

Malaysia

Mohd Radzi bin Harun

Judge, High Court, Malaysia

---

[Academic Qualifications]

1989

Bachelor of Laws (Honours) International Islamic University, Malaysia (Uia)
2004

Master of Laws University of Nottingham, United Kingdom

[Summary of Services]

1989-2018

Numerous positions in the Malaysian Judicial Department and The Attorney General's Chambers, including Magistrate, Legal Advisor of Government Department and Ministries, Deputy Public Prosecutor, and Senior Federal Counsel

2018 March-2020 March

Judicial Commissioner, High Court

2020 March-Now

Judge, High Court

Hamzah Bin Mahadi

Enforcement Officer, Ministry of Domestic Trade and Consumer Affairs, Malaysia

---

Currently I am the Head of Intellectual Property Section, Enforcement Division, Ministry of Domestic Trade & Consumer Affairs (MDTCA), Putrajaya, Malaysia. My education background is I am LL.B Hons holder from International Islamic University Malaysia. I started my career in Enforcement Division, MDTCA as Assistant Director in 2002 as Senior Assistant Director, Deputy Head Unit of Trade Description Unit, Head of Copyright Unit and as Head of IP Section until now. My current role and responsibilities as the Head of the Intellectual Property Section are to plan the setting up policy including monitoring 74 MDTCA branches across Malaysia. The main task of Enforcement Division is to be the lead agency in enforcing domestic trade laws and consumer rights as well as to provide protection against any malpractices especially in relation to the intellectual property rights and consumer protections in Malaysia. I am the MDTCA committee member of Special Task Force on Intellectual Property, presenting papers at Malaysian Enforcement Agencies, discussion or seminar in Malaysia, involve in the Division's drafting and drawing of the framework, procedures, guidelines, rules & regulations relating to enforcement work such as investigation and prosecution.