I had been graduated from technical college in Vientiane, Lao PDR in the field of accounting since 1996. Studied the business administration at private college in Vientiane from 2001 - 2004, and graduated from national university of LAO, faculty of letter. I have been working at national authority for science and technology under prime minister's office, department of intellectual property of the year 1998 as technical officer, to assist industrial property division with office documents. In 2002, I became assistant trademark examiner to assist the examiner to do formality check trademark applications for registration and data capture. From the year 2004, I have become the trademark examiner. The main duty is to do substantive examination for trademark registration. Besides that, I have been dealing with amendment applications such as change of owner's name, address, assignments and licensing applications. Besides that, I have also given the consultant to clients or customers who are interested in trademark registration, especially, the procedure how to file the trademark application in LAO PDR. Thereafter, in the year 2010, I have promoted to be deputy director of industrial property division dealing with trademark registration issue and documentation. Then in the year 2015 I moved to copyright division as deputy director of copyright division was in charge of copyright and related right, especially, in the field of copyright collective management in drafting of licensing tariff and other task assignment relating the copyright and related right procedure. At present I have been working in the IP Dispute Resolution, in charge of dispute relating the IP registration such opposition, refusal and cancellation of IP registration.
