

China

LIU Yijun

Judge, The Intellectual Property Court of Beijing, China

---

Liu, Yijun is a judge of Beijing Intellectual Property Court. He respectively received his master's degree from China University of Political Science and Law (Civil and commercial Law) and from City University of Hong Kong (Common law), and received his Ph.D. (Intellectual Property Law) from China University of Political Science and Law. He has heard intellectual property cases since 2014, and issued over 1500 judgments, some of which were selected as Excellent cases or Top Ten Typical Intellectual Property Cases of the Year by Beijing High people's Court, one of his academic papers was awarded the second prize of excellent cases analysis by the Supreme people's Court of China.

Xiaohua Chen

Deputy Director of the Second Division of Electrical Appeals Reexamination and Invalidation Department of Patent Office, China National Intellectual Property Administration

---

Ms. Chen is a secondary examiner of the Patent Office. She holds a Master of Laws of Temple University and a Master of Science of Sichuan University. She joined the Patent Office after graduation and has been engaged in patent examination in the computer field for nearly 17 years. Ms. Chen worked in the Planning Department of the State Intellectual Property Office for one year and worked as a technical investigation officer in the Beijing Intellectual Property Court for two years. She has participated in a number of research projects involving patent examination in the computer field, and has published a number of related academic papers. At present, she is the leader of the research group of the 2021 major special project "Research on Patent Protection Policies and Protection Rules in the Field of Artificial Intelligence".