

17. 02Handling of the original application for design registration in a case where the original application is not amended at the time of filing the new application for design registration resulting from division

If the original application for design registration is not amended at the time of filing of the new application for design registration resulting from division, the original application for design registration should be rejected as an application containing multiple designs (Design Act 7, Design Act 17(3)).