The appeal fee shall be paid on the filing of the notice for the appeal to be examined. The grounds for appeal shall be submitted in a written statement within two months of the notification of the decision. Where the statement of the grounds for appeal is not submitted within that period, the appeal shall be deemed not to have been filed.

Art. 50 Rectifying a Decision
The relevant department of the Institute may rectify its decision on finding that the appeal is well-founded. This shall not apply where the appellant is opposed by another party to the proceedings. If the appeal is not found acceptable by the relevant department, it shall be forwarded by that department to the Reexamination and Evaluation Board without any comment on its merits.

Art. 51 Examination of Appeals
The Reexamination and Evaluation Board shall consider the appeal if it is admissible. The Reexamination and Evaluation Board shall invite the parties to submit, within the period prescribed by the Implementing Regulations, their comments on the observations of the other parties or on its own observations.

Art. 52 Decision on Appeal
After the examination, the Reexamination and Evaluation Board shall issue its decision.
Art. 53 Court Actions Against Decisions

Actions against final decisions of the Reexamination and Evaluation Board may be instituted with the competent court, within two months of notification of the said decision, in respect of the appeals provided for in Articles 47 to 52 inclusive.
PART VII GUARANTEE MARKS AND COLLECTIVE MARKS

Art. 54 Guarantee Marks
A guarantee mark shall, under the control of the proprietor of the mark, serve to guarantee the common characteristics of undertakings and of the production methods, geographical signs and quality of those undertakings.

Art. 55 Collective Marks
A collective mark is a mark used by a group of undertakings of producers or traders or providers of services. A collective mark shall serve to distinguish the goods and services of the undertakings belonging to the group from those of other undertakings.

Art. 56 Technical Rules Governing Guarantee and Collective Marks
When an application for registration of a guarantee or a collective mark is filed, rules governing the ways and means of using the mark must also be filed. The rules governing the guarantee mark shall contain provisions regarding the common characteristics of the goods and services under guarantee, procedures for the supervision of the use of the mark and the penalties to be imposed when necessary. The rules governing the collective mark shall specify the undertakings authorized to use the mark. Proprietors of a collective mark shall act collectively for the registration of the mark. An application by one of the parties shall be sufficient for the renewal of a collective mark.

Art. 57 Amending the Technical Rules
Technical rules may not be amended except with the approval of the Institute. Any changes to be made in the technical rules shall be rejected by the Institute where they are at variance with the second and third paragraphs of Article 56 or contrary to public policy or principles of morality.

Art. 58 Rules Contrary to this Decree-Law
Where a technical rule does not conform to the requirements of Article 56, the Institute shall serve notice on the proprietor of the mark to make the necessary changes. Where the proprietor of the mark does not make the changes requested and amend the rule accordingly, the request for registration of the collective mark or guarantee mark shall be rejected.

Art. 59 Use in Violation of the Technical Rules
Where the proprietor of a collective or a guarantee mark disregards a use of the mark that constitutes a violation of the technical rules, and neglects to remedy the offense within the time specified by the court in response to an action brought by one of the parties, the mark shall be invalidated by the court.

Art. 60 Transfer and Licensing
The transfer or licensing of a guarantee mark or collective mark shall become valid only on being recorded in the Register.
PART VIII INFRINGEMENT OF RIGHTS

Art. 61 Infringement
The following acts shall be construed as infringement of the rights arising from a trademark:

a) Use of a trademark in ways stated in Article 9, without consent of the proprietor of the relevant trademark;

b) Imitation of a trademark through use of an identical or confusingly similar trademark, without consent of the proprietor of the relevant trademark;

c) Sales, distribution or release of the products bearing the trademark used through infringement, despite being aware of or being supposed to know that the trademark is imitated through use of an identical or confusingly similar trademark, or placing them into a customs area, to subject them to a transaction or usage approved by the customs authorities, or to possess the same for commercial purposes;

d) Expansion of the rights granted by the trademark proprietor by means of licensing, or to assign these rights to third parties.

Art. 61A Penal Clauses
Those who produce, market or sell goods or services through infringement of a third party’s trademark rights, shall be convicted to imprisonment from one to three years and shall be imposed punitive fine up to twenty thousand days.

Those who remove the sign indicating that the relevant good or packaging is subject to trademark protection, without authorization to do so, shall be convicted to imprisonment from one to three years and shall be imposed punitive fine up to five thousand days.

Those who dispose of a third party’s trademark rights through sales, transfer, lease or pledging thereof despite having no authorization to do so, shall be convicted to imprisonment from two to four years and shall be imposed punitive fine up to five thousand days.

In the event that the offenses defined in the above-given paragraphs are committed within the scope of activities of a legal person, some security measures specific to such activities shall also be taken.

For establishment of a criminal sentence with respect to the offenses defined above, the trademark should be already registered in Turkey. Investigation and prosecution of the offenses defined in the foregoing paragraphs shall take place upon a claim to that effect.

If a person who markets or sells goods that are imitations of a trademark belonging to a third party, discloses the source where he has procured the relevant goods and thereby, the producers of the imitated goods are revealed and the goods are confiscated; no penalty shall be imposed on him.

Art. 62 Action by the Proprietor of the Trademark
The proprietor of a trademark whose rights have been infringed may in particular apply to the court for the following:
(a) cessation of the infringing acts;
(b) remedies for infringement and compensation for damages incurred;
(c) confiscation of the goods, and the equipment and machinery used to produce those goods, by which the trademark rights have been infringed, such production and use being an offense;
(d) recognition of ownership of the goods confiscated under subparagraph (c), above, in which case the value of the goods shall be deducted from the compensation awarded; where the value of the goods is found to be greater than the compensation value awarded, the proprietor of the trademark shall repay the balance to the infringing party;
(e) enforcement measures to prevent the continued infringement of rights, removal of the trademark from the goods and from vehicles or, if essential for the prevention of the acts of infringement, destruction of the goods and vehicles confiscated in particular under subparagraph (c), above;
(f) disclosure of the court judgment to the public and to those concerned, the cost thereof to be met by the offending party.

Art. 63 Competent Courts
The competent court for the institution of civil proceedings by the proprietor of a trademark against third parties shall be the court of the domicile of the plaintiff, the place in which the act was committed or the place in which the act had effect.
Where the plaintiff is not a citizen of the Republic of Turkey, the competent court shall be that of the domicile of the authorized agent entered in the Register or, if the agent’s registration has been cancelled, that of the domicile of the Institute.
The competent court for the institution of proceedings by third parties against the proprietor of a trademark shall be the court of the domicile of the defendant. If the applicant for or holder of trademark rights is not domiciled in Turkey, the provisions of the second paragraph above shall apply.
Where there are several competent courts, the court at which the proceedings are instituted first shall be the competent court.

Art. 64 Compensation
The person who, without the consent of the proprietor of the trademark, produces, sells, distributes or puts to commercial use, or imports or keeps in his possession for those purposes, a product that unlawfully imitates the trademark shall be responsible for remedying the illegality and compensating for any damage he has caused. A person who uses an unlawful imitation of a trademark, having been informed of the infringement by the proprietor of the trademark and requested to stop the infringement or any other misuse that may exist, shall be liable to compensate for the damage he has caused.

Art. 65 Documents Evidencing Infringement
The proprietor of a trademark may request from the infringing party the documents relating to the use of the trademark without his consent, for assessment of the injuries suffered as a result of the trademark infringement.

Art. 66 Non-Realization of Profits
The injuries suffered by the proprietor of the trademark shall include not only the value of the actual loss but also the income not realized owing to the infringement of trademark rights. The loss of income shall be calculated according to one of the following criteria at the discretion of the proprietor of the trademark who has suffered the injury:
(a) the potential income that the proprietor of the trademark would have realized if there had been no competition from the infringing party;
(b) the income actually realized by the infringing party from the use of the trademark;
(c) the license fee that would have been paid if the party infringing the trademark rights had made use of the trademark under a legal licensing contract. The calculation of the profits not realized shall take into account, in particular, the economic value of the trademark, the term of protection remaining at the time of infringement, the type and number of the licenses outstanding and similar factors.

Art. 67 Increasing the Amount of the Profits Not Realized
Where the proprietor of the trademark has selected one of the calculation methods specified in subparagraphs (a), (b) and (c) of Article 66, the court may add a reasonable additional amount if, in its opinion, the trademark contributes substantially to the economic value of the product.

The assessment of the trademark’s contribution to the economic value of the product shall be based on verification that the demand for the product is to a large extent due to the trademark.

Art. 68 Reputation of the Trademark
The proprietor of a trademark may request extra damages for the harm done through the improper use of the trademark by the infringing party that was detrimental to the reputation of the sign.

Art. 69 Persons Against Whom Action May Not Be Brought
The proprietor of a trademark may not institute proceedings under this Part of this Decree-Law against those who have used goods placed on the market by a person who has paid compensation to him. This provision shall not apply if there is evidence of bad faith.

Art. 70 Time Limits
The provisions of the Code of Contractual Obligations on time limits shall apply to the time limits for action against infringements of trademark rights.

Art. 71 Competent Courts
The courts having jurisdiction over the actions set forth in this Decree Law are the specialized courts. These courts serve with one judge. The Supreme Council of Judges and Public Prosecutors shall determine, upon proposal of the Ministry of Justice, the civil and criminal courts of first instance to serve as specialized courts and the judicial locality thereof.

The court competent and having jurisdiction over the actions to be filed against all decisions which have been rendered by the Institute under this Decree Law and the actions to be filed by the third parties incurred damages from the Institute’s decisions, against the Institute are the specialized courts of Ankara, listed in the first paragraph of this Article.

Art. 72 Publication of Court Decisions
Where a court judgment has become final, the successful party may request the publication in full or in summary form of the final judgment in a daily paper, on radio or television or by any other medium of communication, the cost thereof to be met by the other party. The nature and extent of the publication shall be specified in the judgment. The right of publication shall be void if not exercised within three months of the judgment becoming final.

Art. 73 Action by the Licensee

Unless otherwise provided in the contract, the holder of an exclusive license may, in the event of infringement of the trademark rights, institute in his own name all legal proceedings that have been made available to the proprietor of the trademark by this Decree-Law. Holders of non-exclusive licenses shall not have the right to institute legal proceedings.

In the event of infringement, the holder of a non-exclusive license may, through a notary public, serve notice on the proprietor of the trademark to institute such proceedings as may be required.

In the event of the proprietor of the trademark right refusing or, within three months of receipt of the aforesaid notice, failing to institute proceedings, the non-exclusive license holder shall have the right to institute proceedings.

In the event of serious damage that will persist with the passage of time, the licensee may apply to the court for the issue of a restraining injunction.

A licensee who has instituted proceedings under the third paragraph above shall notify the proprietor of the trademark that the proceedings have been instituted.

Art. 74 Claims of Non-Infringement

Any interested party may institute proceedings against the proprietor of a trademark to obtain a non-infringement ruling.

Prior to the institution of proceedings under the foregoing paragraph, a notice shall be sent through a notary public for the attention of the proprietor of the trademark to enable the holder of the trademark rights to express his observations on whether the trademark to be used on the goods being or to be produced by the requesting party in Turkey infringes the said trademark rights.

Where the proprietor of the trademark, on receiving such a notice, does not respond within a month of receipt thereof, or where the content of the response is not found acceptable by the requesting party, the latter party shall have the right to institute proceedings under the first paragraph above.

Persons against whom infringement actions have been brought in respect of the trademark rights may not institute proceedings under the first paragraph above. The institution of proceedings shall be communicated to all holders of rights who are entered in the Register. The actions referred to in this Article may also be instituted in conjunction with an invalidation action.

Art. 75 Recording of Evidence
Any person legally entitled to claim infringement of trademark rights, may request the court to determine the acts of infringement of these rights.

Art. 76 Precautionary Measures
Any person legally entitled to bring action under this Decree-Law may request the court to order precautionary measures provided that he can prove the existence of acts of actual use of the trademark or serious preparations for such use that would constitute infringement. The request for precautionary measures may be filed before or on the institution of proceedings or later. The request for precautionary measures shall be examined separately.

Art. 77 Nature of the Precautionary Measures
The precautionary measures shall be of such a nature as to permit the securing of the judgment, and shall in particular provide for the following: (a) cessation of acts of infringement of the plaintiff’s trademark rights; (b) seizure within the borders of Turkey, including at the customs or in free ports or free trade areas, and the holding in custody, of produced or imported goods that have infringed the trademark rights; (c) provision of security for such damage as may have to be compensated.

Art. 78 Civil Procedure Code
Provisions of the Code of Civil Procedures shall have effect with respect to the matters regarding the “determination requests” and preliminary injunctions.

Art. 79 Seizure at Customs
The customs authorities shall withhold as a precautionary measure, on either exportation or importation, goods that have infringed the rights in a trademark.
Withholding procedures shall be laid down by legislation to be enacted for the purpose. The withholding measure applied by the customs authorities shall cease to have effect if proceedings are not instituted before the special court or if a restraining injunction is not obtained from the court within 10 days of the said measure.
PART IX REPRESENTATION AND AGENTS

Art. 80 Representation Before the Institute

Representation before the Institute in trademark matters may only be undertaken by the following:
(a) natural or legal persons who have filed an application; legal persons may only be represented by those duly empowered to do so by their authorized bodies;
(b) trademark agents.

Persons domiciled outside the country may only be represented by trademark agents.

Where an agent has been appointed, all procedures shall be conducted through him. All notices made to the agent shall be considered to have been made to his principal.
PART X PAYMENT OF FEES AND LEGAL EFFECTS

Art. 81 Conditions of Payment of Fees and Effects
The fees prescribed by the Implementing Regulations for the filing of an application and for a registered trademark shall be paid by the applicant, by the proprietor of the trademark or by the trademark agent.
Where the prescribed fees for the registration of a trademark have not been paid within the period provided for in this Decree-Law, the application for the registration of the trademark shall be deemed to have been withdrawn.
PART XI FINAL PROVISIONS

Art. 82 Provisions Repealed
Trademark Law No. 551 of March 3, 1995, is hereby repealed.

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

1. The provisions of the Law valid on the date of the application shall apply to applications for the registration of a trademark filed prior to the entry into force of this Decree-Law. Without prejudice to all acts of transfer or inheritance and licensing contracts concluded and registered prior to the entry into force of this Decree-Law, the provisions of this Decree-Law shall apply to any further action or changes in relation to such matters.

2. Those who have actually made use of their service marks may request registration thereof by filing evidence of such use within 12 months of the entry into force of this Decree-Law. The Institute shall examine the requests of service mark users after the expiry of 12 months, taking into consideration the date of first use.

3. For the purposes of this Decree-Law, until the special courts are established, at the request of the Ministry of Justice, the High Council of Judges and Prosecutors shall select, from among the commercial courts of first instance and the criminal courts of first instance, those to be appointed as special courts, and shall specify the jurisdiction of each.

Art. 83 Entry into Force
This Decree-Law shall enter into force on the day of its publication.

Art. 84 Execution
This Decree-Law shall be executed by the Council of Ministers.
